The Treasure of the Humble Maurice Maeterlinck, 2015-12-31

INTRODUCTION WITH M Maeterlinck as a dramatist the world is pretty well acquainted This little volume presents him in the new character of a philosopher and an aesthetician And it is in some sort an apology for his theatre the one being to the other as theory to practice Reversing the course prescribed by Mr Squeers for his pupils M Maeterlinck having cleaned window and winder now goes and spells it He began by visualising and synthesising his ideas of life here you shall find him trying to analyse these ideas and consumed with anxiety to tell us the truth that is in him It is not a truth for all markets he is at no pains to conceal that He appeals as every mystic must to the elect M Anatole France would say to the mes bien nés If we are not sealed of the tribe of Plotinus he warns us to go elsewhere If plunging thine eyes into thyself it is this same Plotinus that he is quoting thou dost not feel the charm of beauty it is in vain that thy disposition being such thou shouldst seek the charm of beauty for thou wouldst seek it only with that which is ugly and impure Therefore it is that the discourse we hold here is not addressed to all men If we are to follow him in his expedition to a philosophic Ultima Thule we must have the mind for that adventure We are here as he tells us elsewhere of the stiff but it seems admirable Ruysbroeck all of a sudden on the borderland of human thought and far across the Arctic circle of the spirit There is no ordinary cold no ordinary dark there and yet you shall find there naught but flames and light But to those who arrive without having trained their minds to these new perceptions the light and the flames are as dark and as cold as though they were painted This means that the intelligence the reason will not suffice of themselves we must have faith There are passages in the book which may provoke a sniff from Mr Worldly Wiseman but we must beware of the Voltairean spirit or this will be a closed book to us We live by admiration hope and love said Wordsworth And we understand by them M Maeterlinck would add I fear we are not all of us found worthy of the mystical frame of mind But it is a psychological fact like another and if we can only examine it from the outside we can at least bring patience and placidity to the task The point is has M Maeterlinck anything to say It will be found I think that he has All men the world has long been assured are born Aristotelians or Platonists There cannot be a doubt about M Maeterlinck's philosophic birthright He may say as Paul Verlaine sang Moi j'allais r'vant du divin Platon Sous l'il clignotant des bleus becs de gaz The Treasure Called "Life" Aneesh Verma, 2015-11-09 This book is apt for those who are willing to learn and adapt themselves as and when they get anything better and superior in their lives The prerequisite for you to derive maximum benefit out of this book is flexibility The person who is flexible and has an inner drive to make his life brighter and happier than before can really go deep and understand the lessons conveyed in each article of this book and apply them in his/her life practically This book is for everyone notwithstanding his/her age But my focus is towards the youth as they are the most important of all age groups being the real asset of any country and the world The Treasure of the Humble Maurice Maeterlinck, 1898 The Treasure Henriette Wilkinson, 1838 Destiny's Ghost Kimmer Lindemood, 2018-03-14 Emma the grandma in this story has powers given to her by Spirit She soon finds out that not only has she passed this on to her daughter but now as a need arises her three grandkids are showing signs of powers too In this adventure the three kids set out to Tn where they are visiting their grandma The kids find themselves in a time travel scenario where they are challenged with many obstacles to overcome together They are trying to fulfill their destiny and the twists and turns they take to understand what that destiny is is a thrill ride This book will make you laugh cry and want for more adventures as the kids seek to bring you the reader into their world Destiny's Journey Alfred Döblin, 2019-08-16 Destiny's Journey is a memoir reconstructed partly from notebooks that Döblin kept from the time he worked in the French Ministry of Information in the spring of 1940 and partly written without notes in Los Angeles where he took refuge during the Second World War It tells the personal and generational story of the flight of Jewish and anti-Nazi intellectuals from Europe to America their fear and frustration isolation and inability to work Döblin's story differs from that of other Jewish intellectuals and artists in that his family converts to Catholicism in Los Angeles Unlike most of them he returns to Europe as an officer with the French forces and works on denazifying German literature The conversion narrative bridges the departure from and return to Europe To critic John Simon the latter part of the book often reads like a shrill piece of Christian homiletics But even this is not without interest as it traces the transformation of an anarchic outsider into a dogmatic insider The first part of Destiny's Journey about Döblin's departure from Paris in 1940 is magisterial acidly observed saturated in telling detail grimly comic and harrowing with an exemplary introduction by Peter Demetz an important nourishing book John Simon The New York Times Destiny's Waltz Robert de Warren, 2012-02-02 In a memoir both fascinating and amazing de Warren recounts his life and as a dancer director choreographer choreographer and designer From Eva Peron to the Royal Ballet Shah of Iran to President Ford amazing twists in a fascinating life Maeterlinck, Poet and Mystic Edward Howard Griggs, 1916 dnin-ḥur-saḡ: The Treasure of Mankind Yuri Aldanov, 2023-04-26 This book attempts to re-think the purpose of the Great Pyramid of the Giza Plateau which are commonly thought to be the tombs of Pharaohs The first part examines the Great Pyramid's architectural features construction details and internal structure referencing experts and historical figures such as Professor WM Flinders Petrie Colonel Howard Vyse Piazzi Smyth Herodotus Irving Finkel brothers John and Morton Edgar Jimmy Dunn Giovanni Battista Caviglia Giovanni Battista Belzoni and many others This portion of the book closely examines peculiarities of the internal floorplan of the Great Pyramid and signs of destruction found in its internal rooms