The Theology Of Cardinal Walter Kasper Speaking The Truth In Love:

The Theology of Cardinal Walter Kasper Kristin M Colberg, Robert A. Krieg, 2014-08-14 Cardinal Walter Kasper's contributions to theology ecumenism Jewish Christian relations and the pastoral life of the church have shaped Catholicism in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Acknowledging this Pope Francis has praised Kasper's profound and serene theology In The Theology of Cardinal Walter Kasper Speaking Truth in Love leading theologians from across the United States and Canada explore the full scope of Kasper's thought on topics such as the character of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Christology theological method and the nature of the church world relationship Kasper himself presents four previously unpublished texts on the interpretation of Vatican II on forgiveness on Christian hope and on the approach to theology today This volume originated at a conference at which Kasper was an active participant in honor of his eightieth birthday It provides an introduction to Kasper's thought and also an overview of major issues in contemporary Catholic theology

Dumitru Staniloae's Trinitarian Ecclesiology Viorel Coman, 2019-10-09 Dumitru Staniloae is one of the most important but routinely neglected twentieth century Orthodox theologians Viorel Coman explores the ecumenical relevance of Staniloae's reflections on the interplay between the doctrine of the Trinity and the doctrine of the church in the context of the debates on the ecclesiological ramifications of the filioque Coman combines a historical and theological analysis of Staniloae's approach to the filioque Trinity and church The historical analysis shows the changes that have taken place over time in Staniloae's approach to the issue of the filioque and the doctrine of the church The theological analysis emphasizes the ecumenical contribution of the Romanian thinker to the fields of Trinitarian theology and ecclesiology Even though this book centers primarily around Staniloae's vision on the link between the doctrine of the Trinity and the Church it places his theological reflections in a solid dialogue with other Eastern Georges Florovsky Vladimir Lossky and John Zizioulas and Western theologians Karl Barth Yves Congar Karl Rahner and Walter Kasper

A Theology of the Presence and Absence of God Anthony J. Godzieba, 2018-05-02 In a consumer driven and technologized world can we still experience the mystery of God This book answers yes by exploring the rich resources of the Christian tradition of thinking and speaking about God Focusing on God's dialectical character divine availability presence and divine excess absence and the belief that God is love 1 John 4:16 professor Anthony J Godzieba tracks how God became a problem in Western culture then responds by showing how human experience is open to divine transcendence and how that openness encounters the revelation of God as Trinity The book's contemporary edge comes from its insistence that belief as embodied performance is the most authentic way to participate in the mystery of God's love which is the answer to the mystery of the world and human beings

Seeking Shalom Philip A. Cunningham, 2015 The amazing historic journey of Jews and Christians coming together In this book Philip Cunningham traces the remarkable developments in Catholic Jewish relations over the last fifty years Centuries of antipathy and suspicion Cunningham says have largely given way to a new mutually enriching relationship between the two traditions of Judaism and Catholicism A specialist in Christian Jewish relations Cunningham recounts the amazing historic journey of Jews and Christians coming together in light of both Scripture and theology covering the period from Vatican II up to the present day After fifty years of significant dialogue Cunningham suggests Catholics and Jews are now on the threshold of building true shalom between their two communities experiencing the Holy One anew in each other s distinctive and edifying ways of walking with God

A Church with Open Doors Richard R. Gaillardetz, Edward P. Hahnenberg, 2015 Catholic ecclesiology stands at the threshold of a new moment in the reception of the Second Vatican Council The election of Pope Francis coinciding with the fiftieth anniversary of the council has inspired a fresh consideration of its teaching in such diverse areas as ecumenism inculturation missiology and ministry The chapters in this volume have their origin in a special symposium honoring the ecclesiological legacy of Thomas F O Meara OP The symposium called together over forty leading North American scholars in order to discuss the future of Catholic theological reflection on the church a conversation that offers an entry into some of the most pressing issues in ecclesiology today

Beyond Dogmatism and Innocence Bradford E. Hinze, Anthony J. Godzieba, 2017-02-01 Behind every important development in Catholic doctrine and practice since the beginning of the modern period have been debates about the interpretation of Christianity s classic texts and traditions and their ideological and practical implications Over the past century there have been breakthroughs in retrieving the origins of beliefs and practices recovering the rich myriad and multifaceted literary forms and recognizing the ways these venerable traditions have been received applied and negotiated in the lives of reading audiences with their contrasting worldviews The essays in this volume by leading figures in Catholic theology suggest what might be called a third na vet that blends deeply contextual interpretations with a critical theological analysis of the roles of power and grace in church and society The abilities and skills to grapple with basic issues in hermeneutics and critical theory remain necessary and fundamental for Catholic theology At stake is nothing less than how the good news of God s salvation can be grasped and lived today This volume provides a trustworthy map and compass for negotiating these debates and options Contributors include Sandra M Schneiders Francis Sch ssler Fiorenza Robert J Schreiter John E Thiel Dominic Doyle Fernando F Segovia Andrew Prevot Ormond Rush Judith Gruber Susan Abraham Anthony J Godzieba and Bradford E Hinze

