The Transparent Traveler The Performance And Culture Of Airport Security:

The Transparent Traveler Rachel Hall, 2015-09-03 At the airport we line up remove our shoes empty our pockets and hold still for three seconds in the body scanner Deemed safe we put ourselves back together and are free to buy the beverage we were prohibited from taking through security In The Transparent Traveler Rachel Hall explains how the familiar routines of airport security choreograph passenger behavior to create submissive and docile travelers The cultural performance of contemporary security practices mobilizes what Hall calls the aesthetics of transparency To appear transparent a passenger must perform innocence and display a willingness to open their body to routine inspection and analysis Those who cannot whether because of race immigration and citizenship status disability age or religion are deemed opaque presumed to be a threat and subject to search and detention Analyzing everything from airport architecture photography and computer generated imagery to full body scanners and TSA behavior detection techniques Hall theorizes the transparent traveler as the embodiment of a cultural ideal of submission to surveillance

Homeland Richard Beck, 2025-03-11 For twenty years after September 11 the war on terror was simultaneously everywhere and nowhere With all of the military violence occurring overseas Americans found themselves living in two worlds at the same time In one of them soldiers fought abroad so that nothing at home would have to change at all In the other life in the United States took on all kinds of unfamiliar shapes altering people's sense of themselves their neighbours and the strangers they sat next to on aeroplanes In a fascinating and exhaustive account of the meaning of twenty first century America Richard Beck delivers a gripping exploration of the transformation of American life wrought by the war He describes sports stadiums fortified to look like military bases The surging sales of guns SUVs and pickup trucks The racism and xenophobia the erosion of free speech and the normalisation of mass surveillance Beck searchingly asks why those Americans who excused the worst abuses of the war on terror also had the easiest time understanding themselves as patriots The war fuelled an impunity culture he argues that came to a head with Trump's rise to power To see America through the lens of Homeland is to understand the country like never before

Choreographing the Airport Justine Shih Pearson, 2017-12-12 This book investigates the global hub airport as an exemplar of cosmopolitan culture and space A machine made for movement itself perched at the crossroads of the world's incessant mobility the airport is both a symbol of and stage for the ways in which we construct and inhabit the world today Taking an ethnographically inflected approach this study brings together knowledge of the moving body from dance and performance and the study of systems of mobility within cultural and mobilities studies in order to call attention to the kinaesthetic experience of global space What is the choreography of the global airport How does it perform on us How do we perform within it Extending thinking about contemporary cosmopolitanism and cultural identity and the performativity of places and identities this book is essential reading for those interested in cultural debates around globalisation the innovative application of performance theory towards everyday experience and interdisciplinary methodologies

Feminist

Surveillance Studies Rachel E. Dubrofsky, Shoshana Amielle Magnet, 2015-05-15 Questions of gender race class and sexuality have largely been left unexamined in surveillance studies The contributors to this field defining collection take up these questions and in so doing provide new directions for analyzing surveillance They use feminist theory to expose the ways in which surveillance practices and technologies are tied to systemic forms of discrimination that serve to normalize whiteness able bodiedness capitalism and heterosexuality The essays discuss the implications of among others patriarchal surveillance in colonial North America surveillance aimed at curbing the trafficking of women and sex work women presented as having agency in the creation of the images that display their bodies via social media full body airport scanners and mainstream news media discussion of honor killings in Canada and the concomitant surveillance of Muslim bodies Rather than rehashing arguments as to whether or not surveillance keeps the state safe the contributors investigate what constitutes surveillance who is scrutinized why and at what cost The work fills a gap in feminist scholarship and shows that gender race class and sexuality should be central to any study of surveillance Contributors Seantel Ana s Mark Andrejevic Paisley Currah Sayantani DasGupta Shamita Das Dasgupta Rachel E Dubrofsky Rachel Hall Lisa Jean Moore Yasmin Jiwani Ummni Khan Shoshana Amielle Magnet Kelli Moore Lisa Nakamura Dorothy Roberts Andrea Smith Kevin Walby Megan M Wood Laura Hyun Yi Kang

