Violence At The Urban Margins Global And Comparative Ethnography:

Violence at the Urban Margins Javier Auyero, Philippe I. Bourgois, Nancy Scheper-Hughes, 2015 The inhabitants of the urban margins are hardly ever heard in discussions about public safety Gender-Based Violence in the Global South Ramona Biholar, Dacia L. Leslie, 2024-02-26 This book amplifies the different voices and experiences of those facing gender based violence GBV in the Global South It explores the localised ways in which marginalised individuals design modes of coping with and address GBV including cultural interpretations and artistic and faith based expressions The book examines GBV triggers prevalence and societal impacts while referring to community national and regional mobilisation to deal with the phenomenon in its various manifestations including physical psychological political domestic and public violence It explores issues related to women s negotiations with the patriarchal underpinnings of GBV the role of the law and history in the perpetuation of GBV the complementary role of culture and faith to legal protection against GBV and access to justice for women and girls In doing so the book exposes understandings and expressions of GBV as well as methodologies and indigenous initiatives to prevent it through local viable solutions The book thus challenges the normalisation of GBV in the Global South Providing concrete and culturally relevant suggestions for challenging ingrained models of gender understandings of violence in the Global South this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Development Studies Gender Studies Women s Studies Violence and Abuse Studies Human Rights Criminal Law and Socio Legal Studies The ^Ambivalent State Javier Auyero, Katherine Sobering, 2019-10-15 In The Ambivalent State Javier Auyero and Katherine Sobering examine the fascinating world of clandestine relationships between police officers and drug dealers in Argentina Drawing on a unique combination of ethnographic research and hundreds of pages of wiretapped phone conversations they analyze the inner workings of police criminal collusion and how they shape drug markets policing in poor urban areas and daily life at the urban margins Beyond the Case Corey M. Abramson, Neil Gong, 2020 The social sciences have seen a substantial increase in comparative and multi sited ethnographic projects over the last three decades Yet at present researchers seeking to design comparative field projects have few scholarly works detailing how comparison is conducted in divergent ethnographic approaches In Beyond the Case Corey M Abramson and Neil Gong have gathered together several experts in field research to address these issues by showing how practitioners employing contemporary iterations of ethnographic traditions such as phenomenology grounded theory positivism and interpretivism use comparison in their works The contributors connect the long history of comparative and anti comparative ethnographic approaches to their contemporary uses By honing in on how ethnographers render sites groups or cases analytically commensurable and comparable Beyond the Case offers a new lens for examining the assumptions payoffs and potential drawbacks of different forms of comparative ethnography Activism Under Fire Anjuli Fahlberg, 2023 Rio de Janeiro s favelas have become well known sites of gang and police violence Since the 1970s dangerous networks between drug traffickers and corrupt state actors have transformed these poor neighborhoods into sites of armed conflict and political repression limiting residents ability to speak out against violence or demand their democratic rights Despite these challenges nonviolent politics remains an integral element in Cidade de Deus City of God one of Rio s most dangerous and famous favelas In Activism under Fire Anjuli Fahlberg provides an original account of how conflict activism operates in Cidade de Deus Drawing on fieldwork virtual ethnography and participatory action research Fahlberg documents how activists strategically navigate local constraints and opportunities including gendered governing dynamics and racialized practices of solidarity to create space for non violent governance amid armed repression By working within urban national and transnational political networks and social movements local activists bring resources into their neighborhood and protest violence while avoiding dangerous alliances Activism under Fire demonstrates that non violent collective action is possible amid extreme poverty and violence and shows what strategies enable it to survive and effect political change In so doing Fahlberg reveals the possibilities for collective action in violent and chaotic democratic states not only in Latin America but throughout the world

