Robert C Lightburn

Vindicator Obituaries Youngstown Ohio:

Steelworker Alley Robert Bruno, 1999 For retired steelworkers in Youngstown Ohio the label working class fits comfortably Questioning the widely held view that laborers in postwar America have adopted middle class values Robert Bruno shows that in this community a blue collar identity has provided a positive focus for many residents The son of a Youngstown steelworker Bruno returned to his hometown seeking to understand the formation of his own working class consciousness and the place of labor in the larger capitalist society Drawing on interviews with dozens of former steelworkers and on research in local archives Bruno explores the culture of the community including such subjects as relations among co workers class antagonism and attitudes toward authority He describes how because workers are often neighbors the workplace takes on a feeling of neighborhood He also demonstrates that to understand class consciousness one must look beyond the workplace in this instance from Youngstown s front porches to its bowling alleys and voting booths Written with a deeply personal approach Steelworker Alley is a richly detailed look at workers which reveals the continuing strength of class relationships in America

The Mob in Youngstown Thomas Hunt, James Barber, Justin Cascio, Margaret Janco, Thom L. Jones, Michael A. Tona, Edmond Valin, 2022-11-01 Murdertown Bombtown Crimetown Through decades the City of Youngstown Ohio has been branded with such painful nicknames due in large part to the rackets violence and corruption of organized crime in the region The streets of Youngstown and other communities in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys of northeastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania have been bloodied through numerous shootings and stabbings and during an especially disturbing period a series of gruesome car bombings In too many cases public officials and officers of the law were complicit in the criminal activity profiting through bribery and graft Some authorities who resisted corruption and attempted to perform their public duties found themselves the targets of underworld violence In this November 2022 issue of Informer The History of American Crime and Law Enforcement we tackle the history of organized crime in Youngstown region from the earliest reports of the 1890s through the apparent dissolution of the Mob presence more than a century later It is a complex subject as elements of at least four regional Mafia organizations and a persistent non Mafia Calabrian organization in addition to other criminal elements all collided cooperated combined and clashed with each other at different times This resulted in a wealth of interesting but often uncoordinated stories and personalities Our strategy for dealing with the subject is to present a number of individual standalone articles on the more interesting of these stories bringing to light the significant personalities groups areas and eras The effort might be compared to the photographic stitching of a collection of images into a panorama Readers will discover the secret criminal organizations behind names like Society of Honor Sacred Circle and Society of the Banana and will encounter such characters as Fats Aiello Ernie Biondillo Frank Cammarata Cadillac Charlie Cavallaro Joe Cutrone Tony Dope Delsanter Vince DeNiro Wolf DiCarlo Big Jim Falcone Mike Farah Red Giordano Big Dom Mallamo Dominick Moio Two Gun Jimmy Prato Rocco Racco Rocco Strange Lenny Strollo

Zebo Zottola along with the Barber brothers the Carabbia brothers the Naples brothers the Romeo brothers and many more While it is our hope that a coherent image of the history of Youngstown area organized crime and its connections to criminal entities outside the region will emerge we are concerned by the fact that some of our individual historical snapshots do not overlap with or even touch each other while others may overlap quite a bit We hope that the obvious voids and repetitions will not be a great distraction and that with some patience our readers will be able to get the picture Contributors to this Informer issue James Barber Justin Cascio Margaret Janco Thom L Jones Michael A Tona Edmond Valin and Thomas Hunt

Sean T. Posey,2022 Join the author of Historic Theaters of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley and Lost Youngstown in an excavation of forgotten stories from bygone days Beyond steel and rust Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley share a rich but often overlooked past During the late 1910s the ever present smoke blanketing the area could not hide the fires from the burning business district of East Youngstown or the city streets deserted from Spanish influenza Over twenty years later the Mahoning Valley lived under another dark cloud the Great Depression but instead of violence and destruction the men and women of the WPA busied themselves with building up the region and dreaming of better days Journalist and historian Sean Posey excavates the history behind familiar landmarks forgotten institutions and historic sites that connect Mahoning Valley history to the story of the evolution of industrial America The Working Press of the Nation ,2002 The Ohio Newspaper ,1957 Benjamin Lightbourne/Lightburn of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and His Descendants Robert C Lightburn,2019-03-16 I first became interested in genealogy when I was about twelve It was then that my paternal grandmother first introduced me to a book entitled Genealogy of the Fell Family in America Descended from Joseph Fell This book which was published in 1891 included my grandfather Charles McConnell Lightburn I was struck by the time span covered by the book nearly three hundred years and was fascinated by the fact that all of the people in that book were related to one another and to me either by blood or marriage My grandmother later gave me that book and it became the first book in my genealogical library My grandfather and my great aunt Mary told me that their father had fought for the North during the Civil War by the side of his older brother who was a brigadier general This fascinated me They also told me that there was a town in West Virginia called Lightburn I couldn't wait to find it on a map My own genealogical research did not begin until the late 1970s when I requested the Civil War records of my great grandfather Calvin Luther Lightburn and his brothers from the National Archives During the 1980s I continued my research albeit at a very low level of activity It was not until the early 1990s when I moved to the Washington DC area that I became intensively involved in some might even say addicted to genealogy The resources in the Washington DC area are extensive and I ended up spending many happy and sometimes frustrating hours conducting research in the National Archives Library of Congress and the library of the Daughters of the American Revolution By 1999 I had amassed a great deal of genealogical information most of which was stuffed in cardboard boxes I was encouraged to put what I had on paper by Faye M Brown Lightburn who had published her book Revolutionary Soldier Samuel Brown and Some of his Family in 1993 So after attending several related sessions at the National Genealogical Society Conference in the States which was held that year in Providence Rhode Island I finally screwed up my courage and plunged in I published the original book in 2003 This book is the second and probably last edition