Trust and Transparency in an Age of Surveillance Lora Anne Viola, Paweł

Laidler, 2021-11-29 Investigating the theoretical and empirical relationships between transparency and trust in the context of surveillance this volume argues that neither transparency nor trust provides a simple and self evident path for mitigating the negative political and social consequences of state surveillance practices Dominant in both the scholarly literature and public debate is the conviction that transparency can promote better informed decisions provide greater oversight and restore trust damaged by the secrecy of surveillance The contributions to this volume challenge this conventional wisdom by considering how relations of trust and policies of transparency are modulated by underlying power asymmetries sociohistorical legacies economic structures and institutional constraints They study trust and transparency as embedded in specific sociopolitical contexts to show how under certain conditions transparency can become a tool of social control that erodes trust while mistrust rather than trust can sometimes offer the most promising approach to safeguarding rights and freedom in an age of surveillance The first book addressing the interrelationship of trust transparency and surveillance practices this volume will be of interest to scholars and students of surveillance studies as well as appeal to an interdisciplinary audience given the contributions from political science sociology philosophy law and civil society The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Culture of Surveillance David Lyon, 2018-05-21 From 9/11 to the Snowden leaks stories about surveillance increasingly dominate the headlines But surveillance is not only done to us it is something we do in everyday life We submit to surveillance believing we have nothing to hide Or we try to protect our privacy or negotiate the terms under which others have access to our data At the same time we participate in surveillance in order to supervise children monitor other road users and safeguard our property Social media allow us to keep tabs on others as well as on ourselves This is the culture of surveillance This important book explores the imaginaries and practices of everyday surveillance Its main focus is not high tech organized surveillance operations but our varied mundane experiences of surveillance that range from the casual and careless to the focused and intentional It insists that it is time to stop using Orwellian metaphors and find ones suited to twenty first century surveillance from The Circle or Black Mirror Surveillance culture David Lyon argues is not detached from the surveillance state society and economy It is informed by them He reveals how the culture of surveillance may help to domesticate and naturalize surveillance of unwelcome kinds and considers which kinds of surveillance might be fostered for the common good and human flourishing Handbook on Migration and Security Philippe Bourbeau, 2017-04-28 This Handbook provides a state of the art analysis of the critically important links between migration and security in a globalising world and presents original contributions suggesting innovative and emerging frontiers in the study of the securitization of migration Experts from different fields reflect on their respective conceptualisations of the migration security nexus and consider how an interdisciplinary and multifaceted dialogue can stimulate and enrich our understanding of the securitisation of migration in the contemporary world Through the Black Mirror Terence McSweeney, Stuart Joy, 2019-07-26 This edited collection charts the first four seasons of Black Mirror and beyond providing a rich social historical and political context for the show Across the diverse tapestry of its episodes Black Mirror has both dramatized and deconstructed the shifting cultural and technological coordinates of the era like no other With each of the nineteen chapters focussing on a single episode of the series this book provides an in depth analysis into how the show interrogates our contemporary desires and anxieties while simultaneously encouraging audiences to contemplate the moral issues raised by each episode What if we could record and replay our most intimate memories How far should we go to protect our children Would we choose to live forever What does it mean to be human These are just some of the questions posed by Black Mirror and in turn by this volume Written by some of the foremost scholars in the field of contemporary film and television studies Through the Black Mirror explores how Black Mirror has become a cultural barometer of the new millennial decades and questions what its embedded anxieties might tell us The Cambridge Handbook of Race and Surveillance Michael Kwet, 2023-03-02 Featuring chapters authored by leading scholars in the fields of criminology critical race studies history and more The Cambridge Handbook of Race and Surveillance cuts across history and geography to provide a detailed examination of how race and surveillance intersect throughout space and time The volume reviews surveillance technology from the days of colonial conquest to the digital era focusing on countries such as the United States Canada the UK South Africa the Philippines India Brazil and Palestine Weaving together narratives on how technology and surveillance have developed over time to reinforce racial discrimination the book delves into the often overlooked origins of racial surveillance from skin branding cranial measurements and fingerprinting to contemporary manifestations in big data commercial surveillance and predictive policing Lucid accessible and expertly researched this handbook provides a crucial investigation of issues spanning history and at the forefront of contemporary life Digital Culture & Society (DCS) Pablo Abend,Annika Richterich,Mathias Fuchs,Ramón Reichert,Karin Wenz,2019-11-26 Digital Culture Society is a refereed international journal fostering discussion about the ways in which digital technologies platforms and applications reconfigure daily lives and practices It offers a forum for inquiries into digital media theory methodologies and socio technological developments This issue presents empirical studies as well as theoretical and methodological reflections on inequalities and divides in digital cultures From various inter disciplinary perspectives the authors examine three main themes inequality of access inequality by design and discursive divides and inequality by algorithms while suggesting ways for research to move beyond these Futureproof D. Asher Ghertner,Hudson McFann,Daniel M. Goldstein,2020-01-31 The contributors to Futureproof examine the affective and aesthetic dimensions of security infrastructures and technology with studies ranging from Jamaica and Jakarta to Colombia and the US Mexico border Handbook on Critical Geographies of Migration Katharyne Mitchell,Reece Jones,Jennifer L. Fluri,2019 Border walls shipwrecks in the Mediterranean separated families at the border island detention camps migration is at the centre of contemporary political and academic debates This ground breaking Handbook offers an exciting and original analysis of critical research on themes such as these drawing on cutting edge theories from an interdisciplinary and international group of leading scholars With a focus on spatial analysis and geographical context this volume highlights a range of theoretical methodological and regional approaches to migration research while remaining attuned to the underlying politics that bring critical scholars together The Handbook of Communication and Security Bryan C. Taylor,Hamilton Bean,2019-06-10 The Handbook of Communication and Security provides a comprehensive collection and synthesis of communication scholarship that engages security at multiple levels including theoretical vs practical international vs domestic and public vs private The handbook includes chapters that leverage communication based concepts and theories to illuminate and influence contemporary security conditions Collectively these chapters foreground and analyze the role of communication in shaping the economic technological and cultural contexts of security in the 21st century This book is ideal for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars in the numerous subfields of communication and security studies Arts of the Border Debarati Sanyal,2025-12-02 Arts of the Border investigates the consequences of unfolding catastrophes across the world and the displacement they continue to produce Through recent narratives and media representations of the refugee crisis at Europe s edges it tells a new story about those on the move the technologies unleashed on them at borders the racialized and colonial histories that inform these technologies and the artistry with which migrants and allies bear witness to displacement The book reorients us toward the creativity and movement of migrants themselves their arts of the border as well as toward the political force of the arts that represent them whether in literature documentary film or art installations Sanyal proposes kino aesthetics as a framework for capture and fugitivity at borders From kino to set in motion and aesthetics relating to sensory perception kino aesthetics conveys the force of bodies in motion and the image in its circulation The book examines the simultaneity of capture and escape at thresholds of illegalization from airport detention zones to Calais s jungle and the Euro African border at Ceuta and Melilla What emerges throughout these case studies is a portrayal of border violence in its racial and colonial forms as well as an archive of refusal fugitivity and un bordered imagining Digital Displacement Erika Piazzoli,Rachael Jacobs,Garret Scally,2023-11-27 This book conceptualises the novel notion of digital displacement the sudden pivoting to online technology in education caused by the Covid 19 pandemic The book documents this historical phenomenon in education and discusses the consequences for educator practice and educational strategies in particular arts based educators Its content and scope cover both practice based and academic frameworks offering a scholarly investigation of the effect of the pandemic on embodied work including drama music voice dance and film through a series of seven case studies The book also examines embodied online practice with a view to how COVID 19 has changed this in the long term

