Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1919

International Differences in the Business Practices and Productivity of Firms Richard B. Freeman, Kathryn L. Shaw, 2009-10-15 In recent years globalization and the expansion of information technologies have reshaped managerial practices forcing multinational firms to adjust business practices to different environments and domestic companies to adjust to their foreign competitors In International Differences in the Business Practices and Productivity of Firms a distinguished group of contributors examines the phenomenon of widespread differences in managerial practices across firms establishments within firms and countries This volume brings together eight studies that combine qualitative and quantitative insider analysis of business practices such as the use of teams incentive pay lean manufacturing and quality control revealing the elements that determine which practices are adopted and why International Differences in the Business Practices and Productivity of Firms offers a much needed model for measuring the productivity and performance of international firms in a fast paced global economy Statistical Reference Index ,1986 CIS Four-year Cumulative Index ,1983 Working Mother ,1995-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

Work Related Abstracts ,1985 Working Mother ,1993-09 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Applied Science & Technology Index ,1985 Companies, International Trade and Human Rights Janet Dine, 2005-02-24 Originally published in 2005 this book focuses on the role of corporations within the trading system and the complex relationships between corporations nation states and international organisations The actions and motives that drive corporations are considered as well as the structure of the international trading system Remedial devices such as Codes of Conduct and Human Rights instruments are assessed for effectiveness The book seeks reasons for what is a growing understanding that international trading regimes are not meeting objectives found in many international agreements including both the international trade agreements themselves WTO GATT TRIPS etc and human rights instruments In particular it is clear that the prevalence and severity of poverty is not being adequately addressed This work sets out to investigate the role played by companies in this failure in the globalisation of trade to realise its aims in particular the failure to achieve the minimum of basic rights the right to food Working Mother ,1993-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives
