Mou, 2015-07-17 As far back as the first century BCE Chinese dynastic historians all men began recording the achievements of Chinese women and creating a structure of understanding that would be used to limit and control them To men these women became role models for their daughters and wives to the few literate women readers they became paradigms for their own behavior Thus although these biographies are descriptive

by nature they actually became prescriptive Gentlemen s Prescriptions for Women s Lives is an enlightening source for studying Chinese women of the Imperial era as well as for understanding Chinese womanhood in general By contextualizing these biographies the author shows us these women not just as the complaisant calm eyed delicate figures that adorn Confucian texts but also as the products of the Confucian tradition s appropriation of women

Women's Lives, Women's Voices Brenda Longfellow, Molly Swetnam-Burland, 2021-11-23 Literary evidence is often silent about the lives of women in antiquity particularly those from the buried cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum Even when women are considered they are often seen through the lens of their male counterparts In this collection Brenda Longfellow and Molly Swetnam Burland have gathered an outstanding group of scholars to give voice to both the elite and ordinary women living on the Bay of Naples before the eruption of Vesuvius Using visual architectural archaeological and epigraphic evidence the authors consider how women in the region interacted with their communities through family relationships businesses and religious practices in ways that could complement or complicate their primary social roles as mothers daughters and wives They explore women run businesses from weaving and innkeeping to prostitution consider representations of women in portraits and graffiti and examine how women expressed their identities in the funerary realm Providing a new model for studying women in the ancient world Women s Lives Women s Voices brings to light the day to day activities of women of all classes in Pompeii and Herculaneum
