Vita Sanctae Coletae 1381-1447 Cazaux,Decavele,Derolez,Corstanje,2023-09-20 A Companion to Colette of Corbie,2016-02-15 A Companion to Colette of Corbie presents a collection of essays offering new historical and religious perspectives on the life career and influences of this little studied fifteenth century saint Colette of Corbie a contemporary of Joan of Arc established an important reform movement in the Franciscan order founded numerous monasteries for women in Burgundy France and the Low Countries and had connections with high ranking Burgundian and French noble families Essays in this volume draw upon many relatively unknown primary sources and add significantly to the scholarship on this important religious figure Contributors are Anna Campbell Joan Mueller Andrea Pearson Jane Marie Pinzino Monique Somme Ludovic Viallet and Nancy Bradley Warren Gardens of Love and the Limits of Morality in Early Netherlandish Art Andrea Pearson,2019-02-26 In Gardens of Love and the Limits of Morality in Early Netherlandish Art Andrea Pearson charts the moralization of human bodies in late medieval and early modern visual culture through paintings by Jan van Eyck and Hieronymus Bosch devotional prints and illustrated books and the celebrated enclosed gardens of Mechelen among other works Drawing on new archival evidence and innovative visual analysis to reframe familiar religious discourses she demonstrates that depicted topographies advanced and sometimes resisted bodily critiques expressed in scripture conduct literature and even legislation Governing many of these redemptive greenscapes were the figures of Christ and the Virgin Mary archetypes of purity whose spiritual authority was impossible to ignore yet whose mysteries posed innumerable moral challenges The study reveals that bodily status was the fundamental problem of human salvation in which artists patrons and viewers alike had an interpretive stake Envisioning Gender in Burgundian Devotional Art, 1350-1530 Andrea Pearson,2017-05-15 Illuminated here are the relationships between visual culture faith and gender in the courtly monastic and urban spheres of the early modern Burgundian Netherlands By examining works by artists such as the Master of Mary of Burgundy Jan van Eyck Hans Memling and Bernard van Orley author Andrea Pearson identifies and explores pictorial constructions of masculinity and femininity in regard to the expectations experiences and practices of devotion Specifically she demonstrates that two of the most prominent visual genres of the period books of hours and devotional portrait diptychs were manipulated by patrons and spectators of both sexes to challenge and negotiate the boundaries and hierarchies of gender and that marginalized individuals and groups appropriated the types to resist the authority of others and advance their own Ultimately the books and diptychs emerge as critical and often contentious sites for deliberating and transacting gender By integrating books of hours and devotional portrait diptychs into current interdisciplinary theoretical discourse on gender power and devotion the author engages scholars in a range of disciplines art history history religion and literature as well as women s and men s studies A Feast for the Eyes Christina Normore,2015-05-01 To read accounts of late medieval banquets is to enter a fantastical world where live lions guard nude statues gilded stags burst into song and musicians play from within pies We can almost hear the clock sound from within a glass castle taste the fire breathing roast boar and smell the rose water cascading in a miniature fountain Such vivid works of art and performance required collaboration among artists in many fields as well as the participation of the audience A Feast for the Eyes is the first book length study of the court banquets of northwestern Europe in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries Christina Normore draws on an array of artworks archival documents chroniclers accounts and cookbooks to re create these events and reassess the late medieval visual culture in which banquets were staged Feast participants she shows developed sophisticated ways of appreciating artistic skill and attending to their own processes of perception thereby forging a court culture that delighted in the exercise of fine aesthetic judgment Challenging modern assumptions about the nature of artistic production and reception A Feast for the Eyes yields fresh insight into the long history of multimedia work and the complex relationships between spectacle and spectators

The Image and Perception of Monarchy in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Sean McGlynn, Elena Woodacre, 2014-10-02 Monarchy is an enduring institution that still makes headlines today It has always been preoccupied with image and perception never more so than in the period covered by this volume The collection of papers gathered here from international scholars demonstrates that monarchical image and perception went far beyond cultural symbolic and courtly display although these remain important and were in fact always deeply concerned with the practical expression of authority politics and power This collection is unique in that it covers the subject from two innovative angles it not only addresses both kings and queens together but also both the medieval and early modern periods Consequently this allows significant comparisons to be made between male and female monarchy as well as between eras Such an approach reveals that continuity was arguably more important than change over a span of some five centuries In removing the traditional gender and chronological barriers that tend to lead to four separate areas of studies for kings and queens in medieval and early modern history the papers here are free to encompass male and female royal rulers ranging across Europe from the early thirteenth to the late seventeenth centuries to examine the image and perception of monarchy in England Scotland France Burgundy Spain and the Holy Roman Empire Collectively this volume will be of interest to all those studying medieval and early modern monarchy and for those wishing to learn about the connections and differences between the two

Sanctity and Motherhood Anneke Mulder-Bakker, 2013-05-13 Increasingly recent scholarship has focused on those married women and mothers in the Middle Ages who achieved holiness The Merovingian Waldetrudis and Rictrudis Ida mother of the crusader king Godfrey of Bouillon Elisabeth of Hungary and Bridget of Sweden are among them Unlike Mary and her mother Saint Anne mother saints whose sanctity was based on motherhood these female parents were honored despite rather than because of their children They were holy mothers whose status as spouses and mothers gave them a public voice and opened for them the road to sanctification They successfully combined marriage and motherhood with a religious life and functioned as holy women in their community Despite increasing respect tension between the roles of saint and wife persisted Saintly women were not expected to be happily married the ancient prejudice against sexual passion and physical ease mitigated the enjoyment of married life The book s original essays focus on Northern Europe where the cult of Saint Anne reached its climax around 1500 It does not explore Church doctrine and theology as other studies do but examines the religious experience of historical holy mothers and saints and how these women were perceived by their communities and their biographers

Women and Religion in Medieval and Renaissance Italy Daniel Bornstein, Roberto Rusconi, 1996-07-15 Between the twelfth and the sixteenth centuries women assumed public roles of unprecedented prominence in Italian religious culture Legally subordinated politically excluded socially limited and ideologically disdained women s active participation in religious life offered them access to power in all its forms These essays explore the involvement of women in religious life throughout northern and central Italy and trace the evolution of communities of pious women as they tried to achieve their devotional goals despite the strictures of the ecclesiastical hierarchy The contributors examine relations between holy women their devout followers and society at large Including contributions from leading figures in a new generation of Italian historians of religion this book shows how women were able to carve out broad areas of influence by carefully exploiting the institutional church and by astutely manipulating religious percepts

Saints and Their Cults Stephen Wilson, 1985 This is a paperback edition of a collection of ten papers by different authors on the cult of saints first published in hard covers in 1983 Six have been translated from French including a pioneering study by Robert Hertz one of Durkheim s most eminent pupils The editor provides a wide ranging general and historical introduction and a 100 page annotated bibliography covering material on the subject in all disciplines and in four main languages

St. Anne in Renaissance Music Michael Alan Anderson, 2014-05-12 Devotion to St Anne the apocryphal mother of the Virgin Mary reached its height in the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries Until now Anne s reception history and political symbolism during this period have been primarily discussed through the lens of art history This is the first study to explore the music that honoured the saint and its connections to some of the most prominent court cultures of western Europe Michael Alan Anderson examines plainchant and polyphonic music for St Anne in sources both familiar and previously unstudied to illuminate not only Anne s wide ranging intercessional capabilities but also the political force of the music devoted to her Whether viewed as a fertility aide wise mother or dynastic protector she modelled a number of valuable roles that rulers reflected in the music of their devotional programmes to project their noble lineage and prestige
