Theory and Practice of Adult and Higher Education Victor C.X. Wang, 2016-10-01 A volume on Theory and Practice of Adult and Higher Education or Foundations of Adult and Higher Education will appeal to both our graduate students and faculty as so many of them have been taking courses in both program areas and have been concerned with their defined areas of expertise Although theories and practices in Adult Education and in Higher Education are being used interchangeably there is a lack of scholarly work that connects existing theories and practices across the two fields The proposed ground breaking volume will cover topics theories practices in both fields of Adult Education and of Higher Education and in doing so will bring to the fore the connections that make these two fields truly inseparable The proposed volume will therefore generate new knowledge to share among faculty graduate students and other researchers who practice not only in Adult Education but also in Higher Education

New Directions in the Anthropology of Dreaming Jeannette Mageo,Robin E. Sheriff,2020-10-08 This book presents new directions in contemporary anthropological dream research surveying recent theorizations of dreaming that are developing both in and outside of anthropology It incorporates new findings in neuroscience and philosophy of mind while demonstrating that dreams emerge from and comment on sociohistorical and cultural contexts The chapters are written by prominent anthropologists working at the intersection of culture and consciousness who conduct ethnographic research in a variety of settings around the world and reflect how dreaming is investigated by a range of informants in ever more diverse sites As well as theorizing the dream in light of current anthropological and psychological research the volume accounts for local dream theories and how they are situated within distinct cultural ontologies It considers dreams as a resource for investigating and understanding cultural change dreaming as a mode of thinking through contesting altering consolidating or escaping from identity and the nature of dream mentation In proposing new theoretical approaches to dreaming the editors situate the topic within the recent call for an anthropology of the night and illustrate how dreams offer insight into current debates within anthropology's mainstream. This up-to-date book defines a twenty-first century approach to culture and the dream that will be relevant to scholars from anthropology as well as other disciplines such as religious studies, the neurosciences, and psychology. Edible Seaweeds of the World

Leonel Pereira, 2016-01-08. Seaweed is used in many countries for very different purposes: directly as food, especially in sushi; as a source of phycocolloids; extraction of compounds with antiviral, antibacterial, or antitumor activity; and as biofertilizers. About four million tons of seaweed are harvested annually worldwide. Of the various species known, less than 20 account
