Mark J. Allman, Tobias Winright

When The Powers Fall Reconciliation In The Healing Of Nations:

When the Powers Fall Walter Wink, 1996-12-01 Repressive authoritarian regimes are falling and fragile new democracies emerging around the globe How are longstanding conflicts and deep divisions to be healed and enemies reconciled without breeding further injustices To answer this question Walter Wink here applies his compelling analysis of the Powers as they appear in the New Testament to the global scene Surveying the wrenching religious and ethical dilemmas involved in transitions from despotism to democracy Wink neatly summarizes key concepts from his Fortress Press trilogy on the Powers including sections on Jesus against Domination and Nonviolence He then shows how central concepts in the teaching of Jesus can clarify true and false ideas of forgiveness and reconciliation and apology without sacrificing justice The personal political and geopolitical pertinence of Wink's ideas shines in his discussion of specific situations in Africa and Latin America

Unmasking the Angel Stephen Langford, 2025-05-01 This book explores the concept of an angel of the church It begins with the question that so intrigued Walter Wink Why would Jesus ask John to write to an angel in Revelation 2:3 This work develops critiques and expands Wink's answer It does so by taking the historical records of three churches in England's West Country and bringing them into conversation with Wink's understanding of the angel of the church It then goes further by introducing Wink's work to specialists in fields that include architecture demographics and church polity This scholarly conversation creates a matrix within which ministers with pastoral charge might be equipped to explore the spiritual identity or angel of their own congregations
