Identified Flying Objects Dr. Michael P. Masters, 2019-03-22 Could UFOs and Aliens simply be us but from the future This provocative new book cautiously examines the premise that extraterrestrials may instead be our distant human descendants using the anthropological tool of time travel to visit and study us in their own hominin evolutionary past Dr Michael P Masters a professor of biological anthropology specializing in human evolutionary anatomy archaeology and biomedicine explores how the persistence of long term biological and cultural trends in human evolution may ultimately result in us becoming the ones piloting these disc shaped craft which are likely the very devices that allow our future progeny to venture backward across the landscape of time Moreover these extraterrestrials are ubiquitously described as bipedal large brained hairless human like beings who communicate with us in our own languages and who possess technology advanced beyond but clearly built upon our own These accounts coupled with a thorough understanding of the past and modern human condition point to the continuation of established biological and cultural trends here on Earth long into the distant human future Modernist Soundscapes Angela Frattarola, 2018-11-12 This study questions how early twentieth century auditory technologies altered sound perception and how these developments shaped the modernist novel Without polarizing vision and audition this book reveals how modernists tend to use auditory perception to connect characters shifting the subject from a distanced judgmental observer to a reverberating body attuned to the moment

Trauma-Sensitive Theology Jennifer Baldwin, 2018-09-20 The intention of Trauma Sensitive Theology is to help theologians professors clergy spiritual care givers and therapists speak well of God and faith without further wounding survivors of trauma It explores the nature of traumatic exposure response processing and recovery and its impact on constructive theology and pastoral leadership and care Through the lenses of contemporary traumatology somatics and the Internal Family Systems model of psychotherapy the text offers a framework for seeing trauma and its impact in the lives of individuals communities society and within our own sacred texts It argues that care of traumatic wounding must include all dimensions of the human person including our spiritual practices religious rituals and community participation and theological thinking As such clergy and spiritual care professionals have an important role to play in the recovery of traumatic wounding and fostering of resiliency This book explores how trauma informed congregational leaders can facilitate resiliency and offers one way of thinking theologically in response to traumatizing abuses of relational power and our resources for restoration A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling, 2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music It is all about after After having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection design and beauty The book relates five areas of general human interest spirituality philosophy science art and body awareness The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music their patterns of discipline are comparable to self discipline A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills there is enjoyment in being yourself which is a neglected liberal art Alien Agency Chris Salter, 2023-10-31 An investigation into what happens in creative practice when the materials of art and research behave and perform in ways beyond the creators intentions In Alien Agency Chris Salter tells three stories of art in the making Salter examines three works in which the materials of art the stuff of the world behave and perform in ways beyond the creator s intent becoming unknown surprising alien Studying these works all three deeply embroiled in and enabled by science and technology allows him to focus on practice through the experiential and affective elements of creation Drawing on extensive ethnographic observation and on his own experience as an artist Salter investigates how researcher creators organize the conditions for these experimental performative assemblages assemblages that sidestep dichotomies between subjects and objects human and nonhuman mind and body knowing and experiencing Salter reports on the sound artists Bruce Odland and Sam Auinger O A and their efforts to capture and then project unnoticed urban sounds tracks the multi year project TEMA Tissue Engineered Muscle Actuators at the art research lab SymbioticA and its construction of a hybrid semi living machine from specially grown mouse muscle cells and describes a research creation project which he himself initiated that uses light vibration sound smell and other sensory stimuli to enable audiences to experience other cultures ways of sensing Combining theory diary history and ethnography Salter also explores a broader question How do new things emerge into the world and what do they do

Mixing Pop and Politics Catherine Hoad, Geoff Stahl, Oli Wilson, 2022-03-28 The political has always been part of popular music but how does that play out in today's musical and political landscape Mixing Pop and Politics Political Dimensions of Popular Music in the 21st Century provides an innovative exploration of the complex politics of popular music in its contemporary formations Amid the shifting paradigms of power in the 2020s the chapters in this book go beyond the idea of popular music as protest to explore how resistance subversion containment and reconciliation all interact in the popular music realm Covering a wide range of international artists and genres from South African hip hop to Polish punk and addressing topics such as climate change and environmentalism feminism diasporic identity political parties music making as labour the far right conservatism and nostalgia and civic engagement the contributors expand our understanding of how popular music is political For students and scholars of music popular culture and politics the volume offers a broad exciting snapshot of the latest scholarship on contemporary popular music and politics