Policing the Revolution Rebecca Hanson, 2025 Since the mid 2000s Venezuela has been ranked one of the most violent countries in the world as homicides and police violence skyrocketed Much has been written about the country s turn to Chavismo but scholarship has ignored what will perhaps be the revolution s most important legacy how Chavista policies transformed coercive power and the security landscape In Policing the Revolution Rebecca Hanson provides the first in depth analysis of policing and security policies during the Bolivarian Revolution in Venezuela focusing on the experiences of three groups police officers police reformers and residents of neighborhoods most affected by violence Drawing on ethnographic interview and survey research collected over ten years she analyzes how security policies within the context of the pink tide and later turn to authoritarianism contributed to the expansion of lateral violence and the pluralization of non state violent actors Far from the always already authoritarian project proposed by many scholars and pundits Hanson shows that the Bolivarian Revolution was defined by highly contested and contrasting visions of security that resulted in a fragmented and inconsistent ordering of state and society Moreover by pairing the vantage point of street level police officers with that of ordinary barrio residents she provides a unique analysis of how insecurity during revolution was experienced from below Rethinking the relationship between revolution violence and state building this book is essential reading to understand how and why violence increased so dramatically in Venezuela in the twenty first century

Prisons and Crime in Latin America Marcelo Bergman, Gustavo Fondevila, 2021-03-11 This groundbreaking work examines Latin America s prison crisis and the failure of mass incarceration policies As crime rates rose over the past few decades policy makers adopted incarceration as the primary response to public outcry Yet as the number of inmates increased crime rates only continued to grow Presenting new cross national data based on extensive surveys of inmates throughout the region this book explains the transformation of prisons from instruments of incapacitation deterrence and rehabilitation to drivers of violence and criminality Bergman and

Fondevila highlight the impacts of internal drug markets and the dramatic increase in the number of imprisoned women Furthermore they show how prisons are not isolated from society they are sites of active criminal networks with many inmates maintaining fluid criminal connections with the outside world Rather than reducing crime prisons have become an integral part of the crime problem in Latin America

The Two Faces of Fear Ana Villarreal, 2024 In The Two Faces of Fear Ana Villarreal provides an in depth study of how people live in a high violence environment drawing on two years of qualitative fieldwork conducted during a violent turf war in her hometown of Monterrey Mexico More broadly Villarreal puts forth a new approach to the study of fear and provides tangible evidence of how quickly fear worsens class gender race and urban inequality beyond Mexico and the war on drugs

Burning Matters Peter C. Little, 2022 Global trade in electronic waste e waste has led to various waste management challenges and many regions of the Global South have suffered the toxic consequences In Burning Matters Peter C Little explores the complex cultural economic and environmental health politics of e waste work in Ghana He brings to light the lived experiences of Ghana s e waste workers as they navigate the health social and economic challenges of highly toxic e waste labor In particular Little engages the experiences of e waste workers who burn bundles of electrical cables to extract copper a practice that contaminates bodies and the urban environment and which has attracted international organizations seeking to mitigate risk and find quick tech solutions to this highly toxic e waste work A nuanced perspective on e waste burning and environmental politics in Africa at a time when global e waste generation and trade is at an all time high Burning Matters contends that e waste interventions devoid of ethnographic perspective and knowledge risk downplaying the vibrant complexities of e waste itself and the matters of social life and labor that matter most to Ghana s e waste workers

Privilege at Play Hugo Ceron-Anaya, 2019 While most research on inequality focuses on impoverished communities it often ignores how powerful communities and elites monopolize resources at the top of the social hierarchy In Privilege at Play Hugo Ceron Anaya offers an intersectional analysis of Mexican elites to examine the ways affluent groups perpetuate dynamics of domination and subordination Using ethnographic research conducted inside three exclusive golf clubs and in depth interviews with upper middle and upper class golfers as well as working class employees Ceron Anaya focuses on the class racial and gender dynamics that underpin privilege in contemporary Mexico His detailed analysis of social life and the organization of physical space further considers how the legacy of imperialism continues to determine practices of exclusion and how social hierarchies are subtly reproduced through distinctions such as fashion and humor in addition to the traditional indicators of wealth and class Adding another dimension to the complex nature of social exclusion Privilege at Play shows how elite social relations and spaces allow for the resource hoarding and monopolization that helps create and maintain poverty
