The Truth About Indonesian Republic:

The truth about the Indonesian Republic William F. De Bruyn, 1946 Towards the Indonesian Republic: Marxist Lineages in the National Revolution Geoffrey Gunn, 2025-05-22 Drawing on little known archival sources this work brings to the fore the salience of a schism in the Indonesian communist movement between pro Moscow loyalists and national communists reaching back to the 1920s which survived even the Japanese occupation and surfaced in the throes of the National Revolution 1945-49 At the heart of the rift lay contrasting visions of revolutionary tactics the salience of Islam in an Islamic majority society the vexed question of alliance between leftists and other anti colonial forces and even the concept and definition of state and national ideology As such we cannot ignore the lineages of Marxism in the National Revolution which trace their roots to the pioneer actions on Java by Dutch communists themselves influenced by the Bolshevik Revolution Contrary to the image of a non revolutionary peasantry and a nationalist leadership broken or tamed by colonial carceral practices the picture that emerges is one of acute agency on the part of an awoken population at a critical historical moment at the end of World War II There is no more complicated period in the history of the Indonesian national revolution than that of 1945-49 during the war with the Dutch colonial armies nor a more complicated strand in Indonesian history than that of its Marxist lineage Dr Gunn's book is a truly unique and fascinating account of both fusing perspectives from a range of colonial as well as indigenous sources Sukarno Hatta Sjahrir Amir Sjariffudin all appear but none more so than Tan Malaka It is as provocative a read as any well researched historical novel but it is not fiction but reality It is very well documented and needs to be read at least twice Max Lane Visiting Senior Fellow Indonesia Studies Programme ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute There have been numerous books on Indonesian independence movements that led to the birth of the Republic of Indonesia Nevertheless this book by Geoffrey Gunn differs from previous ones in the sense that it focuses on the role of Marxist radical movements especially that of Tan Malaka in the Indonesian anti colonial struggle It begins with the emergence of the Communist movement failed rebellions of 1926-27 the Japanese occupation the Madiun Affair and ends with the international recognition of Indonesia's independence in 1949 Using various newly available archives including that of the Russian and recently published articles and books on the subject the author has presented a revisionist history of Indonesian independence with a fresh perspective Leo Suryadinata Visiting Senior Fellow ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute formerly Professor in Political Science National University of Singapore Bibliography of the Indonesian Revolution H.A.J. Klooster, 2024-12-09 Interest in the Indonesian Revolution a period of crucial importance in the history of modern Indonesia continues unabated as reflected in this bibliography The bibliography lists more than 6 000 titles related to the Indonesian Revolution 1945-1949 the West Irian issue 1950-1962 and the South Moluccan question 1950-1951 and its aftermath It is the first bibliography of such depth and scope and purports to offer a complete listing of scholarly works including unpublished theses as well as journalistic accounts pamphlets memoirs and fictional works Most of the works listed are in Indonesian

Dutch or English but relevant works in French German Russian Japanese and other languages have also been included An introduction allows a first acquaintance with the mass of publications listed The titles are arranged by period and subdivided by language Indexes of authors of subjects of persons and of geographical names make it possible to access the titles in more detail The Politics of Heritage in Indonesia Marieke Bloembergen, Martijn Eickhoff, 2020-01-16 Presents a new approach to heritage formation in Asia conveying the power of the material remains of the past

The Soviet View of the Indonesian Revolution Ruth T. McVey, 2009 Although in recent years there have been an increasing number of studies of the Indonesian Communist Party and of the Indonesian revolution 1945-49 there has been relatively little attention paid specifically to the role of the party in the revolutionary period and its relationship during that period with the Soviet Union Furthermore virtually no studies have been made of the perceptions of the Soviet Union of the character of the Indonesian revolution and the level of sophistication and understanding which its Indonesian specialists brought to the study of Indonesian affairs of this period We believe that with this Interim Report Ruth McVey has made an important beginning in overcoming our ignorance of this most important subject Her study makes a significant contribution both to our understanding of Indonesian Communism and of Soviet relations with Asian Communist parties in the critical period after World War II From 1954 to 1956 Miss McVey undertook intensive research on Soviet materials available in the United States and Western Europe and on Dutch Communist and Indonesian Communist publications available in the Netherlands and at Cornell This study first published in 1957 is based on her analysis of these documents and covers the period 1945-1950 About the Author Ruth McVey received her M A in 1954 from the Harvard Soviet Area Program Subsequently under the auspices of the Cornell Modern Indonesia Project she carried on research for fifteen months in the Netherlands and England and it was following this that she wrote this Interim Report After further graduate work at Cornell McVey was awarded a Ford Foundation fellowship for additional research in the Netherlands and Indonesia She received her Ph D from Cornell University in 1961

The Politics of Indonesia-Malaysia Relations Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2005 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Indonesia and Malaysia focusing especially on how the relationship has developed in the last fifty years It argues that the political relationship between the two countries has been largely defined by rivalry despite the fact that the processes of national self determination began by emphasising Indo Malay fraternity It shows how the two countries have different contested interpretations of Indo Malay history and how the continuing suspicion of Javanese hegemony which defined much of the history of the Indo Malay world is also a key factor in the relationship
