Viking Daniel Hardman,2013-06-09 Rafa thinks he s safe in witness protection until a former FBI partner is murdered and he s arrested for the crime Has he been set up He can t divulge enough truth to get off it would endanger his new family Sentenced to life in prison and heartbroken by his wife s rejection he trades cell time for a one way ticket off planet and becomes a disposable employee for a company prospecting the galactic frontier Explorers get implants that transmit their neural impulses back to scientists on Earth providing a vicarious reality of sight and sound They are nicknamed vikings and on most assignments they die quickly But Rafa s mission turns out to be far from ordinary His employer is up to something and so are his old connections in crime and law enforcement Can Rafa survive alien wilds and his harsh crewmates What secret is driving the manipulations of his human puppeteers eService-Learning Jean R. Strait,Katherine Nordyke,2023-07-03 This book serves as an introduction to using online teaching technologies and hybrid forms of teaching for experiential learning and civic engagement Service learning has kept pace neither with the rapid growth in e learning in all its forms nor with the reality that an increasing number of students are learning online without exposure to the benefits of this powerful pedagogy Eservice learning electronic service learning combines service learning and on line learning and enables the delivery of the instruction and or the service to occur partially or fully online Eservice learning allows students anywhere regardless of geography physical constraints work schedule or other access limitations to experience service learning It reciprocally also equips online learning with a powerful tool for engaging students In eservice learning the core components of service learning and reflection may take a different form due to the online medium for example reflection often occurs through discussion board interactions journals wikis or blogs in an eservice learning course Moreover the service though still community based creates a world of opportunities to connect students with communities across the globe as well as at their very own doorstep This book introduces the reader to the four emerging types of eservice learning from Extreme EService Learning XE SL classes where 100% of the instruction and 100% of the service occur online to three distinct forms of hybrid where either the service or the instruction are delivered wholly on line with students for instance providing online products for far away community partners or in which both are delivered on site and online It considers the instructional potential of common mobile technologies phones tablets and mobile reading devices The authors also address potential limitations such as technology challenges difficulties sustaining three way communication among the instructor community partner and students and added workload The book includes research studies on effectiveness as well as examples of practice such drafting grants for a community partner an informational technology class building online communities for an autism group and an online education class providing virtual mentoring to at risk students in New Orleans from across the country Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,2003-07 Gridpoints

,2001 Data Bases and Data Base Systems Related to NASA's Aerospace Program ,1983 The Moving Image Peter B. Kaufman,2025-02-25 The definitive guidebook for using video in modern communication Video television film the moving image generally is today s most popular information medium Two thirds of the world s internet traffic is video Americans get their news and information more often from screens and speakers than through any other means The Moving Image is the first authoritative account of how we have arrived here together with the first definitive manual to help writers educators and publishers use video more effectively Drawing on decades as an educator publisher and producer MIT s Peter Kaufman presents new tools best practices and community resources for integrating film and sound into media that matters Kaufman describes video s vital role in politics law education and entertainment today only 130 years since the birth of film He explains how best to produce video distribute it clear rights to it cite it and ultimately archive and preserve it With detailed guidance on producing and deploying video and sound for publication finding and using archival video and sound securing rights and permissions developing distribution strategies and addressing questions about citation preservation and storage across the broadest spectrum of platforms publications disciplines and formats The Moving Image equips readers for the medium s continued ascendance in education publishing and knowledge dissemination in the decades to come And modeled in part on Strunk and White s classic The Elements of Style it s also a highly enjoyable read Software Aids and Tools Survey ,1986 Life on the Screen Sherry Turkle,2011-04-26 Life on the Screen is a book not about computers but about people and how computers are causing us to reevaluate our identities in the age of the Internet We are using life on the screen to engage in new ways of thinking about evolution relationships politics sex and the self Life on the Screen traces a set of boundary negotiations telling the story of the changing impact of the computer on our psychological lives and our evolving ideas about minds bodies and machines What is emerging Turkle says is a new sense of identity as decentered and multiple She describes trends in computer design in artificial intelligence and in people s experiences of virtual environments that confirm a dramatic shift in our notions of self other machine and world The computer emerges as an object that brings postmodernism down to earth
