 unpredictable hard or just plain ordinary We live in an instant gratification world where results are quickly measured and

 What will it take to accomplish Christ's mission in our lifetime That's the question evangelicals have been asking for over a century but our efforts to reach the unreached and finish the task have often sacrificed the important for the immediate The greatest challenge in evangelical missions isn't a lack of urgency but a lack of discernment As we've prioritized movements that are simple and reproducible the gospel and faithful churches are now threatened Our mission itself could be disqualified In Mission Affirmed Elliot Clark seeks to reshape our motivation by considering the example of Paul the missionary The desire for God's approval is what formed his ambition and directed his methods and it should guide ours too In these pages we rediscover how pursuing God's praise can both motivate and regulate our gospel ministries We also refocus as missionaries pastors churches and individuals on what matters more than a mission accomplished a mission God affirms

 Leaders Helps churches vet and send missionaries First Hand Ministry Insights Provides a practical solution for common
