Writing To Make A Difference:

Writing to Make a Difference Chris Benson, Scott Christian, 2002 The student projects presented in this book demonstrate a powerful approach to teaching writing one that requires no special equipment or resources and can be adapted for students of any age The key is getting students involved in action research and in writing about issues that are important to them and their communities Written by public school teachers these chapters describe projects covering a variety of issues including avoiding teenage health risks preserving oral histories fighting racism investigating environmental hazards decreasing instances of teen pregnancy and much more Based on a process model of writing instruction these projects will show teachers how to engage their students while also teaching the basic skills that appear in educational standards and assessment frameworks

Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching Hodges, Tracey S., 2022-05-27 Writing is a critical component for teaching children about advocacy and empowering student voice as well as an essential tool for learning in many disciplines Yet writing instruction in schools often focuses on traditional methods such as the composition of five paragraph essays or the adherence to proper grammatical conventions While these are two components of writing instruction and preparation in education they only provide a small glimpse into the depth and breadth of writing As such writing instruction is increasingly complex and requires multiple perspectives and levels of skill among teachers The Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching serves as a comprehensive reference of issues related to writing instruction and leading research about perspectives methods and approaches for equitable and effective writing instruction It includes practices beyond K 12 including best writing practices at the college level as well as the development of future teachers Providing unique coverage on culturally relevant writing socio and racio linguistic justice and urgent writing pedagogies this major reference work is an indispensable resource for administrators and educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators libraries government officials researchers and academicians

Writing to Make an Impact Sandra Murphy, Mary Ann Smith, 2020 Through ideas and practices straight from the classrooms of outstanding teachers this lively resource illustrates writing that makes an impact on a reader a writer or a cause writing that everyone wants to read The book is rich with student work that shows how writing can make things happen in the world The authors provide ready to use lessons that include a full range of writing including poetry narrative petitions proposals emails self reflections long term projects and critical analyses Young people yearn to have an impact on the world but often lack the tools to make change This book demonstrates how shifting the focus and purposes for writing can turn students frustration with the status quo into action There s no time to waste The need for change both in school and in society is urgent Carol Jago past president National Council of Teachers of English and associate director California Reading and Literature Project at UCLA In true National Writing Project style Sandy Murphy and Mary Ann Smith take us inside the classrooms of remarkable teachers to see how
