Women Of The European Union Women Of The European Union:

Sexual Politics and the European Union R. Amy Elman, 1996 Ten essays from the Women The European State and Community conference in Kalamazoo Michigan May 1994 apply to the coalescing superstate of the European Union the lessons feminists have learned dealing with national governments Among the topics are women s rights policy sexual harassment pornography sexual trafficking reproductive technologies in Germany abortion in Ireland and the future of European feminism Paper edition unseen 14 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Women of the European Union Maria Dolors Garcia-Ramon, Janice Monk, 2002-09-11 Women of the European Union challenges gender blind assessments of the economic and social aspects of the European Union policies to examine the real implications of Union for the diversity of women in the Member States The authors also analyze how women s work and daily lives are shaped by local and national policies by local and global economic conditions and by diverse and changing cultural values Detailed contemporary case studies explore how place comes together with class life stage sexuality and ethnicity to affect the way in which women are constrained and how they develop strategies to manage their lives Social developments in the European Union 2013 David Natali (OSE), 2014-06-01 The European Union has gone through a crucial period marked by growing anti EU sentiments and the difficult implementation of its largely renewed socio economic governance After years of in depth innovations and the hope of reinvigorating the E M U social dimension European institutions have engaged in a lively debate on how to exit the recession and relaunch the integration project While most Member States have continued to pursue punitive austerity programmes at a time when 27 million Europeans are unemployed and a quarter of the EU population is at risk of poverty most stakeholders namely the trade union movement and policymakers agree on the need for an EU driven growth strategy This 2013 edition of Social developments in the European Union provides key insights from analysts and scholars Through the critical assessment of the EU economic governance of the last few years contributors have set guidelines for a reinforced EU social protection and investment plan The proposals for a pan European unemployment insurance scheme and an EU minimum income scheme are analysed together with a renewed focus on the gender dimension of European social policies Beyond economic and social governance this volume critically reviews national reforms of labour market policies While the state of the European economy is still gloomy the institutional and policy reforms proposed here represent an opportunity to unveil a new path for Europe Gendering the European Union G. Abels, J. Mushaben, 2012-01-06 An exploration of European integration as seen through a gender lens This book looks at integration theories institutional relationships enlargement the development of gender law and the role of formal actors scholars and expert networks in the EU policy making process With a focus on gender mainstreaming as a new approach to gender policy Gender Equality Policy in the European Union Ingrid Bego, 2015-07-14 One of the solutions proposed by the European Union to remedy the effects of the 2008 economic crisis is to increase female labour participation This book explores the policy changes in four new member states that may reduce the gender employment gap and improve women's equal participation in the labour force Europe in Its Own Eyes, Europe in the Eyes of the Other David B.

MacDonald, Mary-Michelle DeCoste, 2014-04-23 What is Europe Who is European What do Europe and European identity mean in the twenty first century This collection of sixteen essays seeks to answer these questions by focusing on Europe as it is seen through its own eyes and through the eyes of others across a variety of cultural texts including sport film literature dance cartography and fashion These texts as interpreted here by emerging researchers as well as well established scholars enable us to engage with European identities in the plural and to understand what these identities mean in larger cultural and political contexts The interdisciplinary focus of this volume permits an exploration of European identity that reaches beyond the area of European studies to incorporate understandings of identity from the viewpoints of both insider and other Contributors explore diverse understandings of what it means to be other to a country a culture a society or a subgroup This book offers a fresh perspective on the evolving concept of identity in the context of Europe's past present and future and expands on the existing literature by considering the political tensions and social implications of the development of European identity as well as its literary artistic and cultural manifestations The EU at a Crossroads Despina

