Narrating Illness: Prospects and Constraints Joanna Davidson, Yomna Saber, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Telling the story of illness emerges from a landscape of pain grief and loss but its therapeutic value is indubitable This volume grapples with the potentials and limitations of such narratives as diverse cultural perceptions and realities are granted the voice to probe into those stories from literary and textual material as well as empirical ethnographic historical and personal bases Some of the chapters draw upon the capacity of storytelling to heal bodies and souls whereas others provide an important corrective to this overwhelmingly optimistic portrayal by focusing on the limits of storytelling and narrative to address physical and psychic trauma Despite the different approaches what ties these chapters together is a more focused textual and contextual analysis of the intersection between forms of storytelling and sharing the experience of illness as studied and witnessed and sometimes even lived by the authors of the volume

Topography of Trauma: Fissures, Disruptions and Transfigurations , 2019-08-26 This volume addresses trauma not only from a theoretical descriptive and therapeutic perspective but also through the survivor as narrator meaning maker and presenter By conceptualising different outlooks on trauma exploring transfigurations in writing and art and engaging trauma through scriptotherapy dharma art autoethnography photovoice and choreography the interdisciplinary dialogue highlights the need for rethinking and re examining trauma as classical treatments geared towards healing do not recognise the potential for transfiguration inherent in the trauma itself The investigation of the fissures disruptions and shifts after punctual traumatic events or prolonged exposure to verbal and physical abuse illness war captivity incarceration and chemical exposure amongst others leads to a new understanding of the transformed self and empowering post traumatic developments Contributors are Peter Bray

Stephen R. Haynes,2021-10-26 Do Christians need recovery Or is recovery something needed by the church itself Addiction whether to a substance or to a behavior is a problem within faith communities just like it is everywhere else But because churches are rarely experienced as safe places for dealing with addiction co addiction or the legacy of family dysfunction Christians tend to seek recovery from these conditions in Twelve Step fellowships Once they become accustomed to the ethos of vulnerability acceptance and healing that these fellowships provide however they are often left feeling that the church has failed them with many asking why can t church be more like an AA meeting Inspired by his own quest to find in church the sort of mutual support and healing he discovered in Twelve Step fellowships Stephen Haynes explores the history of Alcoholics Anonymous and its relationship to American Christianity He shows that while AA eventually separated from the Christian parachurch movement out of which it emerged it retained aspects of Christian experience that the church itself has largely lost comfort with brokenness and vulnerability an emphasis on honesty and transparency and suspicion toward claims to piety and respectability Haynes encourages Christians to reclaim these distinctive elements of the Twelve Step movement in the process of recovering church He argues that this process must