Rethinking Media Coverage Lisa Parks,2018-05-24 In the post 9 11 era media technologies have become increasingly intertwined with vertical power as airwaves airports air space and orbit have been commandeered to support national security and defense In this book Lisa Parks develops the concept of vertical mediation to explore how audiovisual cultures enact and infer power relations far beyond the screen Focusing on TV news airport checkpoints satellite imagery and drone media Parks demonstrates how coverage makes vertical space intelligible to global publics in new ways and powerfully reveals what is at stake in controlling it Cyber Muslims Robert Rozehnal,2022-04-21 Through an array of detailed case studies this book explores the vibrant digital expressions of diverse groups of Muslim cybernauts religious clerics and Sufis feminists and fashionistas artists and activists hajj pilgrims and social media influencers These stories span a vast cultural and geographic landscape from Indonesia Iran and the Arab Middle East to North America These granular case studies contextualize cyber Islam within broader social trends racism and Islamophobia gender dynamics celebrity culture identity politics and the shifting terrain of contemporary religious piety and practice The book s authors examine an expansive range of digital multimedia technologies as primary texts These include websites podcasts blogs Twitter Facebook Instagram YouTube channels online magazines and discussion forums and religious apps The contributors also draw on a range of methodological and theoretical models from multiple academic disciplines including communication and media studies anthropology history global studies religious studies and Islamic studies Text + Field Sara L. McKinnon,Robert Asen,Karma R. Chávez,Robert Glenn Howard,2016-06-01 Rhetorical critics have long had a troubled relationship with method viewing it as at times opening up provocative avenues of inquiry and at other times as closing off paths toward meaningful engagement with texts Text Field shifts scholarly attention from this conflicted history looking instead to the growing number of scholars who are supplementing text based scholarship by venturing out into the field where rhetoric is produced enacted and consumed These field based practices involve observation ethnographic interviews and performance They are not intended to displace text based approaches rather they expand the idea of method by helping rhetorical scholars arrive at new and complementary answers to long standing disciplinary questions about text context audience judgment and ethics The first volume in rhetoric and communication to directly address the relevance processes and implications of using field methods to augment traditional scholarship Text Field provides a framework for adapting these new tools to traditional rhetorical inquiry Aside from the editors the contributors are Roberta Chevrette Kathleen M de On s Danielle Endres Joshua P Ewalt Alina Haliliuc Aaron Hess Jamie Landau Michael Middleton Tiara R Na puti Jessy J Ohl Phaedra C Pezzullo Damien Smith Pfister Samantha Senda Cook Lisa Silvestri and Valerie Thatcher Killer Apps Jeremy Packer,Joshua

