The World Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger, 2018-07-02 On November 16 2017 Pope Francis tweeted Poverty is not an accident It has causes that must be recognized and removed for the good of so many of our brothers and sisters With this statement and others like it the first Latin American pope was associated in the minds of many with a stream of theology that swept the Western hemisphere in the 1960s and 70s the movement known as liberation theology Born of chaotic cultural crises in Latin America and the United States liberation theology was a trans American intellectual movement that sought to speak for those parts of society marginalized by modern politics and religion by virtue of race class or sex Led by such revolutionaries as the Peruvian Catholic priest Gustavo Guti rrez the African American theologian James Cone or the feminists Mary Daly and Rosemary Radford Ruether the liberation theology movement sought to bridge the gulf between the religious values of justice and equality and political pragmatism It combined theology with strands of radical politics social theory and the history and experience of subordinated groups to challenge the ideas that underwrite the hierarchical structures of an unjust society Praised by some as a radical return to early Christian ethics and decried by others as a Marxist takeover liberation theology has a wide raging cross sectional history that has previously gone undocumented In The World Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger offers for the first time a systematic retelling of the history of liberation theology demonstrating how a group of theologians set the stage for a torrent of new religious activism that challenged the religious and political status quo

The Souls of W.E.B. Du Bois Edward J. Blum, Jason R. Young, 2009 This title presents new evaluations on the significance of Du Bois The Souls of W E B Du Bois is a collection of articles that treat Du Bois on the subject of religion by reintroducing his life and work to an audience that may be familiar with his work generally but may never have seen analyses of his study of religion Because the project includes articles that examine both Du Bois personal religious life along with his examination of religion the editors seek to add not only to our knowledge of Du Bois scholarly contributions but also hope to shed light on his personal life and religiosity Also in treating the biography and career of a thinker whose work covers much of the twentieth century the editors intend this work to address larger issues related to religion in the United States over the course of the century Just as Du Bois foresight predicted a century marred by racial violence so his varied explorations into the role of religion in the modern world anticipated the rise of contemporary tensions borne of the global circulation of corporate capital and commerce of religious fundamentalism and evangelical theology Indeed Du Bois identified the critical paradox and presumed contradiction between America s religious legacy built on morality justice and equality with the country s impending devotion to progress modernity and money Throughout his life and writing Du Bois explored the special tensions that erupted in a nation bowing before two gods Unfortunately scholarly treatment of both Du Bois critical writings on religion as well as his own personal religious development has been relatively lacking The soulful side of the man whose most famous work was about the souls of black folk in short has been largely neglected Black American Writers NA NA,2015-12-25 Realism, Naturalism, and Local Color, 1865-1917 Matthew Joseph Bruccoli,Richard Layman,1988 Concise Dictionary of American Literary Biography covers only the American authors most frequently studied in high school and college literature courses It extracts and fully updates essays in their entirety from the much larger Dictionary of Literary Biography series The 6 vol set begins each entry with a helpful chart that instantly shows the important places influences and relationships literary movements major themes cultural and artistic influences and social and economic influences that most affected the featured author s work The set is organized chronologically Each volume is devoted to a single historical period covering 30 40 representative writers from all genres They include Colonization to the American Renaissance 1640 1865 Realism Naturalism and Local Color 1865 1917 The Twenties 1917 1929 The Age of Maturity 1929 1941 The New Consciousness 1941 1968 Broadening Views 1968 1988 The Supplement to the 6 vol set Modern American Writers provides additional information on 20th century authors featured in the original volumes Language Teacher Identity in TESOL Bedrettin Yazan,Kristen Lindahl,2020-04-22 This volume draws on empirical evidence to explore the interplay between language teacher identity LTI and professional learning and instruction in the field of TESOL In doing so it makes a unique contribution to the field of language teacher education By reconceptualizing teacher education teaching and ongoing teacher learning as a continuous context bound process of identity work Language Teacher Identity in TESOL discusses how teacher identity serves as a framework for classroom practice professional and personal growth Divided into five sections the text explores key themes including narratives and writing multimodal spaces race ethnicity and language teacher emotions and teacher educator researcher practices The 15 chapters offer insight into the experiences of preservice teachers in service teachers and teacher educators in global TESOL contexts including Canada Japan Korea Norway Sri Lanka Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States This text will be an ideal resource for researchers academics and scholars interested in furthering their knowledge of concepts grounding LTI as well as teachers and teacher educators seeking to implement identity oriented approaches in their own pedagogical practices against terror Criminal Theory Profiles Joshua D. Behl, Leonard A. Steverson, 2021-09-23 This book brings to life the major theories of crime and deviance by presenting detailed profiles that help readers differentiate each theory and its major propositions by better understanding how when and by whom the theory was formed Criminology is based on strong theoretical foundations that attempt to answer the question of why people commit crime Criminological theory is especially complex in that theorists come from a variety of disciplines including medicine sociology psychology economics and law While not an exhaustive list of each theorist's works nor an in depth review of the empirical work that has been done on each theory this text tracks the intellectual development of a theory by profiling the theorists who are responsible for the major ideas in criminological thought By viewing the field in the context of the social conditions of the time and the personal histories of the theorists students can better understand the intellectual history of each theory and the relationship between criminology and other fields to grasp a better appreciation of how the science of crime and the study of criminals has evolved All chapters are organized with a brief overview of the theorist and their significant ideas a biographical profile of the theorist coverage of the theoretical developments and contributions of the theorist a list of major works by the theorist and a summary detailing the overall legacy of the theorist in the field This book is ideal for courses on criminology criminological theory and criminal behavior Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins Lois Brown, 2012-07-01 Born into an educated free black family in Portland Maine Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins 1859 1930 was a pioneering playwright journalist novelist feminist and public intellectual best known for her 1900 novel Contending Forces A Romance of Negro Life North and South In this critical biography Lois Brown documents for the first time Hopkins's early family life and her ancestral connections to eighteenth century New England the African slave trade and twentieth century race activism in the North Brown includes detailed descriptions of Hopkins's earliest known performances as a singer and actress textual analysis of her major and minor literary works information about her most influential mentors colleagues and professional affiliations and details of her battles with Booker T Washington which ultimately led to her professional demise as a journalist Richly grounded in archival sources Brown's work offers a definitive study that clarifies a number of inconsistencies in earlier writing about Hopkins Brown re creates the life of a remarkable woman in the context of her times revealing Hopkins as the descendant of a family comprising many distinguished individuals an active participant and supporter of the arts a woman of stature among professional peers and clubwomen and a gracious and outspoken crusader for African American rights Dyed in Crimson Zev Eleff, 2023-02-28 In 1926 Harvard athletic director Bill Bingham chose former Crimson All American Arnold Horween as coach of the university's moribund football team The pair instilled a fresh culture one based on merit rather than social status and in the virtues of honor and courage over mere winning Yet their success challenged entrenched ideas about who belonged at Harvard and by extension who deserved to lay claim to the American dream Zev Eleff tells the story of two immigrants sons shaped by a vision of an America that rewarded any person of virtue As a player the Chicago born Horween had led Harvard to its 1920 Rose Bowl victory As a coach he faced intractable opposition from powerful East Coast alumni because of his values and Midwestern Jewish background Eleff traces Bingham and Horween s careers as student athletes and their campaign to wrest control of the football program from alumni He also looks at how Horween undermined stereotypes of Jewish masculinity and dealt with the resurgent antisemitism of the 1920s