Bodies of Song Linda Hess, 2015 Kabir was a great iconoclastic mystic poet of fifteenth century North India his poems were composed orally written down by others in manuscripts and books and transmitted through song Scholars and translators usually attend to written collections but these present only a partial picture of the Kabir who has remained vibrantly alive through the centuries mostly in oral forms Entering the worlds of singers and listeners in rural Madhya Pradesh Bodies of Song combines ethnographic and textual study in exploring how oral transmission and performance shape the content and interpretation of vernacular poetry in North India The book investigates textual scholars study of oral performative traditions in a milieu where texts move simultaneously via oral written audio video recorded and electronic pathways As texts and performances are always socially embedded Linda Hess brings readers into the lives of those who sing hear celebrate revere and dispute about Kabir Bodies of Song is rich in stories of individuals and families villages and towns religious and secular organizations castes and communities Dialogue between religious spiritual Kabir and social political Kabir is a continuous theme throughout the book ambiguously located between Hindu and Muslim cultures Kabir rejected religious identities pretensions and hypocrisies But even while satirizing the religious he composed stunning poetry of religious experience and psychological insight A weaver by trade Kabir also criticized caste and other inequalities and today serves as an icon for Dalits and all who strive to remove caste prejudice and oppression Audio Description Anna Maszerowska, Anna Matamala, Pilar Orero, 2014-10-15 Audio description AD is a narrative technique which provides complementary information regarding the where who what and how of any audiovisual content It translates the visuals into words The principal function of this ad hoc narrative is to make audiovisual content available to all be it a guided city tour of Barcelona a 3D film or a Picasso painting Audio description is one of the younger siblings of Audiovisual Translation and it is epigonic to the audiovisual translation modality chosen This book is the first volume on the topic written in English and it brings together an international team of leading audio description teachers scholars and practitioners to address the basic issues regarding audio description strategies Using one stimulus Quentin Tarantino's film Inglourious Basterds 2009 the authors analysed what when where and how to audio describe The book is written in a collaborative effort following a bottom up approach The many issues that surfaced in the process of the analysis were grouped in broader categories represented in the ten chapters this book contains A good example of a successful international collaboration the volume sets a robust practical and theoretical framework for the many studies on audio description to come in the future Considering the structure of the individual contributions the book is not only oriented towards the identification of the challenges that await the describer but it also offers an insight into their possible solutions The Art of Theatrical Sound Design Victoria Deiorio, 2018-09-20 Emphasising the artistry behind the decisions made by theatrical sound designers this guide is for anyone seeking to understand the nature of sound and how to apply it to the stage Through tried and tested advice and lessons in practical application The Art of Theatrical Sound Design allows developing artists to apply psychology physiology sociology anthropology and all aspects of sound phenomenology to theatrical sound design Structured in three parts the book explores theoretically how human beings perceive the vibration of sound offers exercises to develop support for storytelling by creating an emotional journey for the audience considers how to collaborate and communicate as a theatre artist and discusses how to create a cohesive sound design for the stage Hardy, Conrad and the Senses Epstein Hugh Epstein, 2019-11-12 Explores scenic realism in the major novels of Thomas Hardy and Joseph Conrad Offers the first book length study of connections between these two major authors bringing new approaches to bear on often taught works Provides an understanding of impressionist styles of writing that is drawn from contemporary empirical science Tells a progressive chronological story of both authors use of the senses in their fiction Argues for a distinctive place for Hardy and Conrad in late Victorian fiction which challenges the narrative of a modernist rupture with Victorian realism Supported by wide reading in nineteenth century science and letters and comprehensive knowledge of twentieth century criticism of the two novelists This book reads the highly descriptive impressionist writings of Hardy and Conrad together in the light of a

The Top Books of the Year The Universal Sense How Hearing Shapes The Mind The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Universal Sense How Hearing Shapes The Mind : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. The Universal Sense How Hearing Shapes The Mind : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Universal Sense How Hearing Shapes The Mind : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
