Writings Or Interviews:

Writings/Interviews Richard Serra, 1994-08-15 One of the most important sculptors of this century Richard Serra has been a spokesman on the nature and status of art in our day Best known for site specific works in steel Serra has much to say about the relation of sculpture to place whether urban natural or architectural and about the nature of art itself whether political decorative or personal In interviews with writers including Douglas and Davis Sylvester he discusses specific installations and offers insights into his approach to the problem each presents Interviews by Peter Eisenman and Alan Colquhoun elicit Serra s thoughts on the relation of architecture to contemporary sculpture a primary component in his own work From essays like Extended Notes from Sight Point Road to Serra s extended commentary on the Tilted Arc fiasco the pieces in this volume comprise a document of one artist s engagement with the practical philosophical and political problems of art

On the Camera Arts and Consecutive Matters Hollis Frampton, 2015-01-30 The collected writings of artist and filmmaker Hollis Frampton including all the essays from the long unavailable Circles of Confusion along with rare additional material As Hollis Frampton s photographs and celebrated experimental films were testing the boundaries of the camera arts in the 1960s and 1970s his provocative and highly literate writings were attempting to establish an intellectually resonant form of discourse for these critically underexplored fields It was a time when artists working in diverse disciplines were beginning to pick up cameras and produce films and videotapes well before these practices were understood or embraced by institutions of contemporary art This collection of Frampton s writings presents his critical essays many written for Artforum and October along with additional material including lectures correspondence interviews and production notes and scripts It replaces and supersedes the long unavailable Circles of Confusion published in 1983 Frampton ranged widely over the visual arts in his writing and the texts in this collection display his unique approaches to photography film and video as well as the plastic and literary arts They include critically acclaimed essays on Edward Weston and Eadweard Muybridge as well as appraisals of contemporary photographers the influential essay For a Metahistory of Film along with scripts textual material and scores for his films writings on video that constitute a prehistory of the digital arts a dialogue with Carl Andre his friend and former Phillips Andover classmate from the early 1960s and two inventive almost unclassifiable pieces that are reminiscent of Borges Joyce and Beckett

Language to Cover a Page Vito Acconci, 2006 Poems and other texts from the 1960s by a pioneering conceptual artist that show a continuity with his subsequent work in performance and video art Pioneering conceptual artist Vito Acconci began his career as a poet In the 1960s before beginning his work in performance and video art Acconci studied at the Iowa Writers Workshop and published poems in journals and chapbooks Almost all of this work remains unknown much of it appeared in the self produced magazines of the Lower East Side s mimeo revolution and many other pieces were never published Language to Cover a Page collects these writings for the first time and not only shows Acconci to be an important experimental writer of the period but demonstrates the continuity of his early writing with his later work in film video and performance Language to Cover a Page documents a key moment in the unprecedented intersection of artists and poets in the late 1960s as seen in the Dwan Gallery's series of Language shows 1967 1970 and in Acconci's own journal 0 to 9 Indeed as Acconci moved from the poetry scene to the art world his poetry became increasingly performative while his artwork was often structured and motivated by linguistic play Acconci's early writing recalls the work of Samuel Beckett the deadpan voice of the nouveau roman and the jump cuts and fraught permutations of the nouvelle vague Poems in Language to Cover a Page explore the materiality of language language as matter and not ideas as Robert Smithson put it the physical space of the page and the physicality of source texts phonebooks thesauruses dictionaries Other poems take the space of the page as an analogue to performance space or implicate the poem in a network of activity as in his Dial a Poem pieces Readers will find Acconci's inventive and accomplished poetry as edgy and provocative as anything published today
