Ibrahim

Elzembely,Emad El-Din Aysha,2022-05-06 How is science fiction from the Arab and Muslim world different than mainstream science fiction from the West What distinctive and original contributions can it make Why is it so often neglected in critical considerations of the genre While other books have explored these questions all have been from foreign academic voices Instead this book examines the nature genesis and history of Arabic and Muslim science fiction as well as the challenges faced by its authors in the authors own words These authors share their stories and struggles with censors recalcitrant publishers critics the book market and the literary establishment Their uphill efforts with critical contributions from academics translators and literary activists will enlighten the sci fi enthusiast and fill a gap in the history of science fiction Topics covered range from culture shock to conflicts between tradition and modernity proactive roles for female heroines blind imitation of storytelling techniques and language games Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature

Israel A. C. Noletto,2024-05-31 Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature surveys a large number of fictional languages those created as part of a literary world to present a multifaceted account of the literary phenomenon of glossopoesis language invention Consisting of a few untranslated sentences exotic names or even fully fledged languages with detailed grammar and vocabulary fictional languages have been a common element of English language fiction since Thomas More s Utopia 1516 Different notions of the functions of such fictional languages in narrative have been proposed as rooted in phonaesthetics and contextual features or as being used for characterisation and construction of alterity Framed within stylistics and informed by narrative theory literary theory literary pragmatics and semiotics this study combines previous typologies into a new 5 part reading model comprising unique analytical approaches tailored to science fiction s specific discourse and style exploring the relationship between glossopoesis world building storytelling interpretation and rhetoric both in prose and paratexts Empathy and the Phantasmic in Ethnic American Trauma Narratives Stella Setka,2020-05-19 Empathy and the Phantasmic in Ethnic American Trauma Narratives examines a burgeoning genre of ethnic American literature called phantasmic trauma narratives which use culturally specific modes of the supernatural to connect readers to historical traumas such as slavery and genocide Drawing on trauma theory and using an ethnic studies methodology this book shows how phantasmic novels and films present historical trauma in ways that seek to invite reader viewer empathy about the cultural groups represented In so doing the author argues that these texts also provide models of interracial alliances to encourage contemporary cross cultural engagement as a restorative response to historical traumas Further the author examines how these narratives function as sites of cultural memory that provide a critical purchase on the enormity of enslavement genocide and dispossession