Anagnostopoulou, Lina Papadopoulou, 2017-05-11 This volume brings together experienced Professors and PhD researchers from all over Europe to summarise the crucial dilemmas that the European Union has to confront during its current multilevel crisis The chapters are organized into four parts The first section deals with constitutional issues of the EU namely multilevel democratic governance gender equality and participatory democracy and the impact of the crisis on them The second analyses public governance issues with reference to urban planning as a new policy for the EU state aid and privatization of public companies corporate governance principles for public companies and EU case law on freedom of establishment of companies The third part discusses certain issues of the EU internal market and external trade namely the Europeanisation of labour relations the relation between EU environmental law and international agreements the dilemma between regionalism and multilateralism in international trade law and the Eurasian Economic Union The fourth section explores the Eurozone crisis from different perspectives and areas namely political philosophy economics political science administrative science and law The European Union and Human Rights Jan Wouters, Manfred Nowak, Anna-Luise

Chané, Nicolas Hachez, 2020-12-17 With the adoption of the Lisbon Treaty the profile of human rights issues has greatly risen in relation to EU policies whether internal or external The EU has thereby made the commitment to ensure that all its actions are compliant with human rights and seek to promote them Yet the EU's commitment has come under scrutiny not only for its ground breaking character but also because recent events have put it to the test This volume has been designed to take stock of these developments to comprehensively discuss the conceptualization and operationalization of the EU's commitment to human rights throughout the EU's relationships policies actions and legislative activity and to critically assess its outcome This title is divided into four parts Framework presents the issues related to human rights promotion by the EU Actors delves into the relationships that play a part at home or abroad in regards to human rights policies and judgements Policies takes a case study approach and systematically reviews a range of EU internal and external policies to assess their human rights impact and implementation and finally Strategies provides an integrated assessment of the design and implementation of the EU s commitment to human rights This book brings together essays from around the world each discussing different aspects of EU commitment and evaluating the extent to which the EU is delivering on it Each chapter provides an introduction to the state of affairs discusses opportunities and challenges and provides recommendations As such it is an essential reference book on human rights policies throughout the EU and their impact throughout the world

Citizenship: Feminist Perspectives Ruth Lister, 2017-03-14 The second edition of this classic text substantially revises and extends the original so as to take account of theoretical and policy developments and to enhance its international scope Drawing on a range of disciplines and literatures the book provides an unusually broad account of citizenship It recasts traditional thinking about the concept so as to pinpoint important theoretical issues and their political and policy implications for women in their diversity Themes of inclusion and exclusion at national and international level rights and participation inequality and difference are thus all brought to the fore in the development of a woman friendly gender inclusive theory and praxis of citizenship

European Citizenship through the Lens of EU Values Gaëlle Marti, 2025-03-14 Is EU citizenship compatible with European values In the wake of the Convention on the Future of Europe and against the backdrop of the many challenges facing the EU security economic migration health climate digital etc this book aims to take stock of the scope and content of European citizenship and its capacity to embody the values of the Union Seen as the culmination of a political project EU citizenship is also regularly criticised as a mere market citizenship whose rights only benefit the mobile and wealthy The first part of the book therefore focuses on assessing the values of the Union in the light of European citizenship with an emphasis on dignity equality democracy and respect for human rights while the second part analyses the ways in which European citizenship can truly embody the values of the Union The aim is to rethink the Union s capacity to ensure the effective dissemination of the values underlying the European social contract and to anchor them in a democratic project underpinned by European citizenship This book is the result of an international academic conference held at the University of Lyon 3 at the end of 2023 and is part of the Jean Monnet Chair s research project on the promotion and preservation of the values of the Union It brings together contributions from Ninon Forster Professor of Public Law University of Valenciennes Anastasia Iliopoulou Professor of Public Law University of Paris Pantheon Assas Julie Rondou Assistant Professor of Public Law University of Strasbourg Mathieu Rouy PhD in EU law Research fellow at EDIEC Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University Quitterie Roccaserra Doctoral candidate University Paris Pantheon Assas Felicie Remlinger Doctoral candidate University Paris Pantheon Assas Irene Marchioro Postdoctoral researcher University of Trieste Michele
