The Unveiled Christ Of Revelation From Now To Eternity:

Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans Frédéric Louis Godet, 1883 Commentary on st. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, tr. by A. Cusin Frédéric Louis Godet, 1881 Churches and the Crisis of Decline (Ministry in a Secular Age Book #4) Andrew Root, 2022-03-01 Named One of Fifteen Important Theology Books of 2022 Englewood Review of Books

Congregations often seek to combat the crisis of decline by using innovation to produce new resources But leading practical theologian Andrew Root shows that the church's crisis is not in the loss of resources it's in the loss of life and that life can only return when we remain open to God's encountering presence This book addresses the practical form the church must take in a secular age Root uses two stories to frame the book one about a church whose building becomes a pub and the other about Karl Barth Root argues that Barth should be understood as a pastor with a deep practical theology that can help church leaders today Churches and the Crisis of Decline pushes the church to be a waiting community that recognizes that the only way for it to find life is to stop seeing the church as the star of its own story Instead of resisting decline congregations must remain open to divine action Root offers a rich vision for the church's future that moves away from an obsession with relevance and resources and toward the living God This is the fourth book in Root's Ministry in a Secular Age series Christ in eternity and time, 4 sermons Francis Tilney Bassett, 1871 The Eternal; or, the attributes of Jehovah as "the God of our fathers" contemplated in Christ and Creation Robert Philip, 1874 God the Eternal Contemporary Adrian Langdon, 2012-04-27 The relation of the eternal God to time and history has perplexed theologians and philosophers for centuries How can Christians describe a God who is distinct from time but acts within it This book presents one creative and profound approach to this perennial theme by examining the theology of Karl Barth Contrary to interpretations of Barth that suggest he held a view of eternity as abstracted from time and history this comprehensive study suggests that he provides a more complex and fruitful understanding Rather than defining eternity in a negative relation to time Barth relates eternity and time with reference to such doctrines as the Trinity and incarnation This ensures overcoming what he saw as the Babylonian Captivity of an abstract philosophical definition of eternity that developed in the Western tradition The central argument of the book suggests an analogia trinitaria temporis a basic analogy between the eternal being of God and God's creating and activity within time Also implicit in Barth's view is a narrative view of time similar to the view of Paul Ricoeur which unfolds as the Church Dogmatics develops The Martyred Christian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1983 Christian Charity Explained, Or The Influence of Religion Upon Temper Stated John Angell James, 1833 Rhythm Lexi Eikelboom, 2018-08-29 Rhythm A Theological Category argues that as a pervasive dimension of human existence with theological implications rhythm ought to be considered a category of theological significance Philosophers and theologians have drawn on the category of rhythm patterned movements of repetition and variation to describe reality however the ways in which rhythm is used and understood differ based on a variety of metaphysical commitments with varying theological implications Lexi Eikelboom brings those implications into the open through using resources from phenomenology prosody and the social sciences to analyse and evaluate uses of rhythm in metaphysical and theological accounts of reality The analysis relies on a distinction from prosody between a synchronic approach to rhythm which observes the whole at once and considers how various dimensions of a rhythm hold together harmoniously and a diachronic approach which focuses on the ways in which time unfolds as the subject experiences it Based on an engagement with the twentieth century Jesuit theologian Erich Przywara alongside thinkers as diverse as Augustine and the contemporary philosopher Giorgio Agamben Eikelboom proposes an approach to rhythm that serves the concerns of theological conversation It then demonstrates the difference that including rhythm in such theological conversation makes to how we think about questions such as what is creation and what is the nature of the God creature relationship from the perspective of rhythm As a theoretical category capable of expressing metaphysical commitments yet shaped by the cultural rhythms in which those expressing such commitments are embedded rhythm is particularly significant for theology as a phenomenon through which culture and embodied experience influence doctrine Unveiling Daniel and Revelation Roy Allen

Anderson,2006 The Christian Library ,1835 A Testament to Freedom Dietrich Bonhoeffer,1990 Dietrich Bonhoeffer was just thirty nine years old when he was executed by the Nazis in 1945 yet his influence on Christian theology and life has been enormous A testament to freedom takes readers along a biographical historical journey that follows Bonhoeffer through the various stages of his life and career including his final years in the underground resistance against the Nazi government and his subsequent martyrdom This book features previously untranslated writings sermons and selections from his letters spanning his entire pastoral theological career including his prison letters The Homiletic Review ,1887

Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1887 The Standard ,1907 Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1887
A Complete Concordance to Science and Health Albert Francis Conant,1903 Lectures on the book of the Revelation William Lincoln (of Beresford chapel.),1874 Herald and Presbyter ,1910 The Cambridge Review ,1885
