This book guides the reader through the writing process for a dissertation, thesis or essay. Practical strategies and tips for each stage of the process are offered throughout, from critical reading through to preparing the final piece of work for submission. The author pays particular attention to an understanding of the English language and how it is best used in academic work. Key features of the book are: Real examples from postgraduate work which show the strengths and weaknesses of different approaches; Glossaries of terms; Case studies of published research which demonstrate good practice in writing; Checklists of tasks to complete whilst working on a writing project. It will be essential reading for all those writing dissertations, essays and theses at post-registration and postgraduate level in health and nursing. Writing for Professional Development Giulia Ortoleva, Mireille Bétrancourt, Stephen Billett, 2015-10-20 In their edited volume Writing for Professional Development Giulia Ortoleva, Mireille Bétrancourt and Stephen Billett provide a range of contributions in which empirical research, instructional models and educational practice are used to explore and illuminate how the task and process of writing can be used as tools for professional development. Throughout the volume, two main perspectives are considered: learning to write professionally and writing to learn the profession, both for initial occupational preparation and ongoing development within them. The contributions consider a range of fields of professional practice across sectors of education, starting from the premises that the role of writing has evolved in all occupational domains, becoming a key activity in most workplaces.
