This Incomplete One Words Occasioned By The Death Of A Young Person:

This Incomplete One Michael D. Bush, 2006-05-03 A collection of sermons in which preachers deal with the deaths of children and young adults this volume includes the words of Craig Barnes Karl Barth David L Bartlett Ronald P Byars John Claypool William Sloan Coffin Stephen T Davis J Howard Edington Jonathan Edwards Laura Mendenhall and more Ministry and Pastoral Resources Jesus Wept: The Significance of Jesus' Laments in the New Testament Rebekah Eklund, 2015-02-26 Lament does not seem to be a pervasive feature of the New Testament particularly when viewed in relation to the Old Testament A careful investigation of the New Testament however reveals that it thoroughly incorporates the pattern of Old Testament lament into its proclamation of the gospel especially in the person of Jesus Christ as he both prays and embodies lament As an act that fundamentally calls upon God to be faithful to God's promises to Israel and to the church lament in the New Testament becomes a prayer of longing for God's kingdom which has been inaugurated in the ministry and resurrection of Jesus fully to come A Liturgy of Grief Leslie C. Allen, 2011-09 In this commentary on

Lamentations a respected Old Testament scholar and volunteer hospital chaplain presents a biblical model for helping those coping with grief With Joyful Acceptance, Maybe Molly Field James, 2013-02-06 In a world where advertisements lead us to hope for a life free from suffering facing the reality of suffering can be a particular challenge Yet the reality of suffering is one that we all face in the course of our lives While Christianity often has the reputation of a tradition that promotes the idea that all suffering is good for you and makes you a better person there is in fact much more variety and nuance to the tradition While there are those who advocate a wholesale acceptance there are others who question the source of suffering and call for it to be fought against This book delves into the world of five theologians Gregory the Great Julian of Norwich Jeremy Taylor C S Lewis and Ivone Gebara to understand their perspectives and draw on their approaches as a way of understanding what Christian responses to suffering look like This book constructs a contemporary theology that affirms the importance of the call to combat unjust suffering through acts of love and mercy while also affirming that acceptance of the reality of endemic suffering found in all five theologians can provide us with opportunities to grow spiritually live more faithfully and to experience the blessings in the midst of suffering that are a foretaste of heavenly bliss The Power of One Anette

Ejsing, 2011-01-01 We do not like to talk about loneliness We like even less to talk about the fact that the experience that faith does not automatically heal it This is a problem but what if it does not have to be that way What if we can tap into loneliness as a source of personal empowerment In The Power of One Anette Ejsing makes exactly this case Relying on personal stories she first shows why romantic spiritual and social loneliness are particularly difficult to understand in the context of Christian faith She then reflects theologically on these three kinds of loneliness and describes it as a mystery that faith both does and does not heal them In response to this mystery she suggests thinking about loneliness as a privilege Arguing from the perspective of a theology of suffering she encourages each of us to tell our stories of loneliness from the perspective of the end God has in mind for us This means accepting and embracing loneliness as a means through which God raises us up and strengthens us to persevere in joy and faith Learning to do this is a privilege that gives us the opportunity to experience loneliness as a source of personal empowerment Unspeakable Sarah Travis,2021-06-09 Unspeakable probes the relationship between trauma theory and Christian theology in order to support preachers in the task of crafting sermons that adequately respond to trauma in the pews and the world at large How might sermons contribute to resiliency and the repairing of wounds caused by traumatic experiences This book seeks to provide a theological lens for preachers who wonder how their beautiful words can address suffering amid traumatic wounding Preaching is a healing discourse that proclaims gospel or good news Gospel is a complicated reality especially in the face of trauma Drawing on various theologies and insights from trauma theory Unspeakable challenges the notion of a triumphant gospel seeking an in between perspective that honors both resurrection and the trauma that remains despite our desire to get to the good news It builds on images of the preacher as witness and midwife in order to develop homiletical practices that acknowledge the limitations of language and imagination experienced by traumatized individuals What Shall We Say? Thomas G. Long,2014-03-11 Tsunamis earthquakes famines diseases wars these and other devastating forces lead Christians to ask painful questions Is God all powerful Is God good How can God allow so much innocent human suffering These questions taken together have been called the theodicy problem and in this book Thomas Long explores what preachers can and should say in response he offers biblically based approaches to preaching on theodicy guided by Jesus parable of the wheat and the tares and the greatest theodicy text in Scripture The book of Job from book jacket The Goodness of Judgment Jeff McSwain,2024-11-12 In this volume McSwain continues to deploy Karl Barth Julian of Norwich Athanasius James Cone and dozens of others to buttress his claim about human duplicity and the Easter asymmetry which allows us to properly interpret our lives by the gospel Specifically the focus is on Christ s cross which provides the radical discontinuity judgment needed to preserve the continuity of God s good creation In resurrection light we see the inner connection of re creation to creation an atonement that disentangles good from evil righteousness from sin and life from death Even though the perfect clarity of this liberating separation is reserved for judgment day this same judgment of grace frees us to live now as eschatological activists in the Liberator s way of justice and peace In view of the cross the Spirit empowers us to live in the hidden truth of who Christ is and who we have always been in Christ as God s beloved in the Trinitarian communion McSwain s cosmic vision pictures all people sharing in Christ s sufferings and also in his glory Thus the reconciled human community genuinely participates as one in Christ s victory over sin death and the devil How Odd of God William H. Willimon,2015-10-09 Election is a strange word when used in theology It brings to mind old debates about what God might or might not have done before the foundation of the world But viewed apart from that historical baggage the word election is about a central gospel idea that in Jesus not only does God choose to be God for us but chooses us to be for God The calling of the disciples in the gospels is a story of election of how God chooses to transform the world by choosing us to be messengers and agents of that transformation So it is says William Willimon that election becomes not just the content of our preaching but the means as well God chooses preachers How unlikely how odd is it that God should entrust the proclamation of the gospel to well us This unpredictable electing God reaches out to save the world and then leaves it in the hands of preachers to get the word out Through us through our stammering tongues and faltering hearts the preached word becomes the Word of God If you wonder why you drag yourself into the pulpit every Sunday if you worry that your sermons aren't reaching past the front pew then read this book and be encouraged God chooses God chooses preachers God chooses you
