Wuthering Heights On Film And Television A Journey Across Time And Cultures:

Wuthering Heights on Film and Television Valérie V. Hazette, 2015 This historical and transnational study of the film and television translations of Wuthering Heights on Film and Television presents the after life of Emily Brontë's novel as a series of cultural journeys actualizing the readers film makers and spectators viewers as much as the films and television dramas themselves In the course of this study which offers a dynamic mapping of the unconscious of the source text students in English studies media cultures and adaptation studies are encouraged to see adaptation as a mode of transmission and foreignization relying creatively in this case on the re workings in various contexts of the Gothic architecture of Mise en Abyme and on the degree of involvement or foreignisation of the viewers Exploring extraordinary film and television specimens including a lost British silent film scripted by Stannard an exciting film project by the British New Wave the Bunuel and Wyler classics the BBC teleplays and serials the unforgettable Japanese and French versions and the latest adaptation by Andrea Arnold 2011 Wuthering Heights on Film and Television is the first comprehensive transnational analysis to focus wholly on the adaptation of this much loved book

Representations of Masculinity in Literature and Film Sara Martín, 2020-09-11 How are men represented on the printed page the stage and the screen What do these representations say about masculinity in the past the present and the future The twelve essays in this volume explore the different ways in which men and masculinity have been represented from the plays of William Shakespeare to the science fiction of Richard K Morgan passing through classic fiction by Emily Brontë and Charles Dickens and popular favourites by Terry Pratchett and Isaac Asimov without forgetting the Star Wars saga Collectively these essays argue that although much has been written about men it has been done from a perspective that does not see masculinity as a specific feature in need of critical appraisal Men need to be made aware of how they are represented in order to alter the toxic patriarchal models handed down to them and even break the extant binary gender models For that it is important that men distinguish patriarchy from masculinity as is done here and form anti patriarchal alliances with each other and with women This book is then an invitation to men's liberation from patriarchy by raising an awareness of its crippling constraints

Researcher Guide for: Literary and Social Context in Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights Sandie Byrne, Nellene Benhardus, Gale Researcher Guide for Literary and Social Context in Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights is selected from Gale's academic platform Gale Researcher These study guides provide peer reviewed articles that allow students early success in finding scholarly materials and to gain the confidence and vocabulary needed to pursue deeper research

Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers, 1903-1929 Jamie Barlowe, 2024-08-08 Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers 1903-1929 focuses on fifty three silent film adaptations of the novels of acclaimed authors George Eliot Charlotte Brontë Emily Brontë Mary Shelley Louisa May Alcott Harriet Beecher Stowe Willa Cather and Edith Wharton Many of the films are unknown or dismissed and most of them are degraded destroyed or lost

burned in warehouse fires spontaneously combusted in storage cans or quietly turned to dust Their content and production and distribution details are reconstructed through archival resources as individual narratives that when considered collectively constitute a broader narrative of lost knowledge a fragmented and buried early twentieth century story now reclaimed and retold for the first time to a twenty first century audience This collective narrative also demonstrates the extent to which the adaptations are intertextually and ideologically entangled with concurrently released early woman s films to re promote and re instill the norm of idealized white married domesticated womanhood during a time of extraordinary cultural change for women Retelling this lost narrative also allows for a reassessment of the place and function of the adaptations in the development of the silent film industry and as cinematic precedent for the hundreds of sound adaptations of the literary texts of these eight women writers produced from 1931 to the 2020s

Decolonising English Studies from the Semi-Periphery Ana Cristina Mendes, 2023-01-01 This book investigates how decolonising the curriculum might work in English studies one of the fields that bears the most robust traces of its imperial and colonial roots from the perspective of the semi periphery of the academic world system It takes the University of Lisbon as a point of departure to explore broader questions of how the field can be rethought from within through Anglophone post coloniality and an institutional location in a department of English while also considering forces from without as the arguments in this book issue from a specific liminal positionality outside the Anglosphere The first half of the book examines the critical practice of and the political push for decolonising the university and the curriculum advancing existing scholarship with this focus on semi peripheral perspectives The second half comprises two theoretically informed and classroom oriented case studies of adaptation of the literary canon a part of model syllabi that are designed to raise awareness of and encourage an understanding of a global pluriversal literary history

Adapted from the Original Laurence Raw, 2018-09-14 Critics and audiences often judge films books and other media as great but what does that really mean This collection of new essays examines the various criteria by which degrees of greatness or not so are constructed whether by personal political or social standards through topics in cinema literature and adaptation The contributors recognize how issues of value vary across different cultures and explore what those differences say about attitudes and beliefs

Kate Bush and the Moving Image Stephen Glynn, 2024-07-05 In this unique study Stephen Glynn demonstrates that Kate Bush s work in both sound and vision has long been influenced and characterised by and at times aimed at film and television media The volume explores in depth Bush s music of allusion and analyses first the significance of film and television references throughout the lyrics and settings of her songs beginning with her breakthrough hit Wuthering Heights It also surveys the shaping presence of film and television in the look narrative and artistry of her music videos including the examination of celebrated works such as Cloudbusting and Hounds of Love Finally the book assesses Bush s most intensive cinematic undertaking her 1993 album The Red Shoes with its evident homage to the 1948 film of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger and its concurrent visual reworking as Bush s sole film venture The

Line The Cross The Curve Thus with its deployment across music video and film Glynn demonstrates the centrality of Kate Bush's cinephilia to her work Accessible yet academically rigorous Kate Bush and the Moving Image is a stand out study of the iconic singer songwriter's discography and cinematic ventures It will appeal to both students and scholars of Film Television Media Cultural and Popular Music Studies
