Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke, 2008 This study consists of two parts. The first part offers an overview of feminism's theory of differences. The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa. Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts. The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come. Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism. This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism. Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism's different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems. The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women's experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice. This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic. It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World

Against Citizenship Amy L Brandzel,2016-04-15 Numerous activists and scholars have appealed for rights inclusion and justice in the name of citizenship Against Citizenship provocatively shows that there is nothing redeemable about citizenship nothing worth salvaging or sustaining in the name of community practice or belonging According to Brandzel citizenship is a violent dehumanizing mechanism that makes the comparative devaluing of human lives seem commonsensical logical and even necessary Against Citizenship argues that whenever we work on behalf of citizenship whenever we work toward including more types of peoples under its reign we inevitably reify the violence of citizenship against nonnormative others Brandzel s focus on three legal case studies same sex marriage law hate crime legislation and Native Hawaiian sovereignty and racialization exposes how citizenship confounds and obscures the mutual processes of settler colonialism racism sexism and heterosexism In this way Brandzel argues that citizenship requires anti intersectionality that is strategies that deny the mutuality and contingency of race class gender sexuality and nation and how oftentimes progressive left activists and scholars follow suit Against Citizenship is an impassioned plea for a queer decolonial anti racist coalitional stance against the systemized human de valuing and anti intersectionalities of citizenship
