Wychwood Peter Cooper:

Wychwood George Mann, 2017-09-12 After losing her job and her partner in one fell swoop journalist Elspeth Reeves is back in her mother's house in the sleepy village of Wilsby under Wychwood wondering where it all went wrong Then a body is found in the neighbouring Wychwoods a woman ritually slaughtered with cryptic symbols scattered around her corpse Elspeth recognizes these from a local myth of the Carrion King a Saxon magician who once held a malevolent court deep in the forest As more murders follow Elspeth joins her childhood friend DS Peter Shaw to investigate and the two discover sinister village secrets harking back decades The Dentists Register, 2006 The Register, and magazine of biography [ed. by T. Alumnae Association, 1964 Folklore and Nation in Britain and Ireland Matthew Cheeseman, Carina Hart, 2021-08-30 This collection explores folklore and folkloristics within the diverse and contested national discourses of Britain and Ireland examining their role in shaping the islands constituent nations from the eighteenth century to our contemporary moment of uncertainty and change This book is concerned with understanding folklore particularly through its intersections with the narratives of nation entwined within art literature disciplinary practice and lived experience By following these ideas throughout history into the twenty first century the authors show how notions of the folk have inspired and informed varied points from the Brothers Grimm to Brexit They also examine how folklore has been adapting to the real and imagined changes of recent political events acquiring newfound global and local rhetorical power This collection asks why when and how folklore has been deployed enacted and considered in the context of national ideologies and ideas of nationhood in Britain and Ireland Editors Cheeseman and Hart have crafted a thoughtful and timely collection ideal for students and scholars of folklore history literature anthropology sociology and media studies Metafiction and Myth in the Novels of Peter Ackroyd Susana Onega Jaén, 1999 Providing detailed analysis of the recurrent structural and thematic traits in Peter Ackroyd's first nine novels this work sets out to show how they grow out of the tension created by two apparently contradictory tendencies These are on the one hand the metafictional tendency to blur the boundaries between story telling and history to enhance the linguistic component of writing and to underline the constructedness of the world created in a way that aligns Ackroyd with other postmodernist writers of historiographic metafiction and on the other the attempt to achieve mythical closure expressed for example in Ackroyd's fictional treatment of London as a mystic centre of power This mythical element evinces the influence of high modernists such as Ezra Pound and T S Eliot and links Ackroyd's work to transition to postmodern writers such as Lawrence Durrell Maureen Duffy Doris Lessing and John Fowles Index to the Probate Records of the Courts of the Bishop and Archdeacon of Oxford, 1733-1857 and of the Oxfordshire Peculiars, 1547-1856 Dorothy Mary Barratt, Joan Howard-Drake, Mark Priddey, 1997 *Proceedings in the Court of Requests.
