Translators scholars and popular devotees of the book have claimed to explain its esoteric ideas and reveal its hidden meaning Few however have uttered a word about its history Bryan J Cuevas seeks to fill this gap in our knowledge by offering the first comprehensive historical study of the Great Liberation upon Hearing in the Bardo and by grounding it firmly in the context of Tibetan history and culture He begins by discussing the many ways the texts have been understood and misunderstood by westerners beginning with its first editor the Oxford educated anthropologist Walter Y Evans Wentz and continuing through the present day The remarkable fame of the book in the west Cuevas argues is strikingly disproportionate to how the original Tibetan texts were perceived in their own country Cuevas tells the story of how The Tibetan Book of the Dead was compiled in Tibet of the lives of those who preserved and transmitted it and explores the history of the rituals through which the life of the dead is imagined in Tibetan society This book provides not only a fascinating look at a popular and enduring spiritual work but also a much needed corrective to the proliferation of ahistorical scholarship surrounding The Tibetan Book of the Dead

Making the Invisible Real Catherine Hartmann, 2025-05-09 How can a person learn to see a mountain as a divine mandala especially when to the ordinary eye the mountain looks like a pile of rocks and snow This is the challenge that the Tibetan pilgrimage tradition poses to pilgrims who are told to overcome their ordinary perception to see the hidden reality of the holy mountain Drawing on multiple genres of Tibetan literature from the 13th to 20th centuries including foundational narratives of holy places polemical debates about the value of pilgrimage written guides to holy sites advice texts and personal diaries this book investigates how the pilgrimage tradition tries to transform pilgrims perception so that they might experience the wondrous sacred landscape as real and materially present Catherine Anne Hartmann argues that the pilgrimage tradition does not simply assume that pilgrims experience this sacred landscape as real but instead leads pilgrims to adopt deliberate practices of seeing ways of looking at and interacting with the world that shape their experience of the holy mountain Making the Invisible Real explores two ways of seeing the pilgrim s ordinary perception of the world and the fantastic vision believed to lie beyond this ordinary perception As pilgrims move through the holy place they move back and forth between these two ways of seeing weaving the ordinary perceived world and extraordinary imagined world together into a single experience Hartmann shows us how seemingly fantastical religious worldviews are not simply believed or taken for granted but actively constructed and reconstructed for new generations of practitioners

The Presence of Light Matthew Kapstein, 2004-11-03 There is perhaps no greater constant in religious intuition and experience than the presence of light In spiritual traditions East and West light is not only ubiquitous but something that assumes strikingly similar forms in altogether different historical and cultural settings This study examines light as an aspect of religiously valued experiences and its entailments for mystical theology philosophy politics and religious art The essays in this volume make an important contribution to religious studies by proposing that it is misleading to conceive of religious experience in terms of an irreconcilable dichotomy between universality and cultural construction An esteemed group of contributors representing the study of Asian and Western religious traditions from a range of disciplinary perspectives suggests that attention to various forms of divine radiance shows that there is indeed a range of principles that if not universal are nevertheless very widely occurring and amenable to fruitful comparative inquiry What results is a work of enormous scope demonstrating compelling cross connections that will be of value to scholars of comparative religions mysticism and the relationship between art and the sacred Contributors Catherine B Asher Raoul Birnbaum Sarah Iles Johnston Matthew T Kapstein Andrew Louth Paul E Muller Ortega Elliot R Wolfson Mimi Hall Yiengpruksawan Hossein Ziai
