Galatians Reconsidered Neil Martin, 2022-10-20 What would the world look like if the Old Perspective on Paul was right about justification the New Perspective was right about Judaism and the Radical New Perspective was right to note ongoing differences between Jewish and Gentile converts Galatians Reconsidered is a compelling practical study of Paul the Apostle's writing that explores just that Emphasising the central role played by regression in Paul's argument on justification Neil Martin examines the dichotomy between faith and works and how the apostle envisaged the differences in how Jews and Gentiles should interact with the Law By re-establishing Galatians in its original Jewish and pagan context Martin exposes the problems faced by Galatian churches and shows how they still speak to modern churches today His insight not only helps us better appreciate Paul's message but challenges us to put his wisdom into practice in our own church settings Provocative and stimulating Galatians Reconsidered is a robust new look at the question of justification It will leave you with a thorough knowledge of the merits and failings of both the old and new perspectives on Paul as well as a broader understanding of the letter to the Galatians both in the context in which it was written and its continued relevance today Woman's Evangelical Commentary: New Testament Dorothy Kelley Patterson, Rhonda Harrington Kelley, 2006-06 Written by women for women this New Testament commentary adheres to the complementarian view of the relationship between men and women helping readers see God's marvelous design and plan for all The Letter to the Galatians Ian Christopher Levy, 2011-03-16 This work on Galatians is the inaugural volume in a significant new commentary series The Bible in Medieval Tradition which seeks to reconnect today's Christians with part of the church's rich tradition of biblical interpretation Ian Christopher Levy has brought together six substantial commentaries on Galatians written between the ninth and the fourteenth centuries Levy's clear readable translations of these major texts previously unavailable in English are augmented by his in depth introduction which locates each author within the broad context of medieval scholarship Reading Galatians in First-Century Context Panayotis Coutsoumpos, 2019-06-18 The apostle Paul wrote the epistle to the Galatians By far Galatians is one of the most controversial letters among the Pauline writings Galatians appears to have been written in instantaneous response to what Paul observed as an urgent crisis among the Galatian churches For Galatians provides us with more personal and autobiographical information than any other letters of the apostle Paul When all the information and the teaching is integrated with the teaching of the letter itself it helps us to build up a strong picture of Paul the missionary and theologian and also allows us to situate the letter to Galatia itself within both his life and his theology To the Galatians however Paul had preached Christ crucified and response of faith had resulted in rich and powerful experience of the Spirit Paul's recollection also gives valuable information regarding those to whom the letter was addressed and about their admission into Christian faith

The Slave Metaphor and Gendered Enslavement in Early Christian Discourse Marianne Bjelland

Kartzow,2018-04-17 The Slave Metaphor and Gendered Enslavement in Early Christian Discourse adds new knowledge to the ongoing discussion of slavery in early Christian discourse Kartzow argues that the complex tension between metaphor and social reality in early Christian discourse is undertheorized A metaphor can be so much more than an innocent thought figure it involves bodies relationships life stories and memory in complex ways The slavery metaphor is troubling since it makes theology of a social institution that is profoundly troubling This study rethinks the potential meaning of the slavery metaphor in early Christian discourse by use of a variety of texts read with a whole set of theoretical tools taken from metaphor theory and intersectional gender studies in particular It also takes seriously the contemporary context of modern slavery where slavery has re appeared as a term to name trafficking gendered violence and inhuman power systems Old Covenant, New Covenant Jesse Acuff,2011-07 Who are we then to tell God that he cannot suspend or abolish laws that he has enacted previously Who are we to decide that we can tell God what laws are binding or not binding on us as Christians Who are we to say that law and grace must go hand in hand under the New Covenant and that we cannot commend ourselves to God unless we mix the two What sort of arrogance is it that says to God despite clear evidence to the contrary in scripture You cannot possibly have suspended the Old Covenant Law in order to bring in the New Covenant of grace So you want to be under the Law Do you think that the Law of Moses the Old Covenant should be binding for Christians today Do you believe that Christians should be slaves to the legalism fostered largely by Sabbatarians and observe the festivals new moons kosher food laws sabbaths and tithing outlined in Leviticus and Deuteronomy If you want to discover the truth read Old Covenant New Covenant The Case Against Legalism Author Jesse Acuff shows that the Old Covenant rules and regulations were only shadows of the good things to come which pointed to Christ and his redeeming grace He further demonstrates that Christ abrogated the Old Covenant by his death on the cross and instituted a new and better covenant Join Jesse as he demonstrates beyond doubt that it makes far more sense to accept the New Covenant teachings originally delivered by Jesus and the Apostles than adhering to the rules and regulations of the Old Covenant which places one in bondage and does nothing toward attaining salvation After reading Old Covenant New Covenant The Case Against Legalism you will never again come down on the side of legalism
