Where Is The Mango Princess A Journey Back From Brain Injury:

Where Is the Mango Princess? Cathy Crimmins, 2001-10-09 Humorist Cathy Crimmins has written a deeply personal wrenching and often hilarious account of the effects of traumatic brain injury not only on the victim in this case her husband but on the family When her husband Alan is injured in a speedboat accident Cathy Crimmins reluctantly assumes the role of caregiver and learns to cope with the person he has become No longer the man who loved obscure Japanese cinema and wry humor Crimmins husband has emerged from the accident a childlike and unpredictable replica of his former self with a short attention span and a penchant for inane cartoons Where Is the Mango Princess is a breathtaking account that explores the very nature of personality and the complexities of the heart Outstanding Book Award Winner from the American Society of Journalists and Authors

The Fight of Our Life Catherine Hawley, 2014-11-10 It was a virtual death sentence The resident at the hospital had just said We are recommending Bill be sent to a nursing home He has some cognitive issues and is unlikely to benefit from rehabilitation Complications had set in ten days after successful brain surgery Fewer than four weeks later still unable to clearly define the cause the medical team had reached its decision They were giving up on him My husband was fifty six years old It was my unshakeable belief that their decision was both wrong and premature We had everything at stake Suddenly I was fighting for his life Our life How the hell did we get to this The Fight of Our Life is Catherine Hawley s dramatic no holds barred account of her battles with the health care system to attain rehabilitation and a higher quality of life for her husband at home allowing them more years of their special life together It is a soaring love story and a sobering patient beware story a dramatic engaging read with clear warnings of how readers should prepare for medical struggles ahead

Psychotherapy for Families after Brain Injury Pamela S. Klonoff, 2014-04-18 Whether caused by illness accident or incident brain injury requires multi tiered resources for the patient and considerable external care and support When recovery is sidelined by depression anger grief or turmoil family members and the support network have critical roles to play and need their own guidance and compassionate therapeutic interventions Psychotherapy for Families after Brain Injury offers theoretical frameworks and eclectic techniques for working effectively with adult patients and their families at the initial active and post treatment phases of rehabilitation This practical reference clarifies roles and relationships of the support network in interfacing with the loved one and addresses the understandably devastating and sometimes derailing emotions and psychosocial adversities The content promotes psychoeducation and guided exercises delineates helpful hints and coping tools and proffers multimedia resources to overcome hurdles Constructs of awareness acceptance and realism for all parties are woven throughout along with ideas to enhance the support network s commitment adjustment positivity hope and longevity Case excerpts instructive quotes from caregivers and nuggets of clinical advice assist in analyzing these and other topics in salient detail The impact of brain injury on different family members Treatment themes in early family sessions Family therapy for moderate to severe brain injury concussion and postconcussion syndrome

Family therapy after organic brain injury stroke anoxia tumor seizure disorders Family group treatment during active rehabilitation End of life and existential considerations and positive aspects of care giving Aftercare group therapy for long term needs The hands on approach demonstrated in Psychotherapy for Families after Brain Injury will enhance the demanding work of a range of professionals including neuropsychologists clinical psychologists rehabilitation psychologists family therapists marriage and family counselors psychiatrists behavioral mental health counselors clinical social workers rehabilitation specialists such as speech language pathologists physical and occupational therapists and graduate students in the helping professions