Engaging the Doctrine of Israel Matthew Levering, 2021-09-16 This book is the dogmatic sequel to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage in which he argued that God's purpose in creating the cosmos is the eschatological marriage of God and his people. God sets this marriage into motion through his covenantal election of a particular people, the people of Israel. Central to this people's relationship with the Creator God are their Scriptures, exodus, Torah, Temple, land, and Davidic kingship. As a Christian Israelology, this book devotes a chapter to each of these topics, investigating their theological significance both in light of ongoing Judaism and in light of Christian Scripture, Old and New Testaments, and Christian theology. The book makes a significant contribution to charting a path forward for Jewish-Christian dialogue from the perspective of post-Vatican II Catholicism.

The Papacy: Revisiting the Debate Between Catholics and Orthodox Erick Ybarra, 2022-11-22 The Lord Jesus Christ intended his kingdom present on earth, the Church of God, to be one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. Prior to the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century, history tells of the most egregious division in the Church between the Latin West and Byzantine East in AD 1054 and following. How can it be that Catholics and Orthodox share a thousand years of ecclesial life together in one faith, sacramental order, and hierarchical government only to have that bond of communion broken? Historians and theologians throughout the years have spilled much ink in recounting the causes and effects of this dreadful and heart-wrenching division, and among the many debates that exist between Catholics and Orthodox, none are as vital to the task of reconciliation as the subject of the papacy. In The Papacy: Revisiting the Debate between Catholics and Orthodox, Erick Ybarra examines sources from the first millennium with a fresh look at how methodology and hermeneutics play a role in the reading of the same texts. In addition, he conducts a detailed investigation into the most significant points of history in order to show what was clearly accepted by both East and West in their years of ecclesiastical unity. In light of this clear evidence, the reader of The Papacy is free to decide whether contemporary Catholicism or Eastern Orthodoxy has maintained the heritage of the first millennium on the understanding of the Papal office.

Reform im Katholizismus Bernd Oberdorfer, Oliver Schuegraf, 2018-02-01 Dieser Band macht die Ergebnisse der Tagung Reform im Katholizismus veranstaltet von der Evangelisch-Lutherischen Kirche Deutschlands und der Evangelischen Akademie Tutzing einer größeren Öffentlichkeit zugänglich. Zunächst wird grundsätzlich der Frage nachgegangen, wie in der römisch-katholischen Kirche Kontinuität und Innovation austariert sind, welche Formen und Instanzen des Umgangs mit Diskontinuität sie entwickelt hat und wie sie Traditionstreue und Veränderung miteinander zu verbinden sucht. Diese Grundsatzfragen werden jeweils aus katholischer und evangelischer Perspektive beleuchtet. In einem zweiten Teil wird die Frage nach Wandlungsprozessen anhand ausgewählter Beispiele beleuchtet.

