Evan S Connell 1924 2013 emerged from the American Midwest determined to become a writer He eventually made his mark with attention getting fiction and deep explorations into history His linked novels Mrs Bridge 1959 and Mr Bridge 1969 paint a devastating portrait of the lives of a prosperous suburban family not unlike his own that more than a half century later continue to haunt readers with their minimalist elegance and muted satire As an essayist and historian Connell produced a wide range of work including a sumptuous body of travel writing a bestselling epic account of Custer at the Little Bighorn and a singular series of meditations on history and the human tragedy This first portrait and appraisal of an under recognized American writer is based on personal accounts by friends relatives writers and others who knew him extensive correspondence in library archives and insightful literary and cultural analysis of Connell s work and its context It also illuminates aspects of American publishing Hollywood male anxieties and the power of place Written Bec Evans, Chris Smith, 2023-01-05 With a Foreword by OLIVER BURKEMAN bestselling author of the Sunday Times bestseller Four Thousand Weeks Written is a transformative guide that anyone can use to overcome their blocks and build a successful writing habit Many people think that there s only one right way to get the writing done or that trying harder is the key Award winning writers productivity coaches and co founders of Prolifiko Bec Evans and Chris Smith know this isn't true. Having coached over 10,000 writers, they've learned that productivity is personal. Their unique results-driven approach is designed to help you find a realistic and sustainable practice that will get you to the end of any writing project no matter how stuck you feel. Applying research from neuroscience and psychology and based on the authors' own practice and findings, Written will show you how to manage your time effectively, how to visualise and set successful goals, how to recover from setbacks, and ultimately how to create writing habits that work for you. Along the way, you'll hear inspiring and relatable stories from other writers who have overcome their struggles to find success. Each chapter ends with practical coaching exercises that you can start implementing right now. For anyone with a project they need to get written, whether a business book, thesis, or work of fiction, this inspiring book offers practical strategies to beat the inner critic, find time, keep motivated, and write.
