Vrouwen In De Nederlandse Kolonien:

Vrouwen in de Nederlandse koloniën Jeske Reijs, 1986 Acht artikelen over de positie van vrouwen in de voormalige Nederlandse koloniën Nederlands Indië en Suriname vanaf de 17e eeuw Women and the Colonial State Elsbeth Locher-Scholten, 2000 Woman and the Colonial State deals with the ambiguous relationship between women of both the European and the Indonesian population and the colonial state in the former Netherlands Indies in the first half of the twentieth century Based on new data from a variety of sources colonial archives journals household manuals children's literature and press surveys it analyses the women state relationship by presenting five empirical studies on subjects in which women figured prominently at the time Indonesian labour Indonesian servants in colonial homes Dutch colonial fashion and food the feminist struggle for the vote and the intense debate about monogamy of and by women at the end of the 1930s An introductory essay combines the outcomes of the case studies and relates those to debates about Orientalism the construction of whiteness and to questions of modernity and the colonial state formation The Subaltern Indian Woman Prem Misir, 2017-11-16 This book focuses on subjugated indentured Indian women who are constantly faced with race gender caste and class oppression and inequality on overseas European owned plantations but who are also armed with latent links to the women's abolition movements in the homeland Also examining their post indenture life it employs a paradigm of male dominated Indian women in India at the margins of an enduringly patriarchal society a persisting backdrop to the huge 19th century post slavery movement of the agricultural indentured workforce drawn largely from India This book depicts the antithetical and contradictory explanations for the indentured Indian women's cries degradation and dehumanization and how the politics of change and control impacted their social organization and its legacy The book owes its origins to the 2017 centennial commemorative event celebrating 100 years of the abolition of the indenture system of Indian labor that victimized and dehumanized Indians from 1834 through 1917 , Women, Gender and the Legacy of Slavery and Indenture Farzana Gounder, Kalpana Hiralal, Amba Pande, Maurits S. Hassankhan, 2020-11-01 The age of imperialism ushered in a new phenomenon of large scale organized migration of labourers through the systems of slavery and indenture which were devised to feed the colonial political economy Another feature of such migrations was that it led to the permanent settlement of the uprooted African and Asian labourers in the new lands These developments in the long run intertwined the histories of the ruler and the ruled the so called civilized and the uncivilized along with the people from various continents thus giving rise to plural societies The narratives however remained dominated by the colonial legacies and frames of reference Today such historical colonial narratives are being challenged and clarified through multi disciplinary academic engagements The authors in this volume take gender as a prominent analytical category and raise new questions and understandings in the way we conceptualize document and write about gendered migrations in the diaspora Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Generations Richard Marback, 2015-02-16 Teachers and students of citizenship studies cultural studies gerontology sociology and political science will enjoy this thought provoking look at age aging and generational differences in relation to the concept and experience of citizenship Sexing the Caribbean Kamala Kempadoo, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Sugarlandia Revisited Ulbe Bosma, Juan A. Giusti-Cordero, G. Roger Knight, 2007-10-01 Sugar was the single most valuable bulk commodity traded internationally before oil became the world's prime resource From the sixteenth to the eighteenth century cane sugar production was pre eminent in the Atlantic Islands the Caribbean and Brazil Subsequently cane sugar industries in the Americas were transformed by a fusion of new and old forces of production as the international sugar economy incorporated production areas in Asia the Pacific and Africa Sugar's global economic importance and its intimate relationship with colonialism offer an important context for probing the nature of colonial societies This book questions some major assumptions about the nexus between sugar production and colonial societies in the Caribbean and Southeast Asia especially in the second post 1800 colonial era

