Raising Our Hands Jenna Arnold, 2020-06-16 White women are one of the most influential demographics in America we are the largest voting bloc with purchasing power that exceeds anybody else s and when we unify to demand change we are a force to be reckoned with Yet so many of us sit idly on the sidelines opting out of raising our hands to do learn and engage in ways that could make a difference Why White American women are no monolith Yet as Women s March national organizer Jenna Arnold has learned over the past few years criss crossing the US in conversations with white women about their identity and role in the country we do possess common characteristics ones that get in the way of us becoming more engaged as citizens We re so focused on checking off our to do lists or so afraid of getting it wrong or so busy trying to avoid conflict that we are actively avoiding the urgent conversations we need to have We are confused about how we got here and unsure how to do better Raising Our Hands is the reckoning cry for white women It asks us to step up and join the new frontlines of the fight against complacency
