Overlaid on this fabric is a dense, repeating pattern of Hebrew text in a cursive script. In the upper left corner, a dark silhouette of a tree with many branches is visible.

The Swastika Clock Louis Daniel Brodsky, 2012-04-25 In

The Swastika Clock Louis Daniel Brodsky writes the daily log of his passion his anger his desolation his entrails deep pain In the ticking darkness of the Holocaust in which we have lived these past 70 years and driven by his unrelenting war against forgiveness and forgetting he hurls rant after rant at us his amazed and chastened readers giving full rein to his Diasporan anger over what was done to his people the Jews of Europe during the Shoah decade when millions were not merely murdered but mortified to the quick mutilated beyond recognition massacred in nearly unimaginable ways In this book which packs the wallop of a centuries long scream Brodsky refuses to mask the occasion by singing of reconciliation and healing and yet at key moments of this late hour his raging words modulate to deliver demolishing insights to our shattered hearts

Seizing the Sun and Moon Louis Daniel Brodsky, 2012-05-07 The third volume of THE SEASONS OF YOUTH celebrates the author's growing family with the birth of a son Father and mother revisit the daily joys and challenges of seeing a child flourish from infancy into the preschool years while they marvel at their daughter's rapid physical and social development as she progresses from age three to six and a half exhibiting the first hints of who she'll be as an adult In thirty nine poems that poignantly dramatize the interweaving of four lives Louis Daniel Brodsky shares myriad rituals of childrearing bathing meal time school days pets playing first words getting ready for bed all of which offer chances to experience the coming of age wonders of early maturation and the rites of initiation into love's simple complexities opportunities to seize the sun and moon

The Complete Poems of Louis Daniel Brodsky: Volume Three, 1976-1980 Louis Daniel Brodsky, 1996 The third volume of The Complete Poems of Louis Daniel Brodsky presents over seven hundred poems written from July 1976 through December 1980 By this period in his life Brodsky had a wife and two children a thriving business that kept him traveling and a passion for acquiring Faulkneriana sparked by his deep appreciation of the author's literature that had led him on increasingly frequent journeys to Oxford Mississippi and elsewhere to meet those who knew Faulkner and those who might supplement Brodsky's expanding collection Spending considerably more time away from home than ever before he began to compose most of his poems while driving eating in small town caf staying in motels and retreating to bars after twelve hour workdays always filling his omnipresent notebook with new images and metaphors It was during these trips that Brodsky conceived many of his poetic personae Willy Sypher the Jewish ragman road peddler a man who though he lost no family in it still feels he's a victim of the Holocaust the Northern outlander who appears in many of his Southern poems the nature poet who captures the beauty of rural America and the cynical city poet who observes its bigotry and vulgarity and the unhappy family man who feels he must escape home for the freedom of the open road but nevertheless suffers guilt and remorse The poems from this segment of Brodsky's literary career reflect a man in his mid and late thirties facing growing desperation as he attempts to fulfill the complex responsibilities of his day to day commitments and yet address an unrelenting compulsion to