Indonesian Women in Focus E.B. Locher-Scholten, A. Niehof, 2022-07-18 This volume contains a selection from the papers presented at an interdisciplinary symposium on Images and ideas concerning women and the feminine in the Indonesian archipelago organized in 1984 by the Werkgroep Indonesische Vrouwenstudies WIVS a Dutch interdisciplinary study group on Indonesian women In the present volume now in its second printing notions about women in Indonesia in past and present are treated in relation to their actual positions The articles deal with cultural definitions of sex roles and their social implications and thus link up with the current academic interest in gender studies The contributions occupy varying positions on an imaginary scale ranging from an approach primarily concerned with underlying cultural principles to one focused on the social context Some show a clearly culturalist approach dealing with female symbols in Balinese offerings female figures in Indonesian agricultural myths and Tolaki views on procreation and production The contributions on the images of women in Indonesian literature views on the prostitute in colonial society and the position of women in marriage in Madura and the Minahasa more or less take an intermediate position The sociological approach may be found in the contributions on the life of the educational pioneer Rahmah EI Yunusiya on Indonesian Chinese women on priyayi women at the Central Javanese courts and in modern Jakarta and on women's labor in pre war and present day Java Recurring themes such as sexual dualism ibuisim and the questions of female power and authority create unity in the diversity of regions and topics represented Fantasizing the Feminine in Indonesia Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Presenting dialogues between prominent scholars of and from Indonesia and Indonesian women working in professional activist religious and literary domains the book dissolves essentialist notions of women and Indonesia that have arisen out of the tensions of empire The Early Stages of Creolization Jacques Arends, 1996-01-01 This volume brings together a number of studies on the early stages of creolization which are entirely based on historical data The recent re discovery of early documents written in creole languages such as Negerhollands Bajan and Sranan allows for a detailed and empirically founded reconstruction of creolization as an historical linguistic process In addition demographic and socio historical evidence on some of the relevant former colonies such as Surinam Haiti and Martinique sheds new light on some crucial sociolinguistic aspects of creolization such as the rate of nativization of the creole speaking population Both types of evidence relate to essential questions in the theory of creolization such as Is creolization a matter of first or second language acquisition What are the respective roles of substrate superstrate and universal grammar in creole genesis And what if any are the differences between creole development and normal language change The subjects discussed in this volume include a comparative study of the historical development of seven pidgins and creoles Baker reflexives in 18th century Negerhollands Van der Voort the emergence of taki as a complementizer in Sranan Plag the historical development of relativization in Sranan Bruyn the cultural and demographic background of creolization in Haiti and Martinique Singler the creole nature of early Bajan Field a linguistic analysis of the so called slave letters in Negerhollands Stein and demographic factors in the formation of Sranan Arends

Gothic kinship Agnes Andeweg, Sue Zlosnik, 2015-11-01 Although the preoccupation of Gothic storytelling with the family has often been observed it invites a more systematic exploration Gothic kinship brings together case studies of Gothic kinship ties in film and literature and offers a synthesis and theorisation of the different appearances of the Gothic family Writers discussed include early British Gothic writers such as Eleanor Sleath and Louisa Sidney Stanhope as well as a range of later authors writing in English including Elizabeth Gaskell William March Stephen King Poppy Z Brite Patricia Duncker J K Rowling and Audrey Niffenegger There are also essays on Dutch authors Louis Couperus and Renate Dorrestein and on the film directors Wes Craven and Steven Sheil Arranged chronologically the various contributions show that both early and contemporary Gothic display very diverse kinship ties ranging from metaphorical to triangular from queer to nuclear patriarchal Gothic proves to be a rich source of expressing both subversive and conservative notions of the family Gothic kinship will be of interest to academics and students of European and American Gothic in literature and film gender studies and cultural studies

Carnal Knowledge and Imperial Power Ann Laura Stoler, 2002 Looking at the way cultural competencies and sensibilities entered into the construction of race in the colonial context this text proposes that cultural racism in fact predates its postmodern discovery

General History of the Caribbean Higman, B.W., UNESCO, 1985-06-21 This volume looks at the ways historians have written the history of the region depending upon their methods of interpretation and differing styles of communicating their findings The chapters discussing methodology are followed by studies of particular themes of historiography The second half of the volume describes the writing of history in the individual territories taking into account changes in society economy and political structure The final section is a full and detailed bibliography serving not only as a guide to the volume but also as an invaluable reference for the General History of the Caribbean as a whole

Genealogies of Emotions, Intimacies, and Desire Ann Brooks, 2016-10-04 Genealogies of Emotions Intimacies and Desire excavates epistemologies which attempt to explain changes in emotional regimes from medieval society to late modernity Key in this debate is the concept of intimacy The book shows that different historical periods are characterized by emotional regimes where intimacy in the form of desire sex passion and sex largely exist outside marriage and that marriage and traditional normative values and structures are fundamentally incompatible with the expression of intimacy in the history of emotional regimes The book draws on the work of a number of theorists who assess change in emotional regimes by drawing on intimacy including Michel Foucault Eva Illouz Lauren Berlant Anthony Giddens Laura Ann Stoler Anne McClintock Niklas Luhmann and David Shumway Some of the areas covered by the book include Foucault sex and sexuality romantic and courtly love intimacy in late modernity Imperial power gender and intimacy intimacy and feminist interventions and the commercialization of intimacy This book will appeal to students and scholars in the social sciences and humanities including sociology gender studies cultural studies and literary studies

Politics and Kinship Erdmute Alber,Tatjana Thelen,2021-12-15 Politics and Kinship A Reader offers a unique overview of the entanglement of these two categories in both theoretical debates and everyday practices The two despite many challenges are often thought to have become separated during the process of modernisation Tracing how this notion of separation becomes idealised and translated into various contexts this book sheds light on its epistemological limitations Combining otherwise distinct lines of discussion within political anthropology and kinship studies the selection of texts covers a broad range of intersecting topics that range from military strategy DNA testing and child fostering to practices of kinning the state Beginning with the study of politics the first part of this volume looks at how its separation from kinship came to be considered a modern phenomenon with significant consequences The second part starts from kinship showing how it was made into a separate and apolitical field an idea that would soon travel and be translated globally into policies The third part turns to reproductions through various transmissions and future making projects Overall the volume offers a fundamental critique of the epistemological separation of politics and kinship and its shortcomings for teaching and research Featuring contributions from a broad range of regional temporal and theoretical backgrounds it allows for critical engagement with knowledge production about the entanglement of politics and kinship The different traditions and contemporary approaches represented make this book an essential resource for researchers instructors and students of anthropology

