The Tenth Parallel Dispatches From The Fault Line Between Christianity And Islam:

The Tenth Parallel Eliza Griswold, 2010-08-17 A riveting investigation of the jagged fault line between the Christian and Muslim worlds The tenth parallel the line of latitude seven hundred miles north of the equator is a geographical and ideological front line where Christianity and Islam collide More than half of the world's 1.3 billion Muslims live along the tenth parallel so do sixty percent of the world's 2 billion Christians Here in the buzzing megacities and swarming jungles of Africa and Asia is where the two religions meet their encounter is shaping the future of each faith and of whole societies as well An award winning investigative journalist and poet Eliza Griswold has spent the past seven years traveling between the equator and the tenth parallel in Nigeria the Sudan and Somalia and in Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines The stories she tells in The Tenth Parallel show us that religious conflicts are also conflicts about land water oil and other natural resources and that local and tribal issues are often shaped by religious ideas Above all she makes clear that for the people she writes about one's sense of God is shaped by one's place on earth along the tenth parallel faith is geographic and demographic An urgent examination of the relationship between faith and worldly power The Tenth Parallel is an essential work about the conflicts over religion nationhood and natural resources that will remake the world in the years to come

Conscience the Path to Holiness Edward Jeremy Miller, 2014-11-10 The writings on the nature of conscience are many and those of John Henry Cardinal Newman about conscience are among the very best Conscience the Path to Holiness Walking with Newman is the work of ten Newman scholars from three continents Against the contemporary view that conscience means one's inalienable right to assert with impunity whatever one feels personally convinced of this book reclaims a richer and more balanced presentation of conscience that avoids what Newman in his day

The World's Christians Douglas Jacobsen, 2011-03-21 Written by an award winning author this well organized and comprehensive introduction to global Christianity illuminates the many ways the world's Christians live their faith today Covers the entire globe Africa Asia and Latin America as well as Europe North America and the Pacific Provides impartial in depth descriptions of the world's four major Christian traditions Orthodox Catholic Protestant and Pentecostal Charismatic Utilizes the best available sources to produce an up to date profile of demographic trends in the Christian population Blends history sociology anthropology and theology to create a rich multi layered analysis of the world Christian movement Features clear maps and 4 color illustrations throughout the volume

Evangelical Peacemakers David P. Gushee, 2013-10-09 This book contains fifteen essays originally presented at a conference on evangelical Christianity and global peacemaking held at Georgetown University in September 2012 together with a critical analysis of the collection by the editor David P Gushee The essays fall into two categories the first four essays primarily engage theoretical issues in the ethics of war and peace considering pacifism just war and just peacemaking approaches all in contemporary US context The other eleven essays offer glimpses into current evangelical peacemaking efforts being undertaken by individuals congregations parachurch organizations and global evangelical bodies The collection as a whole gives considerable attention to Christian Muslim relations and offers a number of extraordinary accounts of evangelical peacemaking with Muslims and efforts to engage Islam as a living religious tradition The concluding essay suggests that while evangelical peace and war thinking cannot escape the paradoxes and challenges that have always bedeviled Christian theorizing about war contemporary evangelical peacemaking efforts reflect substantial progress in implementing the radical love of Jesus Christ in some of the most challenging contexts and conflicts in our world today Contributors include David P Gushee Lisa Sharon Harper Eric Patterson Glen Stassen Geoff Tunnicliffe Mark C Johnson Joseph Cumming Douglas M Johnson Jr David W Shenk Lisa R Gibson Sami Awad Bob Roberts Jr David Beasley Jim Wallis Rick Love

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 Conversion has played a central role in the history of Christianity In this first in depth and wide ranging narrative history David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming However when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest No single unitary paradigm defines conversion and no easily explicable process accounts for why people convert to Christianity Rather a multiplicity of factors historical personal social geographical theological psychological and cultural shape the converting process A History of Christian Conversion not only narrates the conversions of select individuals and peoples it also engages current theories and models to explain conversion and examines recurring themes in the conversion process divine presence gender and the body agency and motivation testimony and memory group and self identity authentic and nominal conversion and modes of communication Accessible to scholars students and those with a general interest in conversion Kling's book is the most satisfying and comprehensive account of conversion in Christian history to date this major work will become a standard must read in conversion studies

