Writing Taiwan A Study Of Taiwans Nativist Literature:

Writing Taiwan David Der-wei Wang, Carlos Rojas, 2007-01-24 This collection is the first volume in English to examine the entire span of modern Taiwanese literature from the first decades of the twentieth century to the present The Routledge Companion to Yan Lianke Riccardo Moratto, Howard Yuen Fung Choy, 2022-03-10 Yan Lianke is one of the most important prolific and controversial writers in contemporary China At the forefront of the mythorealist Chinese avant garde and using absurdist humor and grotesque satire Yan s works have caught much critical attention not only in the Chinese mainland Hong Kong and Taiwan but also around the world His critiques of modern China under both Mao era socialism and contemporary capitalism draw on a deep knowledge of history folklore and spirituality This companion presents a collection of critical essays by leading scholars of Yan Lianke from around the world organized into some of the key themes of his work Mythorealism Absurdity and Spirituality and History and Gender as well as the challenges of translating his work into English and other languages With an essay written by Yan Lianke himself this is a vital and authoritative resource for students and scholars looking to understand Yan s works from both his own perspective and those of leading critics

Ecocriticism in Taiwan Chia-ju Chang, Scott Slovic, 2016-06-01 Ecocriticism is a mode of interdisciplinary critical inquiry into the relationship between cultural production society and the environment The field advocates for the more than human realm as well as for underprivileged human and non human groups and their perspectives Taiwan is one of the earliest centers for promoting ecocriticism outside the West and has continued to play a central role in shaping ecocriticism in East Asia This is the first English anthology dedicated to the vibrant development of ecocriticism in Taiwan It provides a window to Taiwan s important contributions to international ecocriticism especially an emerging vernacular trend in the field emphasizing the significance of local perspectives and styles including non western vocabularies aesthetics cosmologies and political ideologies Taiwan s unique history geographic location geology and subtropical climate generate locale specific vernacular thinking about island ecology and environmental history as well as global environmental issues such as climate change dioxin pollution species extinction energy decisions pollution and environmental injustice In hindsight Taiwan s industrial modernization no longer appears as a success narrative among Asia s Four Little Dragons but as a cautionary tale revealing the brute force entrepreneurial exploitation of the land and the people In this light this volume can be seen as a critical response to Taiwan s postcolonial capitalist industrial modernity as manifested in the scholars readings of Taiwan s mountain and river ocean animal and aboriginal non fictional narratives environmental documentaries and art installations This volume is endowed with a mixture of ecocosmopolitan and indigenous sensitivities Though dominated by the Han Chinese ethnic group and its Confucian ideology Taiwan is a place of complicated ethnic identities and affiliations The succession of changing colonial and political regimes made even more complex by the island s sixteen aboriginal groups and several diasporic subcultures South Asian immigrants Western expatriates and diverse immigrants from the Chinese mainland has led to an ongoing quest for political and cultural identity This complexity urges Taiwan based ecoscholars to pay attention to the diasporic comparative and intercultural dimensions of local specificity either based on their own diasporic experience or the cosmopolitan features of the Taiwanese texts they scrutinize This cosmopolitan vernacular dynamic is a key contribution Taiwan has to offer current ecocritical scholarship

Politics and Cultural Nativism in 1970s Taiwan A-chin Hsiau, 2021-11-09 In the aftermath of 1949 Taiwan's elites saw themselves as embodying China in exile both politically and culturally The island officially known as the Republic of China was a temporary home to await the reconquest of the mainland Taiwan not the People's Republic represented China internationally until the early 1970s Yet in recent decades Taiwan has increasingly come to see itself as a modern nation state A-chin Hsiau traces the origins of Taiwanese national identity to the 1970s when a surge of domestic dissent and youth activism transformed society politics and culture in ways that continue to be felt After major diplomatic setbacks at the beginning of the 1970s posed a serious challenge to Kuomintang authoritarian rule a younger generation without firsthand experience of life on the mainland began openly challenging the status quo Hsiau examines how student activists writers and dissident researchers of Taiwanese anticolonial movements despite accepting Chinese nationalist narratives began to foreground Taiwan's political and social past and present Their activism creative work and historical explorations played pivotal roles in bringing to light and reshaping indigenous and national identities In so doing Hsiau contends they laid the basis for Taiwanese nationalism and the eventual democratization of Taiwan Offering bracing new perspectives on nationalism democratization and identity in Taiwan this book has significant implications spanning sociology history political science and East Asian studies

Perverse Taiwan Howard Chiang, Yin Wang, 2016-12-19 This book enriches and reorients our understanding of postcolonial queer East Asia Challenging a heteronormative understanding of Taiwan's past and present it provides fresh critical analyses of a range of topics from queer criminality and literature in the 1950s and 1960s to the growing popularity of cross dressing performance and tongzhi gay and lesbian cinema on the cusp of a new millennium Together the contributions provide a detailed account of the rise and transformations of queer cultures in post World War II Taiwan

Taiwanese Literature as World Literature Pei-yin Lin, Wen-chi Li, 2022-12-15 Owing to Taiwan's multi ethnic nature and palimpsestic colonial past Taiwanese literature is naturally multilingual Although it can be analyzed through frameworks of Japanophone literature and Chinese literature and the more provocative Sinophone literature only through viewing Taiwanese literature as world literature can we redress the limits of national identity and fully examine writers transculturation practice globally minded vision and the politics of its circulation Throughout the colonial era Taiwanese writers gained inspiration from global literary trends mainly but not exclusively through the medium of Japanese and Chinese Modernism was the mainstream literary style in 1960s Taiwan and since the 1980s Taiwanese literature has demonstrated a unique trajectory shaped jointly by postmodernism and postcolonialism These movements exhibit Taiwanese writers creative adaptations of world literary thought as a response to their local and trans national reality During the postwar years Taiwanese literature began to be more systematically introduced to world readers through translation Over the past few decades Taiwanese authors and their translated works have participated in global conversations such as those on climate change the post truth era and ethnic and gender equality Bringing together scholars and translators from Europe North America and East Asia the volume focuses on three interrelated themes the framing and worlding ploys of Taiwanese literature Taiwanese writers experience of transculturation and politics behind translating Taiwanese literature The volume stimulates new ways of conceptualizing Taiwanese literature demonstrates remarkable cases of Taiwanese authors co option of world trends in their Taiwan concerned writing and explores its readership and dissemination The Columbia
