Women Of Color And The Multicultural Curriculum Transforming The College Classroom:

Women of Color and the Multicultural Curriculum Liza Fiol-Matta, Mariam Chamberlain, 1994 A A A The product of 13 curriculum projects that involved several hundred educators nationwide this volume provides faculty and administrators with a guide to multicultural curricular change especially with respect to women While womenA represent over halfA of the college students on campus they are still represented only minimally in the allegedly mainstream curriculum Women of color are far less visible in the curriculum than white women A A A Both the process and the results of a Ford Foundation funded project are presented here in a format that allows browsing and promotes reading straight through The volume is divided into three major sections the first of which highlights the actual process of faculty transformation and administrative support essential to curricular changes as it occurred on two of the participating campuses U C L A and George Washington University Extensive multidisciplinary faculty development syllabi are provided A A A Section Two contains 37 transformed undergraduate course syllabi for courses in sociology American history and literature and more with brief essays describing professors encounters with teaching the new texts Section Three is an invaluable interdisciplinary guide to teaching about Puerto Rican women prepared by a team of scholars at SUNY Albany It provided information about Puerto Rican women inside and outside Puerto Rico as well as teaching strategies for integrating such information into the traditional curriculum A A A This volume shows that essential educational change to meet the diversity of U S students may be somewhat slower than one would wish and more difficult but it is complex challenging and intellectually exciting

Race in the College Classroom Maureen T. Reddy, Bonnie TuSmith, 2002 Winner of the 2003 American Educational Studies Association Critics Choice Awards Winner of the 2003 Gustavus Myers Outstanding Book Award Did affirmative action programs solve the problem of race on American college campuses as several recent books would have us believe If so why does talking about race in anything more than a superficial way make so many students uncomfortable Written by college instructors from many disciplines this volume of essays takes a bold first step toward a nationwide conversation Each of the twenty nine contributors addresses one central question what are the challenges facing a college professor who believes that teaching responsibly requires an honest and searching examination of race Professors from the humanities social sciences sciences and education consider topics such as how the classroom environment is structured by race the temptation to retreat from challenging students when faced with possible reprisals in the form of complaints or negative evaluations the implications of using standardized evaluations in faculty tenure and promotion when the course subject is intimately connected with race and the varying ways in which white faculty and faculty of color are impacted by teaching about race

States Voting was not open to students or the public at large Career Strategies for Women in Academia Lynn H. Collins, Joan C. Chrisler, Kathryn Quina, 1998-07-23 Making one's way through the minefields that are found in the academic professions is difficult for anyone but the issues encountered by women in academe are pervasive and require specific strategies In this new volume editors Lynn H Collins Joan C Chrisler and Kathryn Quina provide a wealth of information about institutional pitfalls in higher education professions advice on how to handle difficult situations and encouragement to those who persevere in their pursuit of an academic career The book first considers the current state of women in higher education and then turns to an examination of women's roles in academe Next a section on assuming leadership in higher education provides insights and advice on breaking the glass ceiling A final section looks at how to take charge of one's self and one's career Full of personal accounts including success stories and cautionary tales Career Strategies for Women Academics is a must own for women looking for success in academia Women's Studies Quarterly (96:3-4) Liza Fiol-Matta, Myrna Goldenberg, 1996-08 A focus on the state of women's studies in two year community colleges presenting the results of two curriculum transformation projects that took place at over twenty community colleges No Angel in the Classroom Berenice M. Fisher, 2001 No Angel in the Classroom Teaching through Feminist Discourse presents a theoretically complex yet down to earth and personal account of feminist teaching in higher education Starting with a nuanced interpretation of consciousness raising longtime feminist educator Berenice Malka Fisher develops her philosophy of feminist teaching as a form of political discourse Through reflection on a series of candid classroom stories she analyzes knotty problems faced by academics and activists What counts as knowledge in discussion of feminist issues Can teachers exercise authority without being authoritarian What is the role of caring in political deliberation Should safety be considered when students and teachers address volatile topics How can feminist and other teachers committed to social justice give serious attention to the intersections of gender race and sexual orientation This groundbreaking book is intended for the beginning and veteran teachers and others concerned with the contribution of education to extending social justice Fisher's work offers a pedagogical vision that inspires both passion and critical thinking Encyclopedia of African-American Education Charles A. Asbury, D. Kamili Anderson, Michael Fultz, Sylvia M. Jacobs, Faustine C. Jones-Wilson, Margo Okazawa-Rey, 1996-08-28 This indispensable reference is a comprehensive guide to significant issues policies historical events laws theories and persons related to the education of African Americans in the United States Through several hundred alphabetically arranged entries the volume chronicles the history of African American education from the systematic long term denial of schooling to blacks before the Civil War to the establishment of the Freedmen's Bureau and the era of Reconstruction to Brown v Board of Education and the civil rights reforms of the last few decades Entries are written by expert contributors and contain valuable bibliographies while a selected bibliography of general sources concludes the volume The African American population is unique in that its educational history includes as law and public policy the systematic long term denial of the acquisition of knowledge In the 18th century African Americans were initially legally forbidden to be taught academic subjects in the South where most African Americans lived This period which ended around 1865 with the conclusion of the Civil War and the establishment of the Freedmen s Bureau was followed by the introduction of laws policies and practices providing for rudimentary education for 69 years under the dual school separate but equal policies established by Plessy v Ferguson 1896 These policies did not end until the Brown v Board of Education decisions of 1954 and 1955 were reinforced by the passage of civil rights and equal opportunity legislation in the mid 1960s The education of African Americans has been a continuing moral political legal economic and psychological issue throughout this country s history It continues to consume time and attention and it remains an unresolved dilemma for the nation Through several hundred alphabetically arranged entries this indispensable reference offers a comprehensive overview of significant issues policies historical events laws persons and theories related to African American education from the early years of this country to the present day The entries are written by expert contributors and each entry includes a bibliography of works for further reading A selected general bibliography concludes the volume