The Routledge Handbook to the History and Society of the Americas Olaf Kaltmeier,Josef Raab,Mike Foley,Alice Nash,Stefan Rinke,Mario Rufer,2019-04-12 The colonial heritage and its renewed aftermaths expressed in the inter American experiences of slavery indigeneity dependence and freedom movements to mention only a few aspects form a common ground of experience in the Western Hemisphere The flow of peoples goods knowledge and finances have promoted interdependence and integration that cut across borders and link the countries of North and South America together The nature of this transversally related and multiply interconnected region can only be captured through a transnational multidisciplinary and comprehensive approach The Routledge Handbook to the History and Society of the Americas explores the history and society of the Americas placing particular emphasis on collective and intertwined experiences Forty four chapters cover a range of concepts and dynamics in the Americas from the colonial period until the present century The shared histories and dynamics of Inter American relationships are considered through pre Hispanic empires colonization European hegemony migration multiculturalism and political and economic interdependences Key concepts are selected and explored from different geopolitical disciplinary and epistemological perspectives Highlighting the contested character of key concepts that are usually defined in strict disciplinary terms the Handbook provides the basis for a better and deeper understanding of inter American entanglements This multidisciplinary approach will be of interest to a broad array of academic scholars and students in history sociology political science cultural postcolonial gender literary and globalization studies

Historical Dictionary of Indonesia Audrey Kahin, 2015-10-29 A wide flung archipelago lying between the Pacific and Indian Oceans Indonesia is the world's most populous Islamic country For over two thousand years it was a crossroads on the major trading route between China and India but it was not brought together into a single entity until the Dutch extended their rule throughout the Netherlands East Indies in the early part of the 20th century Declaring its independence from the Dutch in 1945 the Republic of Indonesia was ruled by only two regimes over the next half century Throughout the years the country has continued to be dogged by an inefficient bureaucracy and by perpetual problems of corruption However since 2004 Indonesia has successfully carried out four direct elections for president together with an equal number of elections for legislative bodies at all levels of government and has finally in 2014 elected a president with no ties to either the military or to the previous authoritarian power structure This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Indonesia contains a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 900 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Indonesia

Wives, Slaves, and Concubines Eric Jones, 2011-12-15 Wives Slaves and Concubines argues that Dutch colonial practices and law created a new set of social and economic divisions in Batavia Jakarta modern day Indonesia to deal with difficult realities in Southeast Asia Jones uses compelling stories from ordinary Asian women to explore the profound structural changes occurring at the end of the early colonial period changes that helped birth the modern world order Based on previously untapped criminal proceedings and testimonies by women who appeared before the Dutch East India Company's Court of Alderman this fascinating study details the ways in which demographic and economic realities transformed the social and legal landscape of eighteenth century Batavia Jakarta Southeast Asian women played an inordinately important role in the functioning of the early modern Asia Trade and in the short and long term operations of the Dutch East India Company VOC Southeast Asia was a place where most individuals operated within an intricate web of multiple fluid situational and reciprocal social relationships ranging from dependence to bondedness to slavery The eighteenth century represents an important turning point the relatively open and autonomous Asia Trade that prompted Columbus to set sail had begun to give way to an age of high imperialism and European economic hegemony How did these changes affect life for ordinary women in early modern Dutch Asia and how did the transformations wrought by Dutch colonialism alter their lives The VOC created a legal division that favored members of mixed VOC families those in which Asian women married men employed by the VOC Thus employment not race became the path to legal preference a factor that disadvantaged the rest of the Asian women In short colonialism created a new underclass in Asia one that had a particularly female cast By the latter half of the eighteenth century an increasingly operational dichotomy of slave and free supplanted an otherwise fluid system of reciprocal bondedness The inherent divisions of this new system engendered social friction especially as the emergent early modern economic order demanded new tractable forms of labor Dutch domestic law gave power to female elites in Dutch Asia but it left the majority of women vulnerable to the more privileged on both sides of this legal divide Slaves fled and violence erupted when traditional expectations of social mobility collided with new demands from the masters and the state

Understanding Everyday Racism Philomena Essed, 1991-07-25 While there are many studies of racism and racial inequality at the macro level of analysis there has been little work done on the experience of everyday racism for black people Philomena Essed's brilliant work fills this gap The book compares contemporary racism in the US and the Netherlands
