Standards for Islamic Financial Institutions* Mohd Ma'Sum Billah, 2021-11-29 While accounting and audit functions are significantly regulated and standardized in conventional financial industries and activities through the implementation of International Accounting Standards and International Financial Reporting Standards as well as other international regional and local regulations this is not the case for Islamic financial organizations Rather than having their own set of comprehensive accounting or auditing standards or policies these are based in some cases on the Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions AAIOFI the Islamic Financial Services Board IFSB s standards and Shari ah based local policies This book is a timely and comprehensive overview of accounting and auditing standards within the doctrine of Shari ah It offers a significant contribution to the field and a wealth of technical know how It analyzes Islamic accounting and auditing both in theory and practice and from a distinctly international perspective The chapters are arranged in a systematic and logical way making it easily accessible and engaging The book evaluates the existing standards and widens the scope of the discourse to include Maqasid al Shari ah Islamic accounting and audit models and standards as well as offering practical policy recommendations The author presents a Shari ah justified solution to Islamic Accounting and Audit and offers guidance on overcoming the challenges to implementing Islamic Accounting and Auditing Standards The book is a unique and exhaustive guide and as such will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers students and Citizenship Ann Marie Mealey, Pam Jarvis, Jonathan Doherty, Jan Fook, 2017-10-20 Social justice is a concept which is widely touted and lauded as desirable yet its meaning may differ depending on whether its focus is on the underlying values of social justice the more specific objectives these entail or the actual practices or policies which aim to achieve social justice In the current global political context we need to re examine what we mean by social justice and demonstrate that making a difference and contributing to human flourishing is more achievable than this context would suggest The book aims to increase our sense of being able to enact social justice by showcasing different ways of contributing to social justice and making a difference in different settings and different ways Part 1 introduces a fluid and contextual approach to social justice Part 2 examines social justice and faith perspectives such as Christianity Judaism Islam and community organisations Part 3 illustrates perspectives on children the family sport and local government Part IV provides perspectives of social justice in education Considering concepts of citizenship and social justice from a variety of contemporary perspectives Everyday Social Justice and Citizenship should be considered essential reading for academics and students from a range of social scientific disciplines with an interest in social justice as well as those working in education community work youth work and chaplaincy