Alter Fallstudien weiter vertieft Mit Beiträgen von Christine Axt, Piscalar Michael Beintker, Martin Bräuer, Wanda Deifelt, Peter De Mey, Theodor Dieter, Margarethe Hopf, Tina Huhtanen, Kathryn Johnson, Michael Karger, Dominique Marcel, Kosack Karl, Kardinal Lehmann, Friederike Nüssel, Bernd Oberdorfer, Johanna Rahner, Karlheinz Ruhstorfer, Oliver Schuegraf, Thomas Sinding, Magnus Striet, Bertram Stubenrauch, Wolfgang Thissen, Günther Wassilowsky, Gunther Wenz und Myriam Wijlens. Reform within Catholicism: Faithfulness to Tradition and Change within Roman Catholic Theology and Church. These proceedings offer the results of the conference Reform in Catholicism organized by the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Germany and the Evangelische Akademie Tutzing. In a first part the fundamental questions are raised: how continuity and innovation are balanced in the Roman Catholic Church; which forms and instances of dealing with discontinuity it has developed; and how it tries to interconnect change and loyalty to tradition. These issues are illuminated from a Catholic and Protestant perspective. In a second part the question of transformation processes is further deepened by selected case studies. Dialogue of Love Eduardo J. Echeverría, 2010-01-01. The Dialogue of Love is written from the perspective of an evangelical Catholic Ecumenist. Raised Catholic but having responded to the Gospel at L'Abri Fellowship in 1970, Eduardo J. Echeverría's journey took the paths of Reformed and then Anglo-Catholic Christianity on his way back to full communion with the Catholic Church in 1992. Engaging in ecumenical conversation as a committed Roman Catholic whose views have been shaped by, among others, Romano Guardini, John Paul II and Joseph Ratzinger, Benedict XVI, the author discusses in an articulate, bracing and constructive manner the positions of representative thinkers in the Dutch neo-Calvinist tradition of Reformed Christianity: Herman Bavinck, G. C. Berkouwer and Herman Dooyeweerd. Fundamental issues of ecclesiology, meaning and truth, sacramental theology, the relation between the Church and the world, nature and grace, and issues on the relation of faith and reason are examined with the aim of achieving clarification and understanding. Readers will experience ecumenical Dialogue not simply as an exchange of ideas but also as an exchange of gifts: indeed a dialogue of love. John Paul II. Bridging Scripture and Moral Theology Michael B. Cover, John Thiede, Joshua Ezra Burns, 2019-07-02. This book comprises essays honoring the life and work of Yiu Sing L. Chan, S.J., who died unexpectedly on May 19, 2015, at the end of his first year as a member of the faculty in the Department of Theology at Marquette University. The editors intend to commemorate Chan's brief but productive career by furthering the critical conversations he started. The essays included thus touch on aspects of the brilliant young Jesuit's wide-ranging work in the fields of scriptural research, moral theology, and systematic theology. Each essay either engages Chan's scholarship directly or seeks to advance his design to bridge the disciplinary gaps between scriptural research and constructive theology. This book includes contributions by noted Roman Catholic theologians James F. Keenan, S.J., Bryan N. Massingale and John R. Donohue, S.J., as well as two original poems by his Marquette colleagues dedicated to L. Chan. Satisfactio Julia Enxing, Dominik Gautier, 2019-06-01. The Indissolubility of Marriage Matthew Levering, 2019-05-20 This well researched book explains why the Catholic Church continues to teach marital indissolubility and addresses the numerous contemporary challenges to that teaching It surveys the patristic witness to marital indissolubility along with Orthodox and Protestant views as well as historical critical biblical exegesis on the contested biblical passages It also surveys the Catholic tradition from the Trent through Benedict XVI and it examines a Catholic argument that the Catholic Church s teaching can and should change Then it explores Amoris Laetitia the papal exhortation from Pope Francis on marriage and the various major responses to it with the issue of marital indissolubility at the forefront Finally it retrieves Aquinas s theology of marital indissolubility as a contribution to deepening current theological discussions The author argues that Amoris Laetitia upholds the traditional Catholic teaching that a valid and consummated Christian marriage is absolutely indissoluble in accord with the teachings of Jesus and the Apostle Paul as solemnly and authoritatively taught by the Council of Trent and affirmed by later popes and the Second Vatican Council He says that Amoris Laetitia should be interpreted and implemented in light of the doctrine of marital indissolubility implementations that undermine this doctrine should be avoided Levering says that numerous contemporary Catholic theologians and biblical scholars are mistakenly turning the indissolubility of marriage into contingent dissolubility based upon whether the spouses continue to act in loving ways toward each other The sacrament s gift of objective indissolubility is thereby undermined Fortunately the main interpreters of Amoris Laetitia whose views have been approved by Pope Francis insist that the Apostolic Exhortation does not change the doctrine of marital indissolubility in any way

Love, Joy, and Sex Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-07-30 There is no papal document that has generated as much interest controversy and debate in recent times as Pope Francis's Amoris Laetitia This document which came out of two very divisive synods of Catholic bishops and leaders in Rome in 2014 and 2015 will probably be the most discussed document ever produced by a pope in modern Catholicism on marriage and family life This volume has gathered seminal commentaries on Amoris Laetitia by African Catholic theologians social scientists and pastoral workers They offer African theological and pastoral responses to the principles and practices proposed by Pope Francis and the Synod on the family on such contested issues as same sex relations divorce and remarriage and reception and denial of Holy Communion in the church among other divisive issues These important essays and commentaries show the strengths and weaknesses of this papal commentary and point out the missing link in the global conversation on marriage family and same sex relations Their argument for the inclusion of African perspectives and moral traditions in the search for a third way in finding an inclusive and integrated pastoral art of accompaniment is very compelling The authors here also call for the inclusion of Africa's own unique challenges like polygamy childless marriages and the impact of migration civil conflict diseases ecological and population crises and the rights of African women in the global discussion on marriage and family life They also challenge uncritical clichés in world Christianity that Africa's opposition to same sex marriages or Western propaganda about population or birth control and contraception are conservative while showing diverse African conversations on these topics in the search for abundant life on this beautiful continent

Vatican II Matthew L Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2008-04-30 In Vatican II: Renewal Within Tradition an international team of theologians challenges the standard view of the Council as causing a rupture with earlier Catholic teaching Examining each document issued they argue that The Council was indeed putting forth a vision for the future of the Church but that vision was grounded in two millennia of tradition Taken together these essays demonstrate that Vatican II's documents are a development from an established antecedent in the Roman Catholic Church Each chapter contextualizes Vatican II teachings within that rich tradition