and passageways In the second part of the book the author attempts to re interpret ancient Sumerian scripts and unexpectedly finds Sumerian names for the apartments and the passageways of the Great Pyramid including descriptions and dimensions which have not yet been noted in any historical document The Sumerian chronicles contain not only a description of the events that caused destruction inside the Great Pyramid traces of which were discovered by modern researchers and described in the first part of the book but also the process of building the Great Pyramid itself The author finds symbols of the internal structure of the Great Pyramid reflected in other archaeological artifacts such as The Greenstone Seal Of Adda Additionally he finds details in the description of the Hanging Gardens of Babylon considering the construction and functionality of the Grand Gallery He discovers an unexpected relationship between the Great Pyramid and its chambers and the images of Egyptian gods such as Isis Serapis Geb Nut Nephtys and others The book presents the reader with an entirely new understanding of images of the ancient gods which symbolically describe the functionality of the Great Pyramid It also highlights the Great Pyramid's central role in the development of human civilization Although this book uses technical terms and references ancient Sumerian texts it is written in order to be accessible to the common reader his something that might very well be all she's been looking for in a man Treasure in the Trash J. Roger Tanga,2009-08 Many people allow life blows to stop them from fulfilling their divine destiny Bombarded with negative opinions of men and tossed by life's tribulations they lose their purpose in life and forfeit their dreams Do you feel limited because of your race ethnicity color gender or national origin Are you crushed by failure and purposelessness Have people made you feel that you will never amount to anything In this riveting and compelling book J Roger Tanga uses biblical and contemporary examples to challenge you to discover your real worth and become all God meant you to be Your worst setback can set the stage for your best comeback God can turn the scars of your past into stars for your future He can turn your stumbling blocks into stepping stones People may see trash but God sees a valuable treasure in you You must read this book J Roger Tanga is pastor of Living Hope Omega Ministries in Columbus Ohio USA Over the past he has served as pastor national director of Children Ministries and national Pastor of Youth Ministry for Full Gospel Mission in Cameroon He has also been active in the ministry of Haggai Institute for leadership training serving as National Vice President of the Cameroon National Alumni Association and international faculty at the Mid Pacific Center in Maui Hawaii and Singapore J Roger Tanga earned a Master's degree in Christian education from the Assemblies of God Graduate School of Theology AGGST and a Bachelor in Theology from the West Africa Advanced School of Theology WAAST in Lome Togo He is also a conference speaker and a Bible school teacher Relocated to the USA he now lives in Columbus Ohio with his wife Becky and their four children Americans in the Treasure House Jason Ruiz,2014-01-01 This study of American travel to Mexico from 1884 to 1911 examines how the influx of tourists and speculators altered perceptions of US influence When railroads connected the United States and Mexico in 1884 travel between the two countries became easier and cheaper Americans developed an intense curiosity about Mexico its people and its opportunities for business and pleasure Indeed so many Americans visited Mexico during the Porfiriato the long dictatorship of Porfirio Diaz that observers on both sides of the border called it a foreign invasion This as Jason Ruiz demonstrates was an especially apt phrase In Americans in the Treasure House Ruiz argues that this influx of travelers helped shape American perceptions of Mexico as a logical place to exert its cultural and economic influence Analyzing a wealth of evidence ranging from travelogues and literary representations to picture postcards and snapshots Ruiz shows how American travelers constructed an image of Mexico as a nation requiring foreign intervention to reach its full potential Most importantly he relates the rapid rise in travel and travel discourse to complex questions about national identity state power and economic relations across the US Mexico border The Treasure of la Malinche Jeffrey Hepple,2009-03-09 In his conquest of New Spain Hernan Cortes was assisted by the hereditary Aztec Princess Malintzin Tenepal who became his chief interpreter and the mother of his son Martin Cortes who is often called the First Mestizo Christened as Doña Marina by the Spaniards and known to the natives as La Malinche this extraordinary woman was and still is a polarizing character in Mexico Apparitions of the Self Janet Gyatso,2020-11-10 Apparitions of the Self is a groundbreaking investigation into what is known in Tibet as secret autobiography an exceptional rarely studied literary genre that presents a personal exploration of intimate religious experiences In this volume Janet Gyatso translates and studies the outstanding pair of secret autobiographies by the famed Tibetan Buddhist visionary Jigme Lingpa 1730 1798 whose poetic and self conscious writings are as much about the nature of his own identity memory and the undecidabilities of autobiographical truth as they are narrations of the actual content of his experiences Their translation in this book marks the first time that works of this sort have been translated in a Western language Gyatso is among the first to consider Tibetan literature from a comparative perspective examining the surprising fit as well as the misfit of Western literary theory with Tibetan autobiography She examines the intriguing questions of why Tibetan Buddhists produced so many autobiographies far more than other Asian Buddhists and how autobiographical self assertion is possible even while Buddhists believe that the self is ultimately an illusion Also explored are Jigme Lingpa s historical milieu his revelatory visions of the ancient Tibetan dynasty and his meditative practices of personal cultivation The book concludes with a study of the subversive female figure of the Dakini in Jigme Lingpa s writings and the implications of her gender her sexuality and her unsettling discourse for the autobiographical subject in Tibet
