Visions Of Buddhist Life:

Visions of Buddhist Life Don Farber, 2005 Farber's photographs open a view of the beauty and diversity of Buddhist life around the world. His eye for composition, his attention to color and detail, and his intimate knowledge of Buddhism come together to produce a study in the human face in the art of spiritual devotion in the evocative power of landscape. The photographs, together with Farber's extensive captions, take us to the temples, monasteries, and colorful streets of Los Angeles, Kyoto, and Bangkok, and travel onward to China, India, Nepal, South Korea, and Taiwan. These images capture some of the last Tibetan masters to have received their training before the Chinese invasion. They also picture some of the great teachers of our day, the Dalai Lama, Thich Nhat Hanh, and Kalu Rinpoche. They depict Buddhists alone and in crowds, in cities rich and poor, in meditation and in conversation. From publisher description: Buddhist Visions of the Good Life for All Sallie B. King, 2021-05-30 This book highlights what Buddhism has to offer for living well here and now for individuals, society as a whole, all sentient beings, and the planet itself. From the perspectives of a variety of Buddhist thinkers, the book evaluates what a good life is like, what is desirable for human society, and ways in which we should live in and with the natural world. By examining this worldly Buddhist philosophy and movements in India, Sri Lanka, Bhutan, the Tibetan diaspora, Korea, Taiwan, Japan, and the United States, the book assesses what Buddhists offer for the building of a good society. It explores the proposals and programs made by progressive and widely influential lay and monastic thinkers and activists, as well as the works of movement leaders such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, for the social, economic, political, and environmental systems in their various countries. Demonstrating that Buddhism is not solely a path for the realization of nirvana but also a way of living well here and now, this book will be of interest to researchers working on contemporary and modern Buddhism, Buddhism and society, Asian religion, and Engaged Buddhism. Visions of the Buddha Eviatar Shulman, 2021-08-25 Visions of the Buddha offers a groundbreaking new approach to the nature of the early discourses of the Buddha, the most foundational scriptures of Buddhist religion. While the early discourses are commonly considered to be attempts to preserve the Buddha's teachings, Shulman demonstrates that these texts are full of creativity driven by inspired storytelling. Much of this storytelling is effected through techniques specific to oral literature in which oral formulas can be combined in an infinite variety of ways in order to produce yet more beautified visions of Buddhist truth. Buddhist Vision Subhuti, 2013-06-14 What is the Buddhist vision? Put simply, it is that all humans can develop. Each one of us can find a way beyond the dissatisfaction and suffering of everyday life and realize our full potential. In describing three important Buddhist symbols, Subhuti shows us how. Informed by more than 25 years of committed Buddhist practice, Subhuti's clarity and understanding will be welcomed by both newcomers to Buddhism and those with more experience. His inspiring call challenges us to follow the Buddhist path with all our heart. Visions of Sukhavati Julian F. Visions of Awakening Space and Time

Taigen Dan Leighton,2008-12-31 As a religion concerned with universal liberation Zen grew out of a Buddhist worldview very different from the currently prevalent scientific materialism Indeed says Taigen Dan Leighton Zen cannot be fully understood outside of a worldview that sees reality itself as a vital dynamic agent of awareness and healing In this book Leighton explicates that worldview through the writings of the Zen master Eihei D gen 1200 1253 considered the founder of the Japanese S t Zen tradition which currently enjoys increasing popularity in the West The Lotus Sutra arguably the most important Buddhist scripture in East Asia contains a famous story about bodhisattvas enlightening beings who emerge from under the earth to preserve and expound the Lotus teaching in the distant future The story reveals that the Buddha only appears to pass away but actually has been practicing and will continue to do so over an inconceivably long life span Leighton traces commentaries on the Lotus Sutra from a range of key East Asian Buddhist thinkers including Daosheng Zhiyi Zhanran Saigyo My e Nichiren Hakuin and Ry kan But his main focus is Eihei D gen the 13th century Japanese S t Zen founder who imported Zen from China and whose profuse provocative and poetic writings are important to the modern expansion of Buddhism to the West D gen s use of this sutra expresses the critical role of Mahayana vision and imagination as the context of Zen teaching and his interpretations of this story furthermore reveal his dynamic worldview of the earth space and time themselves as vital agents of spiritual awakening Leighton argues that D gen uses the images and metaphors in this story to express his own religious worldview in which earth space and time are lively agents in the bodhisattva project Broader awareness of D gen s worldview and its implications says Leighton can illuminate the possibilities for contemporary approaches to primary Mahayana concepts and practices Visions of Awakening Space and Time Taigen Dan Leighton,2007-05-11 Publisher description
