Three Swahili Women Life Histories From Mombasa Kenya:

Three Swahili Women Sarah Mirza, Margaret Strobel, 1989-05-22 This is altogether a most worthwhile book a fine example of a growing genre of African literature Choice Mirza and Strobel let these women speak about their lives in their own words and the results are wonderful This is an excellent book with which to introduce students both to Africa and to life histories American Historical Review This exploration of the lives of three Mombasa women reveals the complexity of Swahili society its ethnic diversity the impact of slavery and the varied reactions to colonialism and Western culture They illustrate the rich interactions within the women s community focused on family and festive or ritual occasions Voices of Women Historians Eileen Boris, Nupur Chaudhuri, 1999-09-22 The Coordinating Council for Women in History evolved from a cohort of women historians who turned their scholarly focus to the recovery of women s experiences In so doing they created and legitimated the field of women s history The contributors to this volume former CCWH officers mark the 30th anniversary of the organization while commemorating three decades of feminist activism and scholarship Recording the diverse paths women have taken to become historians the essays contained in this book describe how a particular group of women negotiated the often competing demands of being a woman a professional and a political activist from the turbulent 1960s through the challenges of the 1990s But beyond the celebration of personal and professional progress this collection contributes to the emerging historiography of women s history and the literature on women in the professions Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Women in Twentieth-Century Africa Iris Berger, 2016-04-25 During a turbulent colonial and postcolonial century African women struggled to control their own marital sexual and economic lives and to gain a significant voice in local and national politics This book introduces many remarkable women who organized religious and political movements fought in anti colonial wars ran away to escape arranged marriages and during the 1990s began successful campaigns for gender parity in national legislatures The book also explores the apparent paradox in the conflicting images of African women as singularly oppressed and dominated by men but also as strong resourceful and willing to challenge governments and local traditions to protect themselves and their families Understanding the tension between women s power and their oppression between their strength and their vulnerability offers a new lens for understanding the relationship between the state and society in the twentieth century Woman Between Two Worlds Judith V. Olmstead, 1997 Dynamic opinionated gritty and charismatic Chimate Chumbalo successfully navigated male dominated factional politics experimenting with different strategies to create for her people the society that she wanted for herself Voices from Mutira Jean Davison, 1996 Documenting the changes occurring since the 1984 study this edition provides a collection of life histories from the women of Mutira Two new introductory chapters frame the life histories within the context both of significant macro level transitions in Kenya and current thinking on gender Transactions of the Royal Historical Society: Volume 9 Royal Historical Society, 1999-12-09 Volume 9 of the RHS Transactions contains essays based around the theme oral history memory and written tradition Bonded Labour and Debt in the Indian Ocean World Gwyn Campbell, Alessandro Stanziani, 2015-10-06 This volume of essays contains case studies of debt bondage covering the impact of an expanding globalized economy increased commercialization colonial and post colonial societies and emerging economies Taking Land, Breaking Land Glenda Riley, 2003 Table of contents Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Ngozi Edeagu, Egodi Uchendu, 2021-08-26 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Discourses Practices and Policies examines the entrenchment of patriarchy in Africa and its attendant socioeconomic and political consequences on gender relations The contributors analyze the historical and modern ways in which gender expectations have enabled women in African societies to be systematically abused and marginalized from unpaid labor to poor representation in decision making areas Exploring regions such as rural Uganda the suburbs of Zimbabwe the Gold Coast South Africa and Nigeria contributors incorporate a wide range of academic theories and disciplines to establish the need for improved policy implementation on gender issues at both the local and national government levels in Africa Africanizing Knowledge Toyin Falola, 2017-11-30 Nearly four decades ago Terence Ranger questioned to what extent African history was actually African and whether methods and concerns derived from Western historiography were really sufficient tools for researching and narrating African history Despite a blossoming and branching out of Africanist scholarship in the last twenty years that question is still haunting The most prestigious locations for production of African studies are outside Africa itself and scholars still seek a solution to this paradox They agree that the ideal solution would be a flowering of institutions of higher learning within Africa which would draw not only Africanist scholars but also financial resources to the continent While the focus of this volume is on historical knowledge the effort to make African scholarship more African is fundamentally interdisciplinary The essays in this volume employ several innovative methods in an effort to study Africa on its own terms The book is divided into four parts Part 1 Africanizing African History offers several diverse methods for bringing distinctly African modes of historical discourse to the foreground in academic historical research Part 2 African Creative Expression in Context presents case studies of African art literature music and poetry It attempts to strip away the exotic or primitivist aura such topics often accumulate when presented in a foreign setting in order to illuminate the social historical and aesthetic contexts in which these works of art were originally produced Part 3 Writing about Colonialism demonstrates that the study of imperialism in Africa remains a springboard for innovative work which takes familiar ideas about Africa and considers them within new contexts Part 4 Scholars and Their Work critically examines the process of African studies itself including the roles of scholars in the production of knowledge about Africa This timely and thoughtful volume will be of interest to African studies scholars and students who are concerned about the ways in which Africanist scholarship might become more African
