Women Writing Cloth Migratory Fictions In The American Imaginary:

Women Writing Cloth Mary Jo Bona, 2016 Women Writing Cloth Migratory Fictions in the American Imaginary argues that cloth work serves as a textual signifier of mobility and preservation constituting a revolt against a devaluation of cultural heritage and a distrust of the self Bona develops a new framework for Women Writing Cloth Mary Jo Bona, 2015-12-09 Women Writing Cloth Migratory Fictions in the American Imaginary performs a ground breaking intervention by uncovering the relationship between literary cloth working women and migration in a range of American novels across centuries Bona demonstrates how four authors Nathaniel Hawthorne Alice Walker Sandra Cisneros and Adria Bernardi innovate on pre modern stories of weaving women in order to explore the intricate connections between handwork resourcefulness and mobility Refracted through the lens of women's migratory experiences vis vis cloth working aesthetics Women Writing Cloth examines varied aspects of sewing embroidering quilting and rebozo making as textual signifiers of mobility and preservation Through authorial innovation women's handwork constitutes a revolt against a devaluation of cultural heritage and a distrust of the self Women Writing Cloth argues that literary cloth working women inspire paradigmatic shifts in social codes due to portable skills that enabled their survival in the new world Bona paints a complex picture of women whose migratory experiences taught them how to live within a stigmatizing culture and beneath institutional powers to control their artistry Fabric designs assume fuller multicultural meaning when textiles cross borders and tell unspeakable stories that expose constraints typifying gender race and heritage The authors examined simulate the artistic creativity of cloth work by interrogating traditional assumptions about representation chronology and spatial boundaries Women Writing Cloth breaks new ground to reveal the elaborate relationship between cloth work expertise and women's mobility Variations of cloth working women showcase a relationship between subversive artistry and institutional oppressions that compel strategies of resistance enable survival and inspired by migration construct inventive fabric creations Women Writing Cloth engages the activity of cloth work as a means of reclamation and subversive expression represented in American literature Writing the Polish American Woman in Postwar Ethnic Fiction Grażyna J. Kozaczka, 2019-02-26 Though often unnoticed by scholars of literature and history Polish American women have for decades been fighting back against the patriarchy they encountered in America and the patriarchy that followed them from Poland Through close readings of several Polish American and Polish Canadian novels and short stories published over the last seven decades Writing the Polish American Woman in Postwar Ethnic Fiction traces the evolution of this struggle and women's efforts to construct gendered and classed ethnicity Focusing predominantly on work by North American born and immigrant authors that represents the Polish American Catholic tradition Grażyna J Kozaczka puts texts in conversation with other American ethnic literatures She positions ethnic gender construction and performance at an intersection of social class race and sex She explores the marginalization of ethnic female characters in terms of migration studies theories of whiteness and the history of feminist discourse Writing the Polish

American Woman in Postwar Ethnic Fiction tells the complex story of how Polish American women writers have shown a strong awareness of their oppression and sought empowerment through resistive and transgressive behaviors American Literature in Transition, 1980-1990 D. Quentin Miller, 2017-12-28 History has not been kind to the 1980s The decade is often associated with absurd fashion choices neo Conservatism in the Reagan Bush years the AIDS crisis Wall Street ethics and uninspired television film and music Yet the literature of the 1980s is undeniably rich and lasting American Literature in Transition 1980 1990 seeks to frame some of the decade s greatest achievements such as Toni Morrison s monumental novel Beloved and to consider some of the trends that began in the 1980s and developed thereafter including the origins of the graphic novel prison literature and the opening of multiculturalism vis vis the canon wars This volume argues not only for the importance of 1980s American literature but also for its centrality in understanding trends and trajectories in all contemporary literature against the broader background of culture This volume serves as both an introduction and a deep consideration of the literary culture of our most maligned decade A Companion to Multiethnic Literature of the United States Gary Totten, 2023-12-27 Provides the most comprehensive collection of scholarship on the multiethnic literature of the United States A Companion to the Multiethnic Literature of the United States is the first in depth reference work dedicated to the histories genres themes cultural contexts and new directions of American literature by authors of varied ethnic backgrounds Engaging multiethnic literature as a distinct field of study this unprecedented volume brings together a wide range of critical and theoretical approaches to offer analyses of African American Latinx Native American Asian American Jewish American and Arab American literatures among others Chapters written by a diverse panel of leading contributors explore how multiethnic texts represent racial ethnic and other identities center the lives and work of the marginalized and oppressed facilitate empathy with the experiences of others challenge racism sexism homophobia and other hateful rhetoric and much more Informed by recent and leading edge methodologies within the field the Companion examines how theoretical approaches to multiethnic literature such as cultural studies queer studies ecocriticism diaspora studies and posthumanism inform literary scholarship pedagogy and curricula in the US and around the world Explores the national international and transnational contexts of US ethnic literature Addresses how technology and digital access to archival materials are impacting the study reception and writing of multiethnic literature Discusses how recent developments in critical theory impact the reading and interpretation of multiethnic US literature Highlights significant themes and major critical trends in genres including science fiction drama and performance literary nonfiction and poetry Includes coverage of multiethnic film history and culture as well as newer art forms such as graphic narrative and hip hop Considers various contexts in multiethnic literature such as politics and activism immigration and migration and gender and sexuality A Companion to the Multiethnic Literature of the United States is an invaluable resource for scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students and general readers studying all aspects of the subject Mothers, Mobility, Narrative Mary Jo Bona, 2025-05-01 Shows how US literary representations of mothering across racial ethnic and LGBTQ communities challenge ideological prescriptions about motherhood and maternal love Mothers Mobility Narrative pairs women identified writers whose work illuminates a range of maternal practices in the face of egregious structural inequalities and obstacles By using the critical lens of maternal feminism alongside recent theories of time space and memory Mary Jo Bona reengages the field of motherhood studies to explore linkages between motherhood and movement Across genres Harriet Jacobs Willa Cather Toni Morrison Audre Lorde Kym Ragusa Carole Maso Cristina Garcia and Rebecca Makkai develop maternal figures who in battling against institutional oppressions in eras of slavery colonialism dictatorship and pandemic expose the fundamentally intersectional nature of social categorization and disrupt traditional discourses of the maternal Mothers Mobility Narrative rethinks maternity across a century and a half of literary expression in the United States compelling readers to embrace more capacious understandings of maternal subjectivity care and kinship

