Writing From The Margins Power And Pedagogy For Teachers Of Composition:

Writing from the Margins Carolyn Ericksen Hill,1990 Writing from the Margins Power and Pedagogy for Teachers of Composition Carolyn Ericksen Hill,1985 A Guide to Composition Pedagogies Gary Tate,Amy Rupiper-Taggart,Kurt Schick,Brooke Hessler,2014-02 This is a bibliographic guide written for newcomers to the field The book familiarizes writing instructors with the current topography of composition studies and directs them to the best books and articles for further exploration Writing Ourselves Into the Story Sheryl I. Fontaine,Susan Hunter,1993 Collects 23 essays research studies and personal narratives on topics connected with teaching composition topics and voices rarely found in scholarly journals or at professional conferences Paper edition unseen 16 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Theorizing Composition Mary Kennedy,1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory s critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works A Pedagogy of Possibility Kay Halasek,1999 The author reconceives composition studies from a Bakhtinian perspective focusing on both the discipline s theoretical assumptions and its pedagogies Halasek explores the implications of Bakhtin s work and provides a model of scholarship balanced between practice and theory On Writing Qualitative Research Margaret Anzul,Maryann Downing,Margot Ely,Ruth Vinz,2003-12-16 This text is both about writing up qualitative research and is itself a qualitative study The written reflections of students on the writing process and the interpretations and presentations of their findings provide a base of data which the authors have in turn analyzed and incorporated into their text They have added accounts of their own experiences and those of their colleagues and other published authors All of these are woven into a theoretical framework that discusses them in detail The Struggle For Pedagogies Jennifer Gore,2013-02-01 Jennifer M Gore examines analyses and offers directions for the debate between critical pedagogy and feminist pedagogy one of the fiercest within education theory Handbook of Heritage, Community, and Native American Languages in the United States Terrence G. Wiley,Joy Kreeft Peyton,Donna Christian,Sarah Catherine K. Moore,Na Liu,2014-01-03 Co published by the Center for Applied Linguistics Timely and comprehensive this state of the art overview of major issues related to heritage community and Native American languages in the United States based on the work of noted authorities draws from a variety of perspectives the speakers use of the languages in the home community and wider society patterns of acquisition retention loss and revitalization of the languages and specific education efforts devoted to developing stronger connections with and proficiency in them Contributions on language use programs and instruction and policy focus on issues that are applicable to many heritage language contexts Offering a foundational perspective for serious students of heritage community and Native American languages as they are learned in the classroom transmitted across generations in families and used in communities the volume provides background on the history and current status of many languages in the linguistic mosaic of U S society and stresses the importance of drawing on these languages as societal community and individual resources while also noting their strategic importance within the context of globalization Professional Writing in Context John Frederick Reynolds,Carolyn B. Matalene,Joyce Neff Magnotto,Donald C. Samson, Jr.,Lynn Veatch Sadler,2013-11-05 This volume explores adult work world writing issues from the perspectives of five seasoned professionals who have logged hundreds of hours working with adults on complicated written communication problems It examines the gap between school world instructional practices and real world problems and situations After describing the five major economic sectors which are writing intensive the text suggests curricular reforms which might better prepare college educated writers for these worlds Because the volume is based on the extensive work world experiences of the authors it offers numerous examples of real world writing problems and strategies which illustrate concretely what goes wrong and what needs to be done about it