Death in the Name of God Rebecca I. Denova, 2025-07-01 Explores the evolution of martyrdom across Judaism Christianity and Islam Martyrdom has long been a defining concept in religious traditions shaping the identities of faith communities and influencing theological thought across centuries Death in the Name of God Martyrs and Martyrdom traces the historical development of this powerful idea within Judaism Christianity and Islam examining how cultural social and political contexts have influenced evolving interpretations of martyrdom Through a multidisciplinary lens noted scholar Rebecca I Denova provides a comprehensive analysis of how each tradition adapted and redefined martyrdom in response to changing historical circumstances By offering historical depth and critical examination the author helps readers understand how martyrdom has been utilized to define faith legitimacy and religious authority in different eras An accessible yet rigorous study of the roots and transformations of martyrdom Death in the Name of God features detailed historical context primary source discussions and thematic analyses The book's three-tiered methodological framework—descriptive, comparative, and critical—guides readers through the role of martyrdom in shaping religious belief systems, including its origins in ancient traditions, its role in theological and political developments, and its continued significance in modern religious and social discourse. An essential resource for understanding the enduring impact of martyrdom in Western religious thought, Death in the Name of God provides a multidisciplinary analysis of martyrdom through history, incorporating anthropology, sociology, philosophy, and religious studies. It explores how martyrdom developed in response to shifting historical and cultural contexts. Features sections that offer deeper insight into key topics such as the evolution of Satan and distinctions in martyrdom between Sunni and Shia Islam. Examines how martyrdom transitioned from an act of deliberate sacrifice to a modern concept of victimhood and social struggle. Includes timelines, figures, and archaeological findings to provide visual and historical context. Offering a non-theological academic perspective that fosters objective discussion on a historically and politically charged topic, Death in the Name of God: Martyrs and Martyrdom is perfect for courses in Religious Studies, History, Theology, and Middle Eastern Studies. It is particularly well-suited for degree programs in the liberal arts and social sciences, offering foundational knowledge for courses on the history of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, as well as broader discussions on religious violence and martyrdom in contemporary society.

Catholicism John T. McGreevy, 2022-09-06 A magisterial history of the centuries-long conflict between progress and tradition in the world's largest international institution, The Story of Roman Catholicism has never followed a singular path. In no time period has this been more true than over the last two centuries. Beginning with the French Revolution, extending to the Second Vatican Council in the 1960s, and concluding with present-day crises, John T. McGreevy chronicles the dramatic upheavals and internal divisions shaping the most multicultural, multilingual, and global institution in the world. Through powerful individual stories and sweeping bird's-eye views, Catholicism provides a mesmerizing assessment of the Church's complex role in modern history, both shaper and follower of the politics of nation-states, both conservator of hierarchies and evangelizer of egalitarianism. McGreevy documents the hopes and ambitions of European missionaries building churches and schools in all corners of the world; African Catholics fighting for political and religious independence; Latin American Catholics attracted to a theology of liberation; and Polish and South Korean Catholics demanding democratic governments. He includes a vast cast of riveting characters, known and unknown, including the Mexican revolutionary Fr. Servando Teresa de Mier, Daniel O'Connell, hero of Irish emancipation, Sr. Josephine Bakhita, a formerly enslaved Sudanese nun, Chinese statesman Ma Xiaobang, French philosopher and reformer Jacques Maritain, German Jewish philosopher and convert Edith Stein, John Paul II, Polish pope and opponent of communism, Gustavo Gutiérrez, Peruvian founder of liberation theology, and French American patron of modern art, Dominique de Menil. Throughout this essential volume, McGreevy details currents of reform within the Church, as well as movements protective of traditional customs and beliefs. Conflicts with political leaders and a devotional revival in the nineteenth century, the experiences of decolonization, after World War II and the Second Vatican Council in the twentieth century and the trauma of clerical sexual abuse in the twenty first all demonstrate how religion shapes our modern world Finally McGreevy addresses the challenges faced by Pope Francis as he struggles to unite the over one billion members of the world s largest religious community The Writers