The Routledge History of Italian Americans William Connell, Stanislao Pugliese, 2017-09-27 The Routledge History of Italian Americans weaves a narrative of the trials and triumphs of one of the nation's largest ethnic groups This history comprising original essays by leading scholars and critics addresses themes that include the Columbian legacy immigration the labor movement discrimination anarchism Fascism World War II patriotism assimilation gender identity and popular culture This landmark volume offers a clear and accessible overview of work in the growing academic field of Italian American Studies Rich illustrations bring the story to life drawing out the aspects of Italian American history and culture that make this ethnic group essential to the American experience The World of Jim Crow America Steven A. Reich, 2019-06-24 This two volume set is a thematically arranged encyclopedia covering the social political and material culture of America during the Jim Crow Era What was daily life really like for ordinary African American people in Jim Crow America the hundred year period of enforced legal segregation that began immediately after the Civil War and continued until the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Voting Rights Act of 1965 What did they eat wear believe and think How did they raise their children How did they interact with government What did they value What did they do for fun This Daily Life encyclopedia explores the lives of average people through the examination of social cultural and material history Supported by the most current research the multivolume set examines social history topics including family political religious and economic life as it illuminates elements of a society's emotional life interactions opinions views beliefs intimate relationships and connections between individuals and the greater world It is broken up into topical sections each dealing with a different aspect of cultural life Each section opens with an introductory essay followed by A Z entries on various aspects of that topic

Italian Americans on the Page Ryan Calabretta-Sajder, Alan J. Gravano, 2025-10-01 Approaches Italian American literature from new critical perspectives and explores contemporary and understudied voices from both the United States and Canada Italian Americans on the Page fills a significant gap in Italian American and Italian diaspora studies particularly literature as it explores four genres fiction poetry memoir and theater from a variety of critical perspectives The first section of the book offers reconsiderations of two canonical authors Helen Barolini and Don DeLillo while the other three sections bring new attention to understudied Italian American and Italian Canadian writers including women and LGBTQIA These include Mary Jo Salter Peter Covino Louise DeSalvo Karen Tintori Juliet Grames Ben Piazza Salvatore Antonio Christopher DiRaddo Michele Linfante Chris Cinque Theresa Carilli Mary Melfi and Michaela Di Cesare Each contribution approaches Italian American and Italian diaspora studies through a unique theoretical lens adding to the richness of what proceeds this publication in the field Ultimately the volume offers rereadings of foundational Italian American works and provides newfound attention to understudied and emerging Italian diasporic voices

La Mamma Penelope Morris, Perry Willson, 2018-06-07 The idea of the mamma italiana is one of the most widespread and recognizable stereotypes in perceptions of Italian national character both within and beyond Italy This figure makes frequent appearances in jokes and other forms of popular culture but it has also been seen as shaping the lived experience of modern day Italians of both sexes as well as influencing perceptions of Italy in the wider world This interdisciplinary collection examines the invented tradition of mammismo but also contextualizes it by discussing other often contrasting ways in which the role of mothers and the mother son relationship have been understood and represented in culture and society over the last century and a half both in Italy and in its diaspora