Reeves,2020-02-28 In Killer Apps Jeremy Packer and Joshua Reeves provide a detailed account of the rise of automation in warfare showing how media systems are central to building weapons systems with artificial intelligence in order to more efficiently select and eliminate military targets Drawing on the insights of a wide range of political and media theorists Packer and Reeves develop a new theory for understanding how the intersection of media and military strategy drives today s AI arms race They address the use of media to search for enemies in their analyses of the history of automated radar systems the search for extraterrestrial life and the development of military climate science which treats the changing earth as an enemy As the authors demonstrate contemporary military strategy demands perfect communication in an evolving battlespace that is increasingly inhospitable to human frailties necessitating humans replacement by advanced robotics machine intelligence and media systems Tragedy Plus Time Philip Scepanski,2021-04-06 Following the most solemn moments in recent American history comedians have tested the limits of how soon is too soon to joke about tragedy Comics confront the horrifying events and shocking moments that capture national attention and probe the acceptable or sayable boundaries of expression that shape our cultural memory In Tragedy Plus Time Philip Scepanski examines the role of humor particularly televised comedy in constructing and policing group identity and memory in the wake of large scale events Tragedy Plus Time is the first comprehensive work to investigate tragedy driven comedy in the aftermaths of such traumas as the JFK assassination and 9 11 as well as during the administration of Donald Trump Focusing on the mass publicization of television comedy Scepanski considers issues of censorship and memory construction in the ways comedians negotiate emotions politics war race and Islamophobia Amid the media frenzy and conflicting expressions of grief following a public tragedy comedians provoke or risk controversy to grapple publicly with national traumas that all Americans are trying to understand for themselves
