Writing Black Britain 1948-1998 An Interdisciplinary Anthology:

Writing Black Britain 1948-1998 James Proctor, 2000-09-02 The first anthology of its kind this timely collection brings together a diverse range of black British literatures essays and documents from across the post war period within a single volume Spanning half a century this rich archive of representations includes South Asian African and Caribbean cultural production by both leading and lesser known artists critics and commentators

Writing Black Britain 1948-1998 James Proctor, 2000-09-02 Brings together a diverse range of black British literatures essays and documents from across the post war period includes South Asian African and Caribbean cultural production by both leading and lesser known artists critics and commentators accommodates popular and high cultural materials from across the disciplines of literature film photography history sociology politics Marxism feminism cultural and communications studies Publisher Black British Literature Mark Stein, 2004 In this fascinating book Mark Stein examines black British literature centering on a body of work created by British based writers with African South Asian or Caribbean cultural backgrounds Linking black British literature to the bildungsroman genre this study examines the transformative potential inscribed in and induced by a heterogeneous body of texts Capitalizing on their plural cultural attachments these texts portray and purvey the transformation of post imperial Britain Stein locates his wide ranging analysis in both a historical and a literary context He argues that a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach is essential to understanding post colonial culture and society The book relates black British literature to ongoing debates about cultural diversity and thereby offers a way of reading a highly popular but as yet relatively uncharted field of cultural production With the collapse of its empire with large scale immigration from former colonies and with ever increasing cultural diversity Britain underwent a fundamental makeover in the second half of the twentieth century This volume cogently argues that black British literature is not only a commentator on and a reflector of this makeover but that it is simultaneously an agent that is integral to the processes of cultural and social change Conceptualizing the novel of transformation this comprehensive study of British black literature provides a compelling analytic framework for charting these processes

The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction: 1980-2018 Peter Boxall, 2019-06-27 Gives a comprehensive critical picture of the development of British fiction from the election of Thatcher to the present

The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature Lokangaka Losambe, Tanure Ojaide, 2024-05-16 The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature introduces world literature readers to the transnational multivocal writings of immigrant African authors Covering works produced in Europe North America and elsewhere in the world this book investigates three major aesthetic paradigms in African diasporic literature the Sankofan wave late 1960s early 1990s the Janusian wave 1990s 2020s and the Offshoots of the New Arrivants those born and growing up outside Africa Written by well established and emerging scholars of African and diasporic literatures from across the world the chapters in the book cover the works of well known and not so well known Anglophone Francophone and

Lusophone writers from different theoretical positionalities and critical approaches pointing out the unique innovative artistic qualities of this major subgenre of African literature The focus on the diasporic consciousness of the writers and their works sets this handbook apart from others that solely emphasize migration which is more of a process than the community of settled African people involved in the dynamic acts of living reflected in diasporic writings This book will appeal to researchers and students from across the fields of Literature Diaspora Studies African Studies Migration Studies and Postcolonial Studies

Imperial Intimacies Hazel V. Carby, 2021-10-12 Winner of the British Academy's Nayef Al Rodhan Prize for Global Cultural Understanding 2020 Highly commended for PEN Hessel Tiltman Prize 2020 A haunting and evocative history of British empire told through one woman's family story Where are you from was the question hounding Hazel Carby as a girl in post war London One of the so called brown babies of the Windrush generation born to a Jamaican father and Welsh mother Carby's place in her home her neighbourhood and her country of birth was always in doubt Emerging from this setting Carby untangles the threads connecting members of her family in a web woven by the British Empire across the Atlantic We meet Carby's working class grandmother Beatrice a seamstress challenged by poverty and disease In England she was thrilled by the cosmopolitan fantasies of empire by cities built with slave trade profits and by street peddlers selling fashionable Jamaican delicacies In Jamaica we follow the lives of both the white Carbys and the black Carbys including Mary Ivey a free woman of colour whose children are fathered by Lilly Carby a British soldier who arrived in Jamaica in 1789 to be absorbed into the plantation aristocracy And we discover the hidden stories of Bridget and Nancy two women owned by Lilly who survived the Middle Passage from Africa to the Caribbean Moving between Jamaican plantations the hills of Devon the port cities of Bristol Cardiff and Kingston and the working class estates of South London Carby's family story is at once an intimate personal history and a sweeping summation of the violent entanglement of two islands In charting British empire's interweaving of capital and bodies public language and private feeling Carby will find herself reckoning with what she can tell what she can remember and what she can bear to know

A Black British Canon? G. Low, M. Wynne-Davies, 2006-10-31 This much needed collection examines the formation of a black British canon including writers dramatists film makers and artists Contributors including John McLeod Michael McMillan Mike Phillips and Alison Donnell discuss the textual political and cultural history of black British and the term black British itself

Black British Lives Matter Lenny Henry, Marcus Ryder, 2021-11-16 Featuring essays from David Olusoga Dawn Butler MP Kit de Waal Kwame Kwei Armah and many more In response to the international outcry at George Floyd's death Lenny Henry and Marcus Ryder have commissioned this collection of essays to discuss how and why we need to fight for Black lives to matter not just for Black people but for society as a whole Recognising Black British experience within the Black Lives Matter movement nineteen prominent Black figures explain why Black lives should be celebrated when too often they are undervalued Drawing from personal experience they stress how Black British people have unique perspectives and experiences that enrich British society and the world how Black lives are far more interesting and important than the forces that try to limit it We achieve everything not because we are superhuman We achieve the things we achieve because we are human Our strength does not come from not having any weaknesses our strength comes from overcoming them Doreen Lawrence I always presumed racism would always be here that it was a given But the truth is it was not always here it was invented David Olusoga Our identity and experience will shape every story bleed into every poem inform every essay whether it s about Black issues or not Kit de Waal Black British Women's Theatre Nicola Abram,2020-10-12 This book marks a significant methodological shift in studies of black British women s theatre it looks beyond published plays to the wealth of material held in archives of various kinds from national repositories and themed collections to individuals personal papers It finds there a cache of unpublished manuscripts and production recordings distinctive for their non naturalistic aesthetics Close analysis of selected works identifies this as an intersectional feminist creative practice Chapters focus on five theatre companies and artists spanning several decades Theatre of Black Women 1982 1988 co founded by Booker Prize winning writer Bernardine Evaristo Munirah Theatre Company 1983 1991 Black Mime Theatre Women s Troop 1990 1992 Zindika and SuAndi The book concludes by reflecting on the politics of representation with reference to popular postmillennial playwright debbie tucker green Drawing on new interviews with the playwrights practitioners and their peers this book assembles a rich interconnected and occasionally corrective history of black British women s creativity By reproducing 22 facsimile images of flyers production programmes photographs and other ephemera Black British Women s Theatre Intersectionality Archives Aesthetics not only articulates a hidden history but allows its readers their own encounter with the fragile record of this vibrant past Afroeuropa@ns Marta Sofía López,2009-03-26 The essays in this groundbreaking collection constitute a pioneering attempt at establishing a comparative agenda for the study of black literatures and identities in the context of the European Union Drawing from a wide variety of critical perspectives and methodologies from Post colonial or Diaspora Studies to Sociology or Ethnography contributors to the volume analyze black diasporic communities and their cultural productions in Spain Portugal France Italy Germany and the United Kingdom paying particular attention to women afrosporic writers
