The Theosophical Society The History Of A Spiritualist Movement:

The Theosophical Society Jeffrey D. Lavoie, 2012 This peer reviewed study represents a culmination of years of research into the history of the Theosophical Society In this unique project which combines biographies with source analyses Jeffrey D Lavoie records a detailed history of the early Theosophical Society and examines its relationship with the modern Spiritualist movement between the years 1875 1891 Special attention has been paid to some of the neglected figures associated with these organizations including Arthur Lillie the Gnostic occultist and early critic of the Theosophical Society the Davenport Brothers the Spiritualist mediums who developed many of the standard elements which became associated with modern Spiritualism Alfred Wallace the prominent scientist Spiritualist and supposed member of the Theosophical Society and many others This work will appeal to a wide array of readers including those interested in modern religious movements Western Esotericism South Asian history and Victorian studies Spiritualism, Madame Blavatsky and Theosophy Rudolf

Steiner, 2002-11 This work builds on the foundation of the Popol Vuh the document that retraces in mythical language the four ages or stages of civilization that all of America has undergone to some degree It also moves from the Popol Vuh into later times through myths and legends of the Aztec and Iroquois Myth and history are placed side by side in a scientific and imaginative approach that documents the correlation between pre historical and historical periods and the spiritual events that ushered them in as narrated in the myths and legends of North America This approach reconciles Western analytical consciousness with the Native American language of myths and legends All of this is placed first in the perspective of Maya spiritual tradition and then from the perspective that the twentieth century research of Rudolf Steiner brought to light especially in relation to the events that took place in Central America two thousand years ago about which only Rudolf Steiner has spoken The first part of the work explores events of 2 000 years ago and their consequences in the onset of Maya civilization The second part researches the rise of new spiritual influences around the time just before the arrival of Columbus in America At the extremes of the spectrum we find Aztec and Iroquois worldviews Both cosmologies have links subtle or obvious with the Popol Vuh whether continuing or reinterpreting its original message This polarity carries momentous consequences for global social trends in modern world history Spiritual Turning Points of North American History brings a fresh perspective to North American history and the meeting of European and First Nations worldviews

Chajes, 2019-01-02 A sizeable minority of people with no particular connection to Eastern religions now believe in reincarnation The rise in popularity of this belief over the last century and a half is directly traceable to the impact of the nineteenth century's largest and most influential Western esoteric movement the Theosophical Society In Recycled Lives Julie Chajes looks at the rebirth doctrines of the matriarch of Theosophy the controversial occultist Helena Petrovna Blavatsky 1831 1891 Examining her teachings in detail Chajes places them in the context of multiple dimensions of nineteenth century intellectual and cultural life In particular she explores Blavatsky's readings and misreadings of Spiritualist currents scientific theories Platonism and Hindu and Buddhist thought These in turn are set in relief against broader nineteenth century American and European trends The chapters come together to reveal the contours of a modern perspective on reincarnation that is inseparable from the nineteenth century discourses within which it emerged and which has shaped how people in the West tend to view reincarnation today

Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses Rudolf Steiner, 2016-06-01 13 slide presentations Dornach Oct 8 1916 Oct 29 1917 CW 292 I am going to show you a series of reproductions of slides from a period in art history to which the human mind will probably always return to contemplate and consider for if we consider history as a reflection of inner spiritual impulses it is precisely in this evolutionary moment that we see certain human circumstances ones that are among the deepest and most decisive for the outer course of human history expressed through a relationship to art Rudolf Steiner Rudolf Steiner understood that the history of art is a field in which the evolution of consciousness is symptomatically and transparently revealed This informal sequence of thirteen lectures was given during the darkest hours of World War I It was a moment when the negative consequences of what he called the age of the consciousness soul which began around 1417 were made most terribly apparent In these lectures he sought to provide an antidote to pessimism After describing the movement of consciousness from Greece into Rome coupled with influences from the Orthodox East he showed how these influences transformed as the Middle Ages became the Renaissance The process that begins with Cimabue and Giotto develops deepens and becomes more conscious in the great Renaissance masters Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael Then this movement continues with the Northern masters Durer and Holbein as well as the German tradition One entire lecture is devoted to Rembrandt followed by one on Dutch and Flemish paintings Themes are woven together to show how past epochs of consciousness and art live again in our consciousness soul period Replete with interesting information and more than 600 color and black and white images these lectures are rich and dense with ideas enabling us to understand both the art of the Renaissance and the transformation of consciousness it announced These lectures demonstrate to paraphrase Shelley that artists truly are the unacknowledged legislators of the age Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses is a translation from German of Kunstgeschichte als Abbild innerer geistiger Impulse GA 292 Rudolf Steiner Verlag 2000

difficulties faced by emergent religious communities The Human Being as Spiritual Being Evolving through the Course of History Rudolf Steiner,2025-05-19 If we lived only in worlds of spirit as we do between death and a new birth we would never be able to acquire freedom there It is something we can only achieve by our efforts within the physical world Rudolf Steiner Rudolf Steiner s lucid account of our current phase of evolution focuses on the threefold human being and the significance of incarnation on Earth In a nuanced presentation he supports the modern scientific outlook but highlights the urgent need to broaden it emphasizing the importance of balance in thinking feeling and will Withdrawing into abstract intellectualism while letting feeling and will run amok leads to unconscious egotism and ultimately the War of All Against All In place of nebulous mysticism or narrow materialism Steiner calls on us to bring our thoughts feelings and actions under conscious self control so that for our benefit and society as a whole we can live our lives with clarity far sightedness and purpose Intrinsic to this reassessment of ourselves and our place in the universe is a recognition of death as a gateway to continuing existence Only by acknowledging our journey into the afterlife and our return to earth reincarnation will we take charge of a truly human evolution This previously unpublished course of lectures released in tandem with the twin course in CW 205 features an introduction by Matthew Barton notes and an index Eleven lectures Dornach July Aug 1921 GA 206
