Women Leading Education Across the Continents Helen C. Sobehart, 2009-01-16 Women Leading Education across the Continents is the first collection of research about and stories of women in basic and higher education leadership from every region of the globe The chapters are authored by scholars representing every continent including a keynote from the first all female team to traverse Antarctica The book captures not only statistical data about the position of women in basic and higher education in over 17 countries but relates compelling insights and stories about the challenges that women face in leadership the limited access to education by young women and some strategies for success that have fanned a flame to light the way for both women and men to follow toward equity and social justice

Women Leading School Systems C. Cryss Brunner, Margaret Grogan, 2007 Most published research on the superintendency has failed to examine the voices of female superintendents Today white males make up approximately 85% of superintendents rendering female responses to the superintendency almost nonexistent Women Leading School Systems commissioned by the American Association of School Administrators AASA provides a historical overview of women in top leadership positions This study examines what drives some female educators to accept the challenge of becoming a superintendent and what drives others to remain in middle management The authors also profile a number of women who spend their lives at the top of the school system This comprehensive book is the only national study entirely dedicated to women s leadership

Women Leading Education across the Continents Elizabeth C. Reilly, Quirin J. Bauer, 2015-04-08 Women Leading Education Across the Continents Overcoming the Barriers is the third collection of research about and stories of women leading education on every continent in the world Internationally recognized scholars and practitioners offer a research based conversation and systematic collaborative inquiry in exploring the status of women in educational leadership Their work invites global policy development highlighting women s educational leadership as a critical social justice issue The array of topics this volume includes are gender status and educational leadership challenges and barriers for women leaders confronting the barriers leading in challenging contexts and deconstructing the discourse on gendered leadership This compelling book offers food for the intellect and rage for the belly that impels forward the moral imperative of women leading education internationally

Women Leading Education Across the Continents Rachel McNae, Elizabeth C. Reilly, 2018-09-12 Women Leading Education Across the Continents Harnessing the Joy in Leadership is the fifth collection of research from scholars around the globe who seek to understand the successes challenges and progress of girls and women leading in education Using a variety of approaches to their inquiries the scholars and practitioners in this book discover and document the work of women leaders throughout the world seeking to understand in more nuanced ways how to chart a path for a more just society for all This volume explores the status of women in educational leadership internationally the factors that affect their leadership their personal experiences and stories and their work within the broader context of human rights The journey of discovery in these pages invites titiro whakamua looking toward a world for the good of all people

JSL Vol 22-N4 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,2012-09-25 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement

Women Interrupting, Disrupting, and Revolutionizing Educational Policy and Practice Whitney Sherman Newcomb,Katherine Cumings Mansfield,2014-06-01 The idea for this book was born from discussions at several recent academic events including the Women Leading Education WLE International Conference in Volos Greece 2012 and the University Council for Educational Administration UCEA Conference in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania 2011 as well as from informal dialogue amongst ourselves and various colleagues both new and veteran to the field of educational leadership and in particular dedicated to the study of women in leadership At both the WLE Conference and the UCEA Conference we heard frustration from veteran women in the field that the study of women in leadership is stagnant and has not moved forward in several years with scholars new to the field continuing to write and publish work about barriers to aspiring and practicing women leaders the same types of reports that began the formal inquiry into women's lives as leaders back in the 1980s without being able to push forward with new information or ideas for change In essence the concerns and questions that were posed from some veteran women were Why are we continuing to report the same things that we reported 30 years ago Why are we still talking about barriers to women in leadership and Why haven't we moved past gender binaries in regard to leadership ideas and practice Considering these questions some women new to the field countered with their own set of responses and questions that included Is it not significant to report that some women are still experiencing the same types of barriers in leadership that were highlighted 30 years ago Is it accurate to report that all women's voices have now been heard represented and How can we report something different if it hasn't happened The discussions that have ensued between veteran women and those new to the field inspired us to develop a book that situates women in leadership exactly where we are today and reports the status of girls who are positioned to continue the good fight that began many years ago and that both highlights the changes that have occurred and reports any stagnancy that continues to threaten women's positionality in educational leadership literature practice and policy It forefronts the voices of women educational scholars who have and are interrupting disrupting and revolutionizing educational policy and practice Our book reports women's leadership activities and knowledge in both the K-12 and university settings and concludes with chapters ripe with ideas for pushing for change through policy advocacy and activism The final chapter presents themes that emerged from the individual chapters and sets forth an agenda to move forward with the study of women in leadership
