Year Jubilee George Gissing:

In the Year of Jubilee George Gissing, 2024-01-02 George Gissing's classic novel In the Year of Jubilee centers on the lives of two sisters, Nancy and Jessica Lord, and vividly depicts late 19th-century English society. The novel, which takes place in the made-up town of Polchester, examines the sharp differences in the lives of the two sisters. The older sister, Nancy, is married to a wealthy businessman, Samuel Barmby, and lives a traditional life. Nancy is comfortable in monetary terms but she yearns for something more significant and feels stuck in a loveless marriage. As the story progresses, Nancy and Jessica's lives unexpectedly cross paths, resulting in tense times as well as moments of self-discovery and reconciliation. The book provides a complex picture of Victorian England by delving into themes of class, gender, family, and social change via their experiences. In the Year of Jubilee explores the intricacies of interpersonal relationships and the pursuit of personal fulfillment in an insightful and poignant story. Readers are still enthralled and provoked to debate by George Gissing's perceptive observations on the social and cultural dynamics of his day.

In the Year of Jubilee, by George Gissing a Novel New Edition George Gissing, 2016-06-18 In the Year of Jubilee is the thirteenth novel by English author George Gissing. First published in 1894, in the summer of 1893 Gissing returned to London after living for two years in Exeter and took lodgings with his second wife at 76 Burton Road, Brixton. He realised that in South London there was a new territory open to a novelist's exploitation. From Burton Road he went for long walks through nearby Camberwell, soaking up impressions of the way of life he saw emerging there. This led him to writing In the Year of Jubilee, the story of the romantic and sexual initiation of a suburban heroine, Nancy Lord. Gissing originally called his novel Miss Lord of Camberwell. George Robert Gissing (22 November 1857 – 28 December 1903) was an English novelist who published 23 novels between 1880 and 1903. Gissing also worked as a teacher and tutor throughout his life. He published his first novel, Workers in the Dawn, in 1880. His best-known novels, which are published in modern editions, include The Nether World (1889), New Grub Street (1891), and The Odd Women (1893). Gissing was born on 22 November 1857 in Wakefield, Yorkshire, the eldest of five children of Thomas Waller Gissing, who ran a chemist's shop, and Margaret nee Bedford. His siblings were William, who died aged twenty; Algernon, who became a writer; Margaret; and Ellen. His childhood home in Thompson's Yard, Wakefield, is maintained by The Gissing Trust. Gissing was educated at Back Lane School in Wakefield. His serious interest in books began at the age of ten when he read The Old Curiosity Shop by Charles Dickens and was subsequently encouraged by his father and inspired by the family library. His literary interest grew. Juvenilia, written at this time, was published in 1995 in The Poetry of George Gissing. He was also skilled at drawing. Gissing's father died when he was 12 years old, and he and his brothers were sent to Lindow Grove School at Alderley Edge in Cheshire, where he was a solitary student who studied hard. In 1872, after an exceptional performance in the Oxford Local Examinations, Gissing won a scholarship to Owens College, forerunner of the University of Manchester. There he remained solitary, continued his intense studies, and won many prizes, including the Poem Prize in 1873 and the Shakespeare scholarship in 1875 Gissing's academic career ended in disgrace when he fell in love with a young woman Marianne Helen Harrison known as Nell. She is often described as a prostitute but there is no evidence for this. It is reported that he gave her money in an attempt to keep her off the streets but again there is no evidence. What is known is that when he ran short of money he stole from his fellow students. The college hired a detective to investigate the thefts and Gissing was prosecuted, found guilty, expelled and sentenced to a month's hard labour in Belle Vue Gaol, Manchester in 1876.
