Making Movies Sidney Lumet, 2010-09-01 ONE OF THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER S 100 GREATEST FILM BOOKS OF ALL TIME Invaluable I am sometimes asked if there is one book a filmgoer could read to learn more about how movies are made and what to look for while watching them This is the book Roger Ebert The New York Times Book Review Why does a director choose a particular script What must they do in order to keep actors fresh and truthful through take after take of a single scene How do you stage a shootout involving more than one hundred extras and three colliding taxis in the heart of New York's diamond district What does it take to keep the studio honchos happy From the first rehearsal to the final screening Making Movies is a master's take delivered with clarity candor and a wealth of anecdote For in this book Sidney Lumet one of our most consistently acclaimed directors gives us both a professional memoir and a definitive guide to the art craft and business of the motion picture Drawing on forty years of experience on movies that range from Long Day's Journey into Night to Network and The Verdict and with such stars as Katharine Hepburn Paul Newman Marlon Brando and Al Pacino Lumet explains how painstaking labor and inspired split second decisions can result in two hours of screen magic Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1970 The Hollywood Film Music Reader Mervyn Cooke, 2010-11-04 This wide ranging stimulating and entertaining anthology of writings about the experiences of composers working in the high pressure environment of the US film industry from the silent era to the present day includes both vivid first hand accounts from the composers themselves and a representative selection of contemporaneous criticism and commentary From Spirituals to Symphonies Helen Walker-Hill, 2007 Exploding the assumption that black women's only important musical contributions have been in folk jazz and pop Helen Walker Hill's unique study provides a carefully researched examination of the history and scope of musical composition by African American women composers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Focusing on the effect of race gender and class From Spirituals to Symphonies notes the important role played by individual personalities and circumstances in shaping this underappreciated category of American art The study also provides in depth exploration of the backgrounds experiences and musical compositions of eight African American women including Margaret Bonds Undine Smith Moore and Julia Perry who combined the techniques of Western art music with their own cultural traditions and individual gifts Despite having gained national and international recognition during their lifetimes the contributions of many of these women are today forgotten The Learner-Centered Music Classroom David A Williams, Jonathan R Kladder, 2019-07-11 The Learner Centered Music Classroom Models and Possibilities is a resource for practicing music teachers providing them with practical ideas and lesson plans for implementing learner centered pedagogical concepts into their music classrooms The purpose of this book is to propose a variety of learner centered models for music teaching and learning through the use of a variety of autoethnographic viewpoints Nine contributors provide working and concrete examples of learner centered models from their classrooms Offering lesson plan ideas in each of these areas the contributors provide practical approaches for implementation of learner centered approaches in music instruction across a variety of landscapes Learner centered teaching provides an approach to music education that encourages social interactive culturally responsive creative peer based open formed facilitated and democratic learning Chapter 1 defines the what why and perceived benefits of learner centered approaches in music teaching and learning contexts Chapters 2-10 will include example lesson plans rubrics etc as models for teachers The contributors to this book suggest that learner centered approaches when embedded into the culture and curricular framework of a music classroom offer exciting approaches for teaching music in ways that are culturally and educationally appropriate in contemporary education Margaret Bonds John Michael Cooper, 2025 Composer pianist teacher and social justice activist Margaret Bonds fought against racism sexism and economic injustice throughout her career amassing a portfolio of social justice compositions unrivalled in eloquence and originality which challenged longstanding barriers between Black and White male and female popular and classical During her lifetime the political economy of music publishing consigned most of her music to manuscript dissemination and since her death despite the enduring popularity of works such as He's Got the Whole World in His Hand and The Ballad of the Brown King her success in transcending the barriers she faced as an African American and a woman has been obscured by the forces of racism and sexism in concert life which together with White and male dominated music historiography have viewed her life and work through the lens of specious racist and sexist tropes This book draws on an unprecedented mass of archival evidence to set aside those tropes and offer a fresh portrait of Margaret Bonds Examining her published and unpublished music it shows how the child prodigy rose to become the first African American woman whose music was performed widely in Africa one of the first African American women whose music was broadcast on European radio the first African American woman and pianist to perform with a major U S orchestra the second African American woman in classical music to attain full membership in ASCAP the first woman Black or White to win not one or two but three awards from that predominantly White and male organization the lasting musical voice of Langston Hughes and the teacher of other notables including Ned Rorem and Cheryl Wall It thus shows how the confluence of natural genius matrilineal and racial pride faith and support from the community of African American artists intellectuals and institutions enabled Margaret Bonds to become one of the most extraordinary figures in all of twentieth century music In response to the increasing globalization of music the Composers across Cultures series formerly the Master Musicians series seeks to explore the inexhaustible diversity of music and its common links to our shared humanity Music, Books on Music, and Sound Recordings Library of Congress, 1987

Letters From Lotusland Ian Whitcomb, 2010-02 Ian Whitcomb One Hit Wonder British Invader of the 1960s and teen heart throb never went home Instead he tried to settle down in Los Angeles County where over the years he produced a Grammy winning CD wrote songs for movies auditioned for butler roles in TV commercials had and lost dogs married successfully and continued to play his ukulele as the ship went down Now the entire soap opera 1996-2008 roped together in hard copy with appropriate photos can be relished as a roller coaster of self pity vaunting and failed ambition jealousy bathos and pathos culminating in a Big Dream In other words this is a comedy book Mainline Show Biz may have passed Whitcomb by but here in these precious pages he creates his own world of heroes and villains with himself as King in order to get sweet revenge through the twisted lingo of his India rubber sword
