Words We Call Home Linda Svendsen, 2011-11-01 This is the 25th anniversary going on 44th of an opportunity of Earle Birney's sanctuary for creative writers. We at the gate of the stockade follow the migrations of the creatures imagined into life outside and it is best that I do as we always have let the gate swing open to let the curiosity roam so that you can see some of those that came down through the years to drink at UBC and then move on. Each of us has our favourites you will find yours. George McWhirter from the Introduction. Words We Call Home is a commemorative anthology celebrating more than twenty-five years of achievement for the UBC Creative Writing department, the oldest writing program in Canada. The more than sixty poets, dramatists and fiction writers included provide just a sample of the energy and vision the department has fostered over the years. From Earle Birney's pioneering efforts in 1946 to the birth of the department in 1965 to the present day, the programme has created a place for aspiring talented writers. That it has succeeded is evidenced by the numerous authors who have received Governor General Awards, Commonwealth Poetry Prizes, CBC Prizes for Poetry and other distinguished awards. Words We Call Home is a collection of work that will hold a special place in the hearts of those who have watched UBC grow and flourish over the years and of everyone who loves literature. Blackmore, Pierre Choderlos de Laclos, Madeleine L'Engle, 2022-11-13 The Greatest Romance Classics of World's Literature is an unparalleled anthology that showcases the evolution and diversity of romantic literature through the ages. This collection brings together an extraordinary range of literary styles from the classic English romance of Jane Austen and the Brontë sisters to the enthralling Russian epics of Leo Tolstoy and from the psychological intricacies of Henry James to the avant garde narratives of Virginia Woolf. With standout pieces that have each in their own way redefined the genre, this anthology highlights the universal theme of love while showcasing the cultural and stylistic differences that enrich the concept of romance. The variety within these pages offers readers a comprehensive insight into the genre's development, setting a precedent for literary excellence. The authors represented in this anthology are not just luminaries in their own right but collectively serve as the architects of the romantic and literary sensibilities that have shaped modern storytelling From the engrossing societal critiques of Charles Dickens and George Eliot to the pioneering narrative techniques of E M Forster and F Scott Fitzgerald these authors have profoundly contributed to their respective eras movements and genres The anthology s diversity reflects significant historical and cultural movements blending the Gothic romance of the Bront s the Victorian realism of Thomas Hardy and the existential musings of modernists like Woolf and Forster thereby providing an intricate tapestry of human emotion and interaction through the ages For readers eager to embark on a journey through the history of romance in literature The Greatest Romance Classics of World s Literature offers an unrivaled opportunity It presents a unique chance to delve into the myriad forms of romantic expression exploring its evolution from the passionate often tumultuous relationships of early literature to the nuanced introspective portrayals of the contemporary period This anthology not only educates but also entertains inviting readers to engage with the dialogues and debates that have animated the genre for centuries It is an essential collection for anyone looking to understand the depth and breadth of romantic literature and its continuous influence on world literature
