Women Of The Kakawin World Women Of The Kakawin World:

Women of the Kakawin World Helen Creese, 2015-01-28 In this fascinating study the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets For more than a millennium the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived Major themes in this poetry form include war love and marriage It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia Still being produced in Bali today kakawin remain of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women For over a thousand years these royal courts were major patrons of the arts The court sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its earliest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or bela self immolation of widows

Women from Traditional Islamic Educational Institutions in Indonesia Eka Srimulyani, 2012 Dit is de eerste Engelstalige publicatie over vrouwen in traditionele islamitische onderwijsinstellingen in Indonesië de zogenaamde pesantren Deze vrouwen spelen een belangrijke rol de genderproblematiek in de Indonesische moslimgemeenschap Deze informatieve en inzichtelijke studie dient twee groeiende onderzoeksgebieden in de studies over Indonesië de studie naar de islam en de studie naar moslimvrouwen Tevens voegt het een nieuw perspectief toe aan de bestaande Engelstalige literatuur over moslima's buiten de huidige dominante context van het Midden Oosten of Sub Indische continent Bujangga Manik Alexander

Joseph West, 2025-05-26 Bujangga Manik is a narrative poem in Old Sundanese which opens a window onto the world of late 15th century maritime Southeast Asia The poem describes the spiritual development of a young man from Paka cilan in what is now West Java as he walks and sails across and around Java and Bali culminating with his death in a mountainside hermitage and ascension to heaven This volume is an exemplary edition of Bujangga Manik complete with a revised transliteration a new English translation detailed descriptions of the manuscript script and language and an extensive commentary on the poem's contents from its setting and characters to its descriptions of ocean going ships houses furniture perfumes and much else

Gender in Southeast Asia Mina Roces, 2022-04-14 This Element examines gender in Southeast Asia by focusing on two main themes The first concerns hegemonic cultural constructions of gender and Southeast Asian subjects responses to these dominant discourses Roces introduces hegemonic discourses on ideal masculinities and ideal femininities evaluates the impact of religion analyses how authoritarian regimes fashion these ideals Discussion then turns to the hegemonic ideals surrounding desire and sexualities and the way these are policed by society and the state The second theme concerns the ways hegemonic ideals influence the gendering of power and politics Roces argues that because many Southeast Asians see power as being held by kinship alliance groups women are able to access political power through their ties with men as wives mothers daughters sisters and even mistresses However women s movements have challenged this androcentric division of power

Arjunawiwāha Stuart Robson,2008-01-01 The Arjunawiwāha is one of the best known of the Old Javanese classics This volume presents a new text based on Balinese manuscripts with a complete translation building on the work done by earlier writers An introduction provides ample background information as well as an original interpretation of the significance of the text within its historical and cultural setting This poem was written by Mpu Kanwa in around A D 1030 under King Airlangga who ruled in East Java It is Mpu Kanwa s only known work and is the second oldest example in the genre of kakawin The poem is a narrative but also contains passages of description philosophical or religious teaching of great interest as well as remarkable erotic scenes Parts of the tale have been depicted on early temple reliefs and in paintings and the text is still recited in Bali by literary clubs and in temple ceremonies

Triguna Made Mantle Hood,2010 This book combines ethnography philosophy and musical analysis for an in depth look into the social context and musical praxis of gamelan gong gede the largest gamelan orchestra of bronze gongs and percussion on the island of Bali The Hindu Balinese notion of three human qualities called triguna serves as an interpretive framework for categorizing the musical repertoire according to both widespread religious knowledge and more esoteric wisdom Series KlangKulturStudien SoundCultureStudies Vol 2

Proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Humanities and Social Science (ICHSS 2024) Evania Yafie,Primasa Minerva Nagari,Sri Handayani,Sinta Yuni Susilawati,Andy Prasetyo Wati,Cinde Ririh Windayu,Riskiyana Prihatiningsih,2025-01-20 This is an open access book This conference endeavours to engage with the dynamics of marginalisation processes and their implications for diverse marginalized groups within the complex socio cultural historical and political landscape of Southeast Asia Utilizing a multidisciplinary approach this research encompasses insights from sociology anthropology political science and economics to unravel the layered dynamics of exclusion and the myriad factors contributing to the marginalization of specific communities in the region A critical aspect of this meeting is the exploration of historical legacies examining how the colonial past has influenced contemporary patterns of marginalization The research delves into the socio economic disparities cultural diversity and political structures that underpin the marginalization of certain groups By adopting an intersectional lens the study scrutinizes the interplay of factors such as ethnicity gender religion and socio economic status recognizing the interconnectedness of these dimensions in shaping the experiences of marginalization Furthermore it also examines the repercussions of marginalization on affected communities analyzing the barriers they encounter in accessing fundamental rights such as education healthcare employment and political participation Special attention is given to the resilience and resistance strategies employed by marginalized groups illustrating their agency in navigating and challenging systemic exclusion The conference hopefully incorporates in depth case studies from various countries within Southeast Asia to capture the regional nuances of marginalization processes By adopting a comparative approach the research identifies both commonalities and unique challenges faced by marginalized groups across national borders contributing to a nuanced understanding of regional dynamics This conference not only documents and analyzes the complexities of marginalization within Southeast Asia but also strives to provide actionable insights By shedding light on the challenges faced by marginalized groups the research aims to inform policy interventions and social initiatives that can address and mitigate the adverse effects of systemic exclusion Through this lens the study contributes to ongoing discussions on social justice equity and inclusive development in the Southeast Asian context fostering a deeper understanding of these issues for the benefit of both academic discourse and practical implementation

Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen M. Creese, 2016-05-30 In Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen Creese examines the nature of the earliest sustained cross cultural encounter between the Balinese and the Dutch through the eyewitness accounts of Pierre Dubois the first colonial official to live in Bali From 1828 to 1831 Dubois served as Civil Administrator to the Badung court in southern Bali He later recorded his Balinese experiences for the Batavian Society of Arts and Sciences in a series of personal letters to an anonymous correspondent This first ethnography of Bali provides rich perceptive descriptions of early nineteenth century Balinese politics society religion and culture The book includes a complete edition and translation of Dubois L'ge Id e de Balie en 1830 Sketch of Bali in 1830

Kidung Pañji Margasmara, 2023-01-30 Javanese a major language of Southeast Asia possesses a little known literature occurring in various phases Old Middle and Modern This publication presents a remarkable example from the poetical literature of Middle Javanese in an edited text with English translation and an extensive commentary The aim is to acquaint a wider audience with this literature in the hope of drawing attention to its fascinating qualities Set principally in the Singhasari area of East Java the narrative follows the journey of the lovers Pa ji Margasmara and Ken Candrasari offering a glimpse of the beauty of the Javanese landscape in the 15th century The cultural historical and archaeological details preserved in the text help to shed light on the closing years of Majapahit a largely unexplored period in Javanese history before the age of Islam

The Flaming Womb Barbara Watson Andaya, 2006-07-31 The Princess of the Flaming Womb the Javanese legend that introduces this pioneering study symbolizes the many ambiguities attached to femaleness in Southeast Asian societies Yet despite these ambiguities the relatively egalitarian nature of male female relations in Southeast Asia is central to arguments claiming a coherent identity for the region This challenging work by senior scholar Barbara Watson Andaya considers such contradictions while offering a thought provoking view of Southeast Asian history that focuses on women s roles and perceptions Andaya explores the broad themes of the early modern era 1500 1800 the introduction of new religions major economic shifts changing patterns of state control the impact of elite lifestyles and behaviors drawing on an extraordinary range of sources and citing numerous examples from Thai Vietnamese Burmese Philippine and Malay societies In the process she provides a timely and innovative model for putting women back into world history Andaya approaches the problematic issue of Southeast Asia by considering ways in which topography helped describe a geo cultural zone and contributed to regional distinctiveness in gender construction She examines the degree to which world religions have been instrumental in re constructing conceptions of gender an issue especially pertinent to Southeast Asian societies because of the leading role so often played by women in indigenous ritual She also considers the effects of the expansion of long distance trade the incorporation of the region into a global trading network the beginnings of cash cropping and wage labor and the increase in slavery on the position of women Erudite nuanced and accessible The Flaming Womb makes a major contribution to a Southeast Asia history that is both regional and global in content and perspective
