When Songbirds Returned Paris Sloan:

When Songbirds Returned to Paris Elizabeth Sloan, 2015-12-09 When Germany invades France in 1940 Cecily Lefort can't imagine how the aristocratic comforts of life as a French doctor's wife are about to disappear. A return to native England eventually leads Cecily back to France this time as a secret agent. Cecily is one of 13 female Special Operations Executive SOE spies who do not survive to tell their story. But a 100 year old family owned photograph of Cecily inspires author Elizabeth Sloan to travel to Paris and investigate the story of Cecily's life and death. The intuitive conversation between Elizabeth and Cecily based on war documents, letters and interviews spins an international web of intrigue that captures the raw emotions of love and war.
