Thinking and Learning with ICT Rupert Wegerif, Lyn Dawes, 2004-06-03 In this fascinating book the authors outline a strategy for enhancing the effectiveness of computers for teaching and learning Thinking and Learning with ICT Rupert Wegerif, Lyn Dawes, 2004-06-03 Primary teachers need to incorporate the use of computers in their daily lesson plans but how can this be done most effectively to promote learning skills in the classroom In this fascinating book Lyn Dawes and Rupert Wegerif outline a strategy for enhancing the effectiveness of computers for teaching and learning with an emphasis on raising pupil achievement in the core subject areas developing collaborative learning in small groups using group discussions as a way of improving general communication as well as thinking and reasoning skills The approach is to use computers as a support for collaborative learning in small groups and this book presents ways to prepare pupils for talking learning and thinking together around computers Excerpts from pupils discussions illustrate the main issues and guidance on lesson planning and developing and choosing appropriate software is also provided Thinking and Learning with ICT will be a valuable resource for primary teachers and student teachers Computers, Thinking and Learning David Nettelbeck, 2005-02-01 Computers Thinking and Learning provides teachers with successful strategies for implementing the full potential of ICT in middle and upper school humanities classrooms It is a practical and innovative resource that has the authentic voice of a teacher and is an inspirational guide for busy teachers across a range of subjects Each chapter is divided into three parts the learning and thinking context classroom strategies and wider applications and suggested activities Chapter topics encourage greater student involvement in the deeper and more significant processes of thinking and learning Concept Mapping ICT as a thinking and learning tool Oral language avoiding death by PowerPoint On Line Discussion a challenge for thinking skills Hypertext a writing tool for lateral thinking Visual literacies moving on from text based learning Responding to student work can computers help Learning Journeys with ICT. Angie Simmons, 2006-01-01 Mind Expanding: Teaching for Thinking and Creativity in Primary Education Rupert Wegerif, 2010-08-16 An essential addition Wegerif zooms in on the most important ingredient of all in a learning to learn classroom culture the kinds of talk that are allowed and encouraged and brings together both scholarly and practical approaches in a highly fruitful and accessible way Guy Claxton author of Building Learning Power What s the Point of School and New Kinds of Smart This is a thought provoking and readable book which makes a very good case for the importance of teaching thinking skills and encouraging creativity through dialogue Professor Neil Mercer University of Cambridge UK author of Words and Minds and Dialogue and Development There is growing interest in developing flexible thinking and learning skills in the primary classroom but there has been little agreement as to exactly what these skills are and how best to teach for them This innovative book responds to that challenge with a coherent account of what thinking and creativity are and how they can be taught Taking a dialogic approach it shows how engaging children in real dialogue is possible in every area of the curriculum and how this can lead to more reflective considerate and creative children who are able to think for themselves and to learn creatively Wegerif explores the success of approaches such as Philosophy for Children Thinking Together Dialogic Teaching and Building Learning Power Using illustrations and activities he explains how teaching and learning across the primary curriculum can be transformed This book is important reading for all primary teachers and trainees who are looking for practical ideas for teaching thinking It will also be valuable for anyone who wants to understand education and think more about what is most important in education
